Wolverine Securities, LLC
(an Illinois limited liability company)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT
December 31, 2019

NOTE A - ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Wolverine Securities, LLC (the Company) was organized under the State of Illinois Revised Limited Liability Company Act on July 9, 2014.

On March 16, 2015, the Company was approved by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA). The Company conducts business as a wholesale market maker in Reg NMS equity securities. The Company solicits business primarily from order sending firms, providing execution services to clients while committing firm capital in a principal capacity. The Company interacts with equity markets both on and off exchange as a means of sourcing liquidity and managing risk.

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wolverine Trading, LLC (the Parent).

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The process of preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Cash

The Company is exposed to concentrations of credit risk. The Company maintains cash at a financial institution where the total cash balance is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 per depositor, per bank. At times, the Company may maintain balances in excess of FDIC limits. The Company monitors this credit risk and has not experienced any losses related to these risks.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment items are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed over the estimated useful lives of the underlying assets using straight-line and accelerated depreciation methods.

Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Expenditures, which materially extend the original lives of assets, are capitalized and amortized over their useful lives.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price), in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability, in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, the Company may use various valuation approaches, including market, income and/or cost approaches. The fair value hierarchy requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Wolverine Securities, LLC
(an Illinois limited liability company)
December 31, 2019

Fair value is based upon quoted market prices. If listed prices or quotes are not available, fair value is based upon internally developed models that primarily use, as inputs, market-based or independently sourced market parameters, including but not limited to yield curves, interest rates, volatilities, equity or debt prices, and credit curves. Observable inputs are those that market participants would use in pricing assets or liabilities based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. The fair value hierarchy is categorized in three levels based on the inputs as follows.

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Valuations based on inputs, other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted active market prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices for identical or similar assets in inactive markets, and model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs are observable in active markets.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable in the market place and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

A financial instrument's categorization within the valuation hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of inputs that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The Company assesses the level of the financial instruments at each measurement date, and transfers between levels are recorded on the actual date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer in accordance with the Company's accounting policy regarding the recognition of transfers between levels of the fair values hierarchy. There were no transfers during the year.

The Company's assets and liabilities recorded at fair value have been categorized based upon the fair value hierarchy, see Note D.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes. Consequently, no provision or credit has been recorded for federal income taxes as the Company's income (loss) is directly taxable to the individual member.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which amends several aspects of the measurement of credit losses on financial instruments, including replacing the existing incurred credit loss model and other models with the Current Expected credit Losses (CECL) model and amending certain aspects of accounting for purchased financial assets with deterioration in credit quality since origination. The new standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. Expected credit losses on receivables will be measured based on historical experience, current conditions and forecasts that effect the net collectability of the reported amounts. The Company has completed its analysis as of January 1, 2020 related to its financial assets within the scope of the Update and identified no material current expected credit loss to be recorded.

NOTE C - RECEIVABLE FROM AND EQUITY WITH OTHER BROKERS

ABN AMRO Clearing Chicago LLC (ABN AMRO) acts as a clearing broker for the Company under an agreement. Cash on deposit with the clearing broker satisfy any existing margin requirements. Balances at clearing broker consist of cash on deposit as of December 31, 2019.

In the event that a clearing broker becomes insolvent, recovery of the Company's funds might be limited to the equity capital of the respective clearing broker. In such an instance, the Company could incur losses to the extent that the recovered amount is less than the total cash and other property deposited with the clearing broker.

Receivable from clearing broker at December 31, 2019 consists of cash on deposit. Securities owned, cash and financial instruments held at the Company's clearing broker collateralize securities sold, not yet purchased and amounts due to clearing broker, if any, and may serve to satisfy regulatory capital or margin requirements.

NOTE D - FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company engages in proprietary trading of equity securities, acting mainly as a market maker. As such, the Company holds itself out as willing to buy and sell securities for its own account on a regular and continuous basis in amounts specified by each respective exchange.

All trading instruments are subject to market risk, the risk that future changes in market conditions may make an instrument less valuable. As the instruments are carried at market value, those changes directly affect income. Exposure to market risk is managed in accordance with risk limits set by management by buying or selling instruments or entering into offsetting positions.

The fair market value of the Company's equity security assets and liabilities are $23,282,286 and $24,120,732, respectively, as of December 31, 2019, and deemed Level 1 investments.

As of December 31, 2019, the Company had no Level 2 or Level 3 assets or liabilities.

NOTE E - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

At December 31, 2019, the Company had payable balances of $5,235 to Wolverine Trading, LLC, the Parent, $108,652 to Wolverine Execution Services, LLC, and $823 to Wolverine Trading Technologies, LLC, each of which is an affiliated entity, and recorded as due to affiliates on the statement of financial condition. There is no interest expense provided on these unsecured advances, and repayments are to be made at the discretion of the Parent and affiliate as appropriate.

The Parent provides administrative support to the Company.

The net capital rule may effectively restrict the payment of member withdrawals.

NOTE H - CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

In the normal course of business, the Company may be subject to various litigation and arbitration matters. When such matters arise, they are vigorously defended and numerous meritorious defenses tend to exist. As of December 31, 2019, there is no outstanding litigation, individually or in the aggregate, that would have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

NOTE I - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In accordance with the provisions set forth by the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 855, Subsequent Events, management has evaluated subsequent events through February 28, 2020, the date the financial statements were available for issuance. Management has determined that there are no material events that would require adjustment to or additional disclosure in the Company's financial statements.
