1. Please tell us whether you intend to commence the offering of all three classes of common stock within two calendar days after qualification and offer all such securities on a continuous basis during the offering period. Please note that Rule 251(d)(3)(i)(F) of the Securities Act of 1933, which is limited to offerings which are commenced within two calendar days after qualification and will be made on a continuous basis during the offering period, does not allow for delayed offerings. Please advise how your offering of each class of security complies with the conditions of Rule 251(d)(3)(i)(F).
