Notes to Financial Statement
For the year ended December 31, 2019

1. Organization

Owl Rock Capital Securities LLC ("Owl Rock Capital Securities" or the "Company") is a limited liability company established in the state of Delaware on December 17, 2015. On January 5, 2017 the Company became a broker-dealer registered with the Securities Exchange Commission ("SEC"), a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Owl Rock Capital Partners LP ("Owl Rock Capital Partners"). The Company provides distribution services with respect to Owl Rock Capital Corporation ("ORCC"), Owl Rock Capital Corporation II ("ORCC II"), and Owl Rock Technology Finance Corporation ("ORTF") (collectively, "Owl Rock BDCs") as an agent for investment advisors affiliated with the Company ("Investment Advisors" or individually "Investment Advisor").

The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial services and, accordingly, claims exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statement have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and are stated in United States dollars ("U.S. dollars").

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies followed by the Company:

Cash

Cash consists of deposits held at a bank. Cash is carried at cost, which approximates fair value. The Company deposits its cash with highly-rated banking corporations and, at times, may exceed the insured limits under applicable law.

Receivable from Affiliates

Receivable from Affiliates is stated at its net realizable value, which represents the account balance less an allowance for balances not partially or fully collectible, if applicable. Receivable from Affiliates balance includes balances due to the Company in connection with revenues earned offset by cash advances and expense allocations received from the Company's affiliates. The receivable is settled periodically. The Company considers a receivable uncollectible when, based on current information or factors such as age and credit worthiness, it is probable that the Company will not collect, in full, the receivable balance. An allowance is established when management believes that collection, after considering relevant factors, is in doubt. As of December 31, 2019, there is no allowance for uncollectible accounts.

Capitalized Software

Capitalized Software is recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Capitalized software is amortized over the estimated useful lives of the asset using the straight-line method.

Revenue Recognition

The Company applies Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" ("ASC 606") which aligns revenue recognition with the timing of when promised goods or services (the "performance obligations") are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Company recognizes revenue when the performance obligation is satisfied. As the Company provides Investment Advisors with distribution, marketing, and shareholder services as a combined single performance obligation on an ongoing basis, Investment Advisors receive the benefits of those services as Securities performs them and simultaneously consumes those benefits as received. Therefore, Securities satisfies the performance obligation over time. As a result, for each financial reporting period, the entire transaction price allocated to the single performance obligation is recognized in revenue.

Accrued Compensation

Accrued compensation represents compensation due to employees.

Income Taxes

The Company is a disregarded entity for tax purposes and is included in the consolidated federal income tax return filed by Owl Rock Capital Partners. Owl Rock Capital Partners is taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and, accordingly, is not subject to federal and state income taxes, such taxes are the responsibility of the individual members. However, Owl Rock Capital Partners is subject to a 4.0% New York City Unincorporated Business Tax ("UBT") on net taxable income. The Company is not subject to, and does not intend to enter into, a tax sharing agreement. Additionally, the Company has not paid or received any tax reimbursements, nor does it intend to pay or receive such reimbursements in the future. As a result, no provision for federal, state, or local income tax is included in the accompanying financial statement.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from these estimates and such differences could be material.

ASC Topic 460, "Guarantees," requires the disclosure of the Company's representations and warranties which may provide general indemnifications to others. The Company in its normal course of business may enter into contracts that contain a variety of these representations and warranties that provide general indemnifications. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as claims may be unasserted. However, based on its experience, the Company expects the risk of loss to be remote.

3. Agreements and Related Party Transactions

Expense Sharing Agreement

The Company is a party to an expense sharing agreement with Owl Rock Capital Partners and certain of its affiliates ("Expense Sharing Agreement"). In accordance with the Expense Sharing Agreement, the Company reimburses its affiliate, for certain services provided to the Company. Such reimbursement is determined based on the affiliate employees compensation and amount of time dedicated by such affiliate's employees to the Company.
