Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business of the Company

Cadia Capital Advisors, LLC (DBA Rubicon Capital Advisors) (the Company) became registered as a broker/dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 30, 2017 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority Inc., specializing in private placements, merger and acquisition transactions and advisory services. Although the firm may service other sectors, their primary focus is in infrastructure as well as in renewable energy.

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Cadia Capital Ireland Limited (the Parent). The Company was formed on December 21, 2015, pursuant to the general corporation laws of the state of Delaware.

Revenue Recognition

The Company adopted Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC Topic 606") which requires the Company to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires the entity to follow a five-step model to (1) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Investment banking fees are recorded on a settlement date basis. Advisory fees are recognized at the time services are earned.

Success fees are recorded when a transaction has been consummated and are contingent on the closing of a transaction such as a merger, consolidation, reorganization, spin-off, recapitalization, restructuring, leveraged buyout, tender or exchange offer, purchase or sale of stock assets, or other similar events. Upon the closing of a transaction, the Company will record revenue based upon the agreed-upon terms specific to the customer. Upon the successful completion of the transaction, retainer fees previously remitted can be offset against final payment, if contractually stipulated.

Receivables from Customers

Receivables are carried at original invoice amount. Management determines if an allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary by regularly evaluating individual customer receivables and considering a customer's financial condition, credit history, and current economic conditions. At December 31, 2021, there was no allowance for doubtful accounts.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company which is generally disregarded for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes. However, the Company elected to be treated as a domestic corporation for income tax purposes.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2. Related Party Transactions

The Company has entered into a service agreement with two group entities, Rubicon Infrastructure Advisors (RIA) and Rubicon Capital Advisors (RCAI) whereby, RIA and RCAI charge the Company for occupancy charges, employee compensation, travel, entertainment, marketing, technology, and business development charges.
