Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

March 31, 2022

1. Organization and Business

Market Securities, LLC (the “Company”), is a limited liability company and was formed under the laws of Delaware on March 8, 2016. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) and the National Futures Association (“NFA”). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Market Securities Holdings, Inc. (the “Parent”).

The Company acts as a broker for U.S. institutional customers in the purchase and sale of U.S. equity securities. All transactions are cleared through a clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. The Company is also permitted to act as an intermediary pursuant to SEA Rule 15a-6 in foreign equity, debt, options transactions, private placements and the distribution of research.

The Company does not carry customer accounts or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities and, accordingly the Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in that the Company’s activities are limited to those set forth in the conditions for exemption appearing in paragraphs (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii).

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

This financial statement was prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of this financial statement and the amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Cash

All cash deposits are held by two financial institutions and therefore are subject to the credit risk at those financial institutions and may at times exceed amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe there to be any significant credit risk with respect to these deposits.

Property and Equipment

Property and Equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided for on a straight-line basis over an estimated useful life of 3 years.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and is a disregarded entity for income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) provides that any income or loss is passed through to the ultimate beneficial member for federal, state and certain local income taxes. The Company applies previously adopted ASU 2019-12, which specifies that an entity is not required to allocate any portion of the consolidated tax expense to a legal entity that is not subject to tax in its own separate financial statements. However, the Company has elected to record income taxes despite not being subject to tax and is a disregarded entity for income tax reporting purposes.

At March 31, 2022, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require. The Parent's federal and state income tax returns are generally open for examination for subsequent to 2019.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Certain financial instruments are carried at amounts that approximate fair value due to the short-term nature and negligible credit risk. These instruments include cash, short-term receivables, accounts payable, and other liabilities.

Leases

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. The lease cost associated with the leases are recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. See further reference in "Note 7. Commitments".

Current Expected Credit Losses

The Company accounts for estimated credit losses on financial assets measured at an amortized cost basis in accordance with FASB ASC 326-20, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses. FASB ASC 326-20 requires the Company to estimate expected credit losses over the life of its financial assets and certain off-balance sheet exposures as of the reporting date based on relevant information about past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts.

The Company records the estimate of expected credit losses as an allowance for credit losses. For financial assets measured at an amortized cost basis the allowance for credit losses is reported as a valuation account on the balance sheet that adjusts the asset's amortized cost basis.

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Commissions and fees receivable

Commissions receivable are comprised of amounts due for processed trades and fees receivable related to amounts owed for market commentary. The Company performs a review of its receivables periodically to evaluate the need for an allowance for credit losses. Management reviews all accounts receivable balances, determines a course of action on any delinquent amounts. At March 31, 2022, management has reviewed and provided an allowance for credit losses of $40,679.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Due from clearing broker

The Company's due from clearing broker includes amounts on deposit pursuant to an agreement with the clearing broker in the amount of $250,000. Due from clearing broker also includes receivables from unsettled trades executed on behalf of customers and accrued interest receivables. A portion of the Company's trades and contracts are cleared through a clearing organization and settled daily between the clearing organization and the Company. Because of this daily settlement, the amount of unsettled credit exposures is limited to the amount owed the Company for a very short period of time. The Company continually reviews the credit quality of its counterparties.

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies its clearing broker against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under this indemnification cannot be estimated. The Company has had no historical losses and continuously monitors its credit and market risk exposure. The Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make payments under these arrangements and as such has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for this indemnification.

3. Property and Equipment

Computer equipment	$ 84,888
Furniture and fixtures	7,193
Leasehold improvements	40,761
	132,842
Less: Accumulated depreciation and amortization	(132,842)
	$ -

4. Transactions with Related Parties

The Company maintains a Service Level and Expense Sharing Agreement (the "Agreement") with affiliates, Market Securities LLP ("MSL") & Market Securities Dubai ("MSD"), whereby MSL provides connectivity and technology support, operations, accounting and legal support, compliance services, human resources and MSD provides management support & risk management services. Additionally, MSL will bear all initial IT infrastructure costs, FINRA application costs, and the costs of certain registered persons. The Company does not have any obligation, direct or indirect, to reimburse or otherwise compensate MSL for any or all costs that MSL has paid on behalf of the Company through March 31, 2022.

The Company owes MSL for service fees that have been netted down by referral fees and other revenue for a total payable to MSL in the amount of $412,226 at March 31, 2022.

4. Transactions with Related Parties (continued)

The Company owes MSD for management service fees with a payable balance to MSD in the amount of $379,576 at March 31, 2022.

The Company is owed $1,820 from the parent, for prior year income taxes, paid on its behalf, on March 31, 2022 which is included in Due from affiliates.

At March 31, 2022, the Company owes Kyte $100,841 which is included in Due to affiliates.

The terms of these arrangements may not be the same as those that would otherwise exist or result from agreements and transactions among unrelated parties.

5. Subordinated Borrowings

The Company borrowed $200,000 pursuant to a Subordinated Loan Agreement, from MSL, with an initial maturity of August 2020 and carries an interest rate of 2% per annum. This loan was amended in February 2020 to extend the maturity date to September 2021 and to include a clause stating that the scheduled maturity date, without further action by either Market or the Company, shall be extended an additional year unless on or before the day seven months preceding the scheduled maturity date then in effect, Market shall notify the Company in writing, with a written copy to FINRA, that such scheduled maturity date shall not be extended. Such notification has not been made, thus the current effective scheduled maturity date is September 2023.

In September 2018, the Company borrowed an additional $200,000 pursuant to a Subordinated Loan Agreement, from the same affiliate, with an initial maturity of September 2020 and carries an interest rate of 2% per annum. Similar to the agreement discussed above, this agreement includes a similar clause in which such notification has also not been made, thus the current effective scheduled maturity date is September 2023.

These Subordinated Loans have been approved by FINRA and are available in computing net capital under the SEC's uniform net capital rule. To the extent that such borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with the minimum net capital requirements, it may not be repaid.

6. Income Taxes

The net deferred tax liability at year-end is composed of depreciation, allowance for doubtful accounts and accrued expenses on nondeductible expenses.

7. Commitments

The Company occupies office space pursuant to a non-cancellable membership agreement which expired April 30, 2022. Going forward, the contract renews on a monthly basis. The payments under this agreement are $6,888. The Company intends to enter into a new lease agreement in the coming year.

The Company also has a security deposit of $15,450 relating to the membership.

8. Concentration

Substantially all cash assets of the Company are held primarily by two banks and a single clearing broker dealer.

9. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital equal to the greater of $250,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At March 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $1,138,359 which exceeded the required net capital of $250,000 by $888,359.

The Company is also subject to the CFTC's minimum financial requirements, which require that the Company maintain net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of its requirements under Regulation 1.17 under the Commodity Exchange Act or SEC Rule 15c3-1. At March 31, 2022, the Company's net capital as noted above also exceeded the minimum net capital required under Regulation 1.17 of $45,000 by $1,093,359.
