The Investor hereby irrevocably subscribes for and agrees to purchase Units in the amount equal to the purchase price set forth on the signature page hereto (the "Purchase Price"). Proceeds from subscriptions for the Units will be immediately available for use by the Company.

1.1 The Investor understands that it will not earn interest on any funds held by the Company prior to the Company’s acceptance of the Investor’s subscription. The initial closing of the Offering (the “Initial Closing”) will take place upon the receipt and acceptance by the Company of one or more subscriptions for Units in the Offering. The Company may immediately use the proceeds from subscriptions upon acceptance by the Company of any such subscription. The date of the Initial Closing is referred to herein as the “Initial Closing Date”. The Company may hold additional interim closings (“Additional Closings”) after the Initial Closing provided that the terms of the Offering are the same for each closing. Any such Additional Closings shall occur on one or more dates (each, an “Additional Closing Date”). The Initial Closing Date and the Additional Closing Dates are referred to herein as a “Closing Date”; the last Closing is referred to herein as the “Final Closing”. Upon receipt by the Company of the requisite payment for all Units to be purchased by the Investors whose subscriptions are accepted at the Initial Closing or any Additional Closing, as applicable, and subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, the Units so purchased will be issued in the name of each such Investor as of the date of the Initial Closing, Additional Closing, or Final Closing, as applicable.

1.2 The Company expects to use the proceeds of this Offering primarily for implementation of a Single Window Online Compliance system for property owner registration and land transaction management in the Kingdom of Buganda within the country of Uganda, and to expand business development and corporate support operations for its affiliates (the “Project”). RIGHTS OF PREFERRED STOCK AND COUPON HOLDERS

Preferred Stock – Series A

The Preferred Stock offered in this Exhirspectus is designated as Series A.

1. Underlying Investment.

(a) The underlying value of the Series A Preferred Stock is derived from a Ugandan project company, ViVA Compliance Technologies Uganda Ltd ("ViVA Uganda" or "Project Company"), that is held by an Affiliate of the Corporation. Dividends for the stock rank as a senior debt obligation from ViVA Uganda to the Corporation, and from the Corporation to the shareholder.

2. Dividends.

(a) The Corporation shall not declare or pay any dividends or distributions on shares of Common Stock until the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock then outstanding shall have first received, or simultaneously receive, a like distribution on each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock, in an amount at least equal to the product of the per share amount, if any, of the dividends or distributions to be declared, paid or set aside for the Common Stock.

(b) Dividends shall be paid annually to Series A Preferred Stock shareholders, at 10% of face value of the Stock. Dividend payments rank pari passu with all unsecured obligations of the Corporation.

3. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up; Certain Mergers, Consolidations and Asset Sales of the Project Company.

(a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Project Company, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Project Company available for distribution to its stockholders, but before any payment shall be made to the holders of Common Stock or any other class or series of stock ranking on liquidation junior to the Series A Preferred Stock by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to $100 per share (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares), plus any dividends declared but unpaid on such shares. If upon any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Project Company the remaining assets of the Project Company available for distribution to its stockholders shall be insufficient to pay the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock in the Corporation the full amount to which they shall be entitled, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any distribution of the remaining assets and funds of the Project Company in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

(b) After the payment of all preferential amounts required to be paid to the holders of any class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking on Project Company liquidation prior to and in preference to the Common Stock, upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Project Company, the remaining assets and funds of the Project Company available for distribution to its stockholders shall be distributed among the shareholders of the Project Company.

4. Voting.

(a) Series A Preferred Stock have no voting rights with the Corporation or the Project Company, unless a vote of Series A Preferred Stockholders is required per the terms identified in the Negative Covenants section 7 below.

5. Right to Registration

(a) In the event that the Corporation is unable to redeem the Series A Preferred Stock by the Mandatory Redemption Date (defined below), then the Corporation will seek to register the Series A Preferred Stock with the SEC to create a public market for the shares.

6. Redemption.

(a) The Corporation will, subject to the conditions set forth below, on the fourth anniversary of the issuance of Series A Preferred Stock (“Mandatory Redemption Date”), redeem the stock at the original face value of $100 per share.

(b) If the Project Company has not repaid the Promissory Note to the Corporation, or if for any other reason the funds of the Corporation legally available for redemption of the Series A Preferred Stock on any Mandatory Redemption Date are insufficient to redeem the number of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock required under this Section 6 to be redeemed on such date, those funds which are legally available will be used to redeem the maximum possible number of such shares ratably in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable to the holders of Series A Preferred Stock if the funds of the Corporation legally available therefor had been sufficient to redeem all shares required to be redeemed on such date. At any time thereafter when additional funds of the Corporation become legally available for the redemption of the Series A Preferred Stock, such funds will be used, at the end of the next succeeding fiscal quarter, to redeem, to the extent of the available funds and in the same proportion as set forth in the preceding sentence, the balance of the shares which the Corporation was theretofore obligated to redeem.

(c) Unless there shall have been a default in payment of the Mandatory Redemption Price, on the applicable Mandatory Redemption Date all rights of each holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock as a stockholder of the Corporation by reason of the ownership of such shares will cease, except the right to receive the Mandatory Redemption Price for such shares, without interest, upon presentation and surrender of the certificate representing such shares, and such shares will not from and after such Mandatory Redemption Date be deemed to be outstanding.

(d) Any Series A Preferred Stock redeemed pursuant to this Section 6 will be cancelled and will not under any circumstances be reissued, sold or transferred and the Corporation may from time to time take such appropriate action as may be necessary to reduce the authorized number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock accordingly.

7. Negative Covenants.

(a) The Corporation shall not amend, alter or repeal the preferences, special rights or other powers of the Series A Preferred Stock so as to affect adversely the Series A Preferred Stock, without the written consent or affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, given in writing or by vote at a meeting, consenting or voting, as the case may be, separately as a class; provided that if any such amendment, alteration or repeal adversely affects all of the Series A Preferred Stock in the same manner, such amendment or repeal shall require only the written consent or affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, acting as a single class.

(b) So long as at least 10,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares) are outstanding (or such lesser number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock as are then outstanding if the Corporation has, prior to such time, failed to redeem shares of Series A Preferred Stock when such redemption was due in accordance with Section 6 above), the Corporation shall not, without the prior written consent of the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock representing at least a majority of the combined votes represented by the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock:

(i) authorize any shares of capital stock with preference or priority over the Series A Preferred Stock as to the right to receive either dividends or amounts distributable upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Project Company or with superior vesting or redemption rights;

(ii) amend the Corporation's By-laws in a manner adverse to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock;

(iii) declare or pay any dividends on Common Stock other than dividends payable solely in Common Stock;

(iv) redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire (or pay into or set aside a sinking fund for such purpose) any shares of Common Stock at a price greater than the price at which they were originally issued;

(v) liquidate, dissolve or wind-up the Project Company;

(vi) make (or permit any subsidiary to make) any loan or advance to any person, including without limitation, any employee or director of the Corporation or any subsidiary, except (A) advances and similar expenditures in the ordinary course of business or (B) as approved by the Board of Directors; or

(vii) (A) merge with or into or consolidate with any other corporation (other than a merger of consolidation in which the stockholders of the Company immediately prior thereto own at least 80% of the outstanding voting stock of the surviving or acquiring corporation), (B) sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all, or a Significant Portion (as defined below), of its properties or assets (for this purpose, "Significant Portion" shall mean properties or assets with a fair market value equal to more than 35% of the book value of the Company's total properties or assets as of the end of the most recent fiscal quarter), or (C) acquire all or substantially all of the properties or assets of any other corporation or entity (except for consideration of less than 20% of the Corporation's consolidated net worth as of the end of the prior fiscal quarter).

8. Transfer Rights

(a) The Corporation shall not restrict the transfer of Series A Preferred Stock, so long as the transfer does not violate SEC or state securities laws.

Dividend Coupons – Coincident with Series A Preferred Stock

Dividend Coupons are issued at the same time as Series A Preferred Stock, in proportion to the amount of Stock issued. Dividend Coupons give the coupon holder the right to a fixed percentage of dividends declared by The Project Company after the Mandatory Redemption of the Series A Preferred Stock is completed. The percentage is fixed at the original time of stock purchase, and is equivalent to 0.0003% per share of stock. Coupons are not sold independently from Series A Preferred Stock, are issued in tandem with the stock, and constitute a separate covenant between the Corporation and the Coupon holder once the stock is redeemed.

1. Underlying Investment.

(a) The underlying value of the Coupons are derived from a Ugandan project company, ViVA Compliance Technologies Uganda Ltd (“ViVA Uganda” or “Project Company”), that is held by an Affiliate of the Corporation.

(a) When the Project Company declares a dividend, a fixed percentage of that dividend will be transferred to the Corporation, which will then be issued to Coupon holders prorated to the original Shareholding of the purchaser of the Series A Preferred Stock. Dividend payments on the Coupons are solely dependent upon a dividend declaration and distribution from the Project Company to the Corporation.

(b) When a dividend is declared, dividends will be paid annually within thirty days of the end of the Calendar Year

(c) Dividends to Coupon holders will only be paid (i) after Mandatory Redemption is completed, and (ii) when the Project Company declares a dividend.

3. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up; Certain Mergers, Consolidations and Asset Sales of the Project Company.

(a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Project Company, the holders of Coupons will not be entitled to any compensation.

(b) In the event of a sale of the Project Company after Mandatory Redemption is completed, Coupon holders are entitled to redemption under the terms set forth in (6) below.

4. Voting.

(a) Coupons have no voting rights.

5. Right to Registration

(a) Coupons will not be registered for public sale.

6. Redemption.

(a) Coupons have a $0 face value, and will not be redeemed by the Company unless (i) the Project Company is sold after Mandatory Redemption, and (ii) the future value of the Coupons are quantified and included in the sales price of the Project Company. The Corporation will use best efforts to include such quantification and valuation in any sale of the Project Company, but cannot guarantee that the Coupons will have residual value.
