NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2022

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Annexus Securities, LLC (the “Company”) is a Delaware limited liability company, which is wholly owned by Annexus Holdings, LLC (“Holdings”), a Delaware limited liability limited partnership.

In August 2022, the indirect equity ownership and control of the Company was transferred from Annexus Holding, LLLP to Holdings that was subsequently acquired by Integrity Marketing Group, LLC (“IMG”). A Continuing Membership Application (CMA) was filed with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and approved October 27, 2022.

Headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona, the Company was formed in 2016 to operate as a securities broker-dealer, marketing and wholesaling registered annuities through wholesale and independent distribution. The Company is authorized to act as a broker or dealer in securities pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3. The Company is considered a non-covered firm and relies on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073, adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5, as the Company limits its business activities exclusively to participating in distributions of securities (other than firm commitment underwritings) in accordance with the requirements of paragraphs (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (1) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3). On August 31, 2020, the Company amended its Membership Agreement to be considered a non-covered firm.

NOTE 2 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) and to general practice within the brokerage industry. The accompanying financial statements are presented on the accrual basis of accounting, in conformity with GAAP.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

ANNEXUS SECURITIES, LLC
DECEMBER 31, 2022

Commissions Receivable

The Company's accounts receivable is from commission paid by an unaffiliated broker-dealer for marketing, training and wholesaling of their registered product. Commission receivable over 30 days are considered past due and treated as a nonallowable asset for net capital purposes. As of December 31, 2023, there was no allowance for credit losses recorded in the financial statements.

Commissions receivable from an unaffiliated broker-dealer were $245,482 at December 31, 2023 and recorded on the statement of financial condition. The Company did not have any other significant commission receivable assets or commission payable balances as of December 31, 2023.

Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses and other assets are reported at net unamortized cost. Prepaid assets are amortized by the straight-line method over the life of the asset.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues pursuant to FASB's Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). The Company's performance obligations under its single customer contract include marketing, training, and wholesaling activities related to the sale of registered annuity products. Commission revenues are earned on the basis of and calculated as a percentage of the initial policy premium at issue date. Under ASC 606, the Company views the marketing, training, and wholesaling activities as a single performance obligation and recognizes revenue at policy issue date consistent with the payments received monthly under the contract.

Expense Sharing Agreement

The Company is part of an expense sharing agreement with Annexus Management Company, LLC ("AMC") such that certain general and administrative expenses are allocated to the Company as a management fee primarily based on the proportion of employee headcount and resources utilized. The expense sharing agreement also requires reimbursement for direct costs incurred by AMC on behalf of the Company. All appropriate allocations have been made for the year ended December 31, 2023 and are included in the accompanying financial statements.

Salaries and Benefits

The Company has ten full-time allocated IMG employees. Expenses for securities compensation, salaries, benefits and payroll taxes for the allocated IMG employees are a direct expense of the Company, however, are paid through IMG to securities licensed employees and reimbursed by the Company. Other expenses are allocated to the Company in accordance with the expense sharing agreement.

Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes. Consequently, all taxable income, gains and losses of the Company are passed through to the member.

Management performs an evaluation of all income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's income tax returns to determine whether the income tax positions meet a "more likely than not" standard of being sustained under examination by the applicable taxing authorities. AMC has performed its evaluation of all income tax positions taken on all open income tax returns and has determined that there were no positions taken that do not meet the "more likely than not" standard. Accordingly, there are no provisions for income taxes, penalties, or interest receivable or payable relating to uncertain income tax positions in the accompanying financial statements. Interest and penalties, should such be incurred, would be recorded to other expense in the statement of operations. The Company is subject to federal and state income tax examinations for taxable years 2020 - 2023.

Events Occurring after Reporting Date

The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred through the date the Company's financial statements were issued, for possible recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

NOTE 3 - CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK

The Company maintains cash balances at financial institutions whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to statutory limits. The Company's cash balances generally exceed statutory limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management considers this to be a normal business risk.

The Company engages in various marketing and wholesaling activities in which counterparties solely include broker-dealers, some which may be affiliated with banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk from loss of revenue. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the issuer of the instrument.

For the year ended December 31, 2023, 100% of commission revenue was paid by one unaffiliated Broker/Dealer. This customer accounted for 100% of commissions receivable as of December 31, 2023.

As of December 31, 2023, the net payable to AMC totaled $104,500.

NOTE 5 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

From time to time the Company is involved or may be involved in legal proceedings, regulatory and arbitration proceedings and claims that may arise in the ordinary course of business, the outcome of which is uncertain, management believes that the disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position or results of operations of the Company.
