SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Haint Blue Brewing, LLC (the company) is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements are representations of the Company's management who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity.

Nature of the Businesses: Haint Blue Brewing, LLC is an Alabama corporation with one location in Mobile, AL. The company specializes in manufacturing unique craft brews to distribute to retailers and the public.

Revenue and Costs Recognition: The Company's primary source of revenue is craft beer sales and, as such, revenue is recognized when the sale occurs. The Company recognizes costs when it is incurred and expenses the costs immediately.

Property and Equipment: Property and equipment is stated on a costs basis and will be depreciated using straight line method once the assets go into service. Expenditures for major renewals and betterments that extend the life of the asset are capitalized. Expenditures that are considered repair and maintenance are expensed during the period incurred.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements and notes. Although these estimates are based on management's knowledge of current events and actions it may undertake in the future, they may ultimately differ from actual results.

Subsequent Events: The Company had a subsequent event occur on March 29, 2018. The Company entered a note payable with Synovus Bank. This note bears interest at 5.9% and is for a maximum of $428,000. This will be used to rehabilitate the existing structure, payoff $99,000 of current notes payable and finish setting up the total brewing capability.
