ANNUAL REPORT

This Annual Report is dated April 11, 2019.

BUSINESS

Divinia Water, Inc. is involved in the bottling of purified water in glass bottles. The company operates a manufacturing, research and development, and production facility in Idaho Falls, Idaho. Divinia Water is essential hydration without ingredients or additives. Divinia is free from toxic pollutants and chemicals, making it the healthiest option for consumers. Bottled in recyclable glass bottles with clean lines and timeless packaging, Divinia is easily recognized as an exceptionally unique product.

Offerings

Between July 31, 2018 and December 31, 2018 the company sold 120,726 shares of common stock in exchange for $1.50 per share under Regulation Crowdfunding on StartEngine.com. As of the date of this report the offering is still active.

The company increased its capital stock from 10,000,000 shares to 20,000,000 shares of common stock to facilitate further sales of its stock on February 12, 2018, effective with the State of Idaho.

REGULATORY INFORMATION

The company has not previously failed to comply with the requirements of Regulation Crowdfunding.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION OF OPERATIONS

The company moved from manually applying stick on labels to the bottles to printing on the bottles directly, thereby reducing costs and increasing the hourly production of labeling, and the quality of the label. The bottle printer is semi-automatic thereby limiting the quantity, however the company plans to move to an automatic system in the future when the funds are available.

The company entered into a lease for a electric pallet jack because of the increase of sales and handling of inventory. The electric forklift, leased the year before, and the electric pallet jack are both considered green and cause no pollution in the production areas.

The management team is still the same as last year with no changes, along with the Board of Directors.

The company intends to install an automatic bottling line in 2018 to greatly increase the production bottling capabilities. The company has already paid for the device and is awaiting delivery in 2019. The production capability is dependent on the amount of processor units that are used for the water, and that is currently 14. The management is taking steps to increase this bottleneck. The processors are produced in house to protect the Intellectual Property that is included in the units, and are steadily increasing the capability to produce these units.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATION

Operating Results – 2018 Compared to 2017

Total income for 2018 was $549,059.82; compared to $183,713 in 2017, which is over a 198% increase in income (from sales). Net operating income increased year over year from $-584,854 in 2017 to $-175,938.79 in 2018, a $408,915.21 improvement; this includes the payment of loans for more equipment to improve output, with such equipment including an 800 gallon distiller, bottle stamper and bottling line (with installment in January 2019). He went through SEC registration and took the ADTI public on NASDAQ. Upon the lucrative exit of the company, Sedlmayr pursued water filtration technology by inventing a revolutionary purification process. This same process is the foundation to Divinia Water and is what gives us our competitive advantage, changing the way people perceive bottled water. Foreseeing future market trends and consumer demands, Sedlmayr has taken Divinia from strength to strength in its evolution from small family business to industry interrupter. Sedlmayr founded the company in 2014 and incorporated Divinia in October 2015; he has dedicated all of his full time and effort to Divinia since early 2014. He serves as the company's President and CEO since inception of the company, October 2015.

Crosby Sedlmayr

Instrumental in the development and research of Divinia Water technology, Sedlmayr maintains the day-to-day operations/functions of the company while driving the company forward in advanced scientific development and research and works only full time at Divinia.

Remy Sedlmayr

Remy has over 20 years of office management and bookkeeping and helped Steven take their company public in the 80's. She is instrumental in the maintenance of important documents and financial records. Remy works closely with our CPAs to make sure that Divinia is compliant in the realm of taxes, payroll, banking, etc. and is the liaison between Steven and Kiersten, helping to provide important legal documentation to the IRS, SEC, and other governmental agencies. Remy has been with Divinia full time since 2014 and became Treasurer in October 2015, when the company was officially incorporated.

Kiersten Landers

Kiersten has worked with the company since its early days and carved a role for herself as co-founder and secretary in October 2015. In July 2015, before joining Divinia, Kiersten was appointed regional sales manager for BTH Hospitality Group, where she lead sales efforts and assisted in the opening of a new Hilton hotel. She left in September 2015 to augment sales efforts at Divinia Water. She attended Loyola Marymount University and has a degree in Business Administration - Entrepreneurship. What it means to be a minority holder

As a minority holder you will have limited ability, if at all, to influence our policies or any other corporate matter, including the election of directors, changes to our company's governance documents, additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the company or of assets of the company or transactions with related parties.

Dilution

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. The investor's stake in a company could be diluted due to the company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the company issues more shares, the percentage of the company that you own will decrease, even though the value of the company may increase. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g. convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into stock. If we decide to issue more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (though this typically occurs only if we offer dividends, and most early stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, preferring to invest any earnings into the company).

The type of dilution that hurts early-stage investors most occurs when the company sells more shares in a "down round," meaning at a lower valuation than in earlier offerings.

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it's important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER

The common stock sold in the Regulation CF offering, may not be transferred by any purchaser, for a period of one-year beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

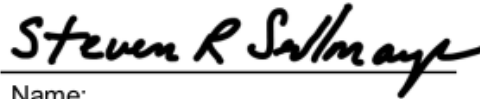

- (1) to the Company;
- (2) to an accredited investor;
- (3) as part of an offering registered with the SEC; or

(4) to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Divinia Water, Inc. was formed on October 29, 2015 ("Inception") The financial statements of Divinia Water, Inc (which may be referred to as the "Company", "we," "us," or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's headquarters are located in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

The Company's principal business activity is manufacturing hand-crafted, purified water. Divinia Water is the result of patented purification technology that delicately removes the effects of man. The result is balanced, deuterium depleted, cellular EZ water-renatured water. This process recreates the natural formation of water far beneath the earth's surface, where hydrogen and oxygen from heat and rock combine to make clean, pure, H2O.

Going Concern and Management's Plans

The Company lacks significant working capital. We have historically relied on pre-sales of product, product sales, debt, advances from related parties, and sales of common stock for operating capital. We will incur significant additional costs before significant revenue is achieved. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the next 12 months, the Company intends to fund its operations with funding from our proposed Regulation Crowdfunding campaign, and additional debt and/or equity financing as determined to be necessary. There are no assurances that management will be able to raise capital on terms acceptable to the Company. If we are unable to obtain sufficient amounts of additional capital, we may be required to reduce the scope of our planned development, which could harm our business, financial condition and operating results. The balance sheet and related financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from these uncertainties.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amount of expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company's assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 - Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities

See accompanying Independent Accountant's Review Report

in active markets.

Level 2 - Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

The fair value hierarchy also requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Fair-value estimates discussed herein are based upon certain market assumptions and pertinent information available to management as of December 31, 2018 and 2017. The respective carrying value of certain on-balance-sheet financial instruments approximated their fair values.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Account Receivables

Accounts receivable are carried at the invoiced amounts. Accounts receivable are periodically evaluated for collectability based on past credit history with clients and other factors. Provisions for losses on accounts receivable are determined on the basis of loss experience, known and inherent risk in the account balance, and current economic conditions. As of December 31, 2018, the Company had no account receivables.

Inventory

Inventories consist of raw materials, including bottles, boxes, lids, and shipping supplies. All inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis. As of December 31, 2018, the Company had inventory in the amount of $42,729.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Depreciation of property and equipment is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from three to five years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the useful lives or the term of the lease. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2018 was $119,212.99

As of December 31, 2018, property and equipment consisted of the following:

Accumulated Depreciation	(281,313)
Total	$ 616,389

Intangible Assets-Patent

The company capitalizes patent filing fees and it expenses legal fees, in connection with internally developed pending patents. The company also will capitalize patent defense costs to the extent these costs enhance the economic value of an existing patent. Patent are amortized over the expected period to be benefited, not to exceed the patent lives, which may be as long as 17 years.

The Company uses patented technology. The patent is held by Remy and Steve Sedlmayr, the majority shareholder of the Company. Divinia Water, Inc. has exclusive right to utilize the patent.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from sales of water when (a) persuasive evidence that an agreement exists; (b) the service has been performed; (c) the prices are fixed and determinable and not subject to refund or adjustment; and (d) collection of the amounts due is reasonably assured.

Shipping and Handling Costs

Costs incurred for shipping and handling are included in cost of sales at the time the related revenue is recognized. Amounts billed to a customer for shipping and handling are reported as an increase in revenue.

Advertising

The Company expenses the cost of advertising and promotions as incurred. Advertising expenses for the year ended December 31, 2018 was $21,641.

Research and Development

We incur research and development costs during the process of researching and developing us product and future offers. Our research and development costs consist primarily of third-party product design consultants. We expense these costs as incurred until the resulting product has been completed, tested, and made ready for commercial use.

Income Taxes

The Company applies ASC 740 Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial statement reported amounts at each period end, based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. The provision for income taxes represents the tax expense for the period, if any and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

ASC 740 also provides criteria for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. A tax benefit from an uncertain position is recognized only if it is "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable upon examination by the relevant taxing authority based on its technical merit.

The Company is subject to tax in the United States ("U.S.") and files tax returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction and Idaho state jurisdiction. The Company is subject to U.S. Federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for all periods since Inception. The tax periods that remain open to examination by the federal and state jurisdictions as of December 31, 2018 covers three fiscal years from the date of filing.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash with a major financial institution located in the United States of America which it believes to be creditworthy. Balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. At times, the Company may maintain balances in excess of the federally insured limits.
