

dotSport LLC

SPORT IS ABOUT PASSION. PASSION DRIVES dotSport

we are a digital media/e-commerce enterprise provide sports content across 3 product lines to inspire
and connect global audiences

user-generated sports content across all digital devices monetized by e-commerce and advertising the common thread ties all three product lines together

Why?

1. diversification of risk intended to strengthen investor confidence

2. cross-marketing opportunities between product lines

A timed, interactive video call between a professional athlete and a fan (www.1on1.fans)

our primary product enables sports fans to schedule private 20-minute fee-based face-to-face video conversations centered on their favorite athlete's self-selected schedule and fee

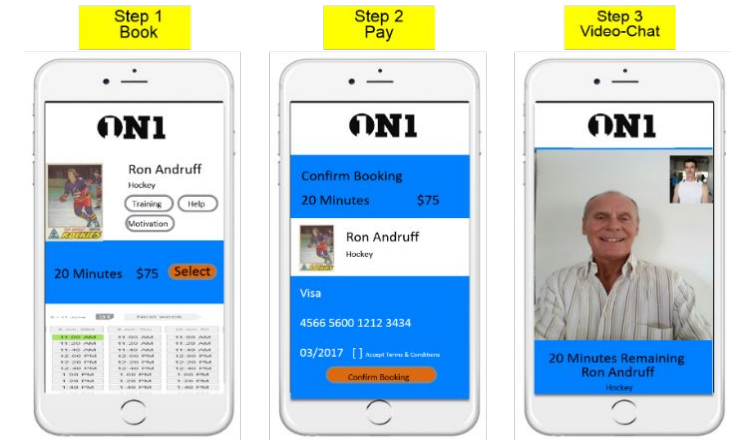

Why?

1. from personal experience we believe athletes inspire people – fans and non-fans alike
– as much as fans inspire athletes

2. present trends enable the company to amplify social media through every fan endorsement enabling 1on1 to tap into ‘built-in’ viral potential

1on1

A social network for endurance athletes, monetized by advertising and e-commerce (www.life.zone)

first of its kind social network for goal-driven athletes provides ability to post information about training strategies, find and meet peers, share advice, tips, race results, as well as find and trade specialized equipment

LIFE.ZONE

Why?

1. represented by >100 million participants worldwide our target market is one of the most sought after advertiser demographics due to endurance athletes being highly-mobile tech-savvy with high disposable incomes
2. one of the most emotional exciting and fastest-growing sectors of sport – endurance athletes
