0:00

four years ago we started a journey to 0:03

bring emerging writers and storytellers

0:04

into Hollywood voyage is an audacious

0:08

and revolutionary idea we believe that

0:11

everyone has a story worth sharing and

0:14

we want everyone to have a fair shot

0:16

I'm not Mundel founder and CEO of voyage

0:19

we've done exceptionally well so far

0:22

with three projects produced a fourth

0:25

and production and dozens more either

0:27

financed her in development we recently

0:30

won an Emmy and we can do better through 0:35

equity crowdfunding we are establishing

0:37

the first modern-day creator-owned

0:39

studio and solving one of the largest

0:42

problems creators face

0:44

let me share some context the

0:47

entertainment industry is a buyers

0:49

market there are over a million books

0:52

and screenplays created each year but 0:55

only an estimated seven to ten thousand

0:57

films and TV shows are produced

1:00

worldwide annually

1:02

it's like having a hundred homes for

1:03

sale for only one buyer so as a creator

1:07

you're starting with a one-percent

1:09

chance of making it but what if we were

1:12

all in it together

1:14

what if while making a bet on your

1:16

project you were also making a bet on

1:19

other's projects

1:20

what if you could benefit when another

1:23

creators project takes off even if yours

1:26

doesn't with an investment in voyage you

1:29

alone a piece of a company that owns a

1:31

piece of a lot of different projects and

1:34

with your investment voyage will be in

1:36

an even stronger position to grow our community and give early-stage projects

1:39

1:41

a leg up with financing together we can

1:45

create a friendlier Hollywood with a

1:47

more effective approach to film and

1:49

television storytelling
