Minds is a social networking platform built on a foundation of internet freedom. All of our code is 100% free and open source for maximum transparency and accountability through peer review.

Minds leverages blockchain technology to enable decentralized peer-to-peer payments between content creators, advertisers and consumers. Users are rewarded with cryptocurrency based on their daily contribution to the network (i.e. unique interaction, referrals, activity) and can exchange the cryptocurrency for advertising views or premium content subscriptions.
