3.3 Competitors

TRUSTIFY.INFO is only similar system we have been able to find. They were funded in summer of 2015 with $1m seed funding. Trustify marketing is directed primarily at consumer market.

3.4 Competitive Advantage

In early 2000 the founders had the opportunity to build from inception an enterprise level background check system that within 3 years would be used by the US Dept. of Justice, Department Of Defense agencies and several Fortune 500 companies. Through that process we built a network of ex-FBI and DOD credentialed investigators that are in private practice. Using these relationships, and newer tech, we are building a system to allow end users access to these investigators. The user interface and data structure will allow clients to communicate directly with the end source, while allowing the investigator to maintain control of the investigation.

3.5 Regulations

perceptre is Software as a Service (SaaS) and licensing and permissive purpose rules will be the responsibility of the investigative firms. Agreements will be supplied and electronically signed by parties, including non-disclosure and non-circumvent agreements between perceptre and all parties.

4. PRODUCT/SERVICE LINE

4.1 Product or Service

Revenue will be generated by adding transaction fees to work completed on perceptre. Perceptre will manage cash flow from client to investigator giving both parties assurance that product and payment will be delivered. System will provide investigators with data base (e.g. Motor Vehicle) reports creating profit margin for perceptre and savings for investigators through scale. In addition perceptre will be able to provide a customer facing web site for investigative firms for a monthly fee maintaining high level of security.

4.2 Pricing Structure

All hourly rates will have a percentage added to them paid by end user. In addition we will offer content management system for a customer facing website available to investigators.

4.3 Product/Service Life Cycle

Perceptre is in 'seed stage'. First round of funding will be used to stand up system and begin creating revenue. Subsequent rounds of funding will be sought to accelerate growth. Expectation is revenue neutral in year two and cash flow positive in year three.

4.4 Intellectual Property Rights

All code and intellectual property will be created by founders and owned by perceptre

4.5 Research & Development

Founders have over 30 years combined experience building secure investigation systems. Perceptre has made arrangements with groups such as Ex-FBI to have access to their member base.

5. MARKETING & SALES

5.1 Growth Strategy

We have access the over 1,000 investigators (members).
