This Annual Report is dated May 12, 2020.

BUSINESS

Company Overview:

Atmos Home was founded in 2017 by hardware industry veteran Mark Lyle and award winning designer, Chris Ladwig, and is based in Tampa Bay, Florida. The company is on a mission to get their affordable and easy-to-use products into every smart home on the planet, starting with their flagship product, AtmosControl.

AtmosControl is the world's 1st smart home control system, or hub, that combines the top 5 connection protocols used by smart home devices (Wifi, Bluetooth, Zigbee, ZWave, and Infrared) with voice, touch, gesture, and smartphone controls.

It puts control of a home's smart devices all in 1 place, eliminating the need to scroll through use endless apps, or having to remember hundreds of voice commands.

The company's R&D team has also designed AtmosSwitch and plans to launch it next year. AtmosSwitch will take existing lights with regular bulbs, and instantly convert them into smart lighting systems. It will also integrate with AtmosControl hub, so people can add its functionality to every room in their home, but at a lower price.

In January 2019, Atmos ran a 120-day, prelaunch sales period. During this time, over 1000 AtmosControl hubs were sold to people in 28 countries. The company has also built a list of more than 150 smart home installers, builders, and multi-tenant property management firms, internationally.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATION

Operating Results – 2019 Compared to 2018

Results of Operations

Year ended December 31, 2019 compared to year ended December 31, 2018.

Revenue

The company produced no revenue during 2019, as the company was still in development of its first product. The company began accepting preorders and deposits for its product in January of 2019.

Expenses

The Company's expenses consist of, among other things, compensation and benefits, marketing and sales expenses, fees for professional services, and research and development expenses. Expenses in 2019 increased approximately $435,000 from 2018. Approximately $216,000 of this increase was due to increased compensation and benefits costs as the company hired multiple new employees. Approximately $61,000 of this increase was due to increased spending on marketing and sales activity. Approximately $41,000 of this increase was due to increased R&D expenses, and approximately $24,000 in facility upgrades for manufacturing and equipment purchases, and utilities.

Historical results and cash flows:

Historically the company has invested primarily in research and development efforts, and sales and marketing activities related to the products. We plan to continue our focus on research and development as we near the completion of version 1 of the AtmosControl product. As we progress, we will hire additional software developers to increase our development capacity.

Soon we will begin production of the AtmosControl product, and with this, we will begin to generate revenues. We expect that initially these revenues will be in line with the 3 month pre-order campaign which was conducted beginning in January of 2019, during which approximately $400K of pre-orders was generated. As we grow, we will invest significantly into marketing the products in order to achieve scale.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The company has cash on hand, as of December 31, 2019, of $6,801.26.

Debt

The Company does not have any material terms of indebtedness.

What it means to be a minority holder

As a minority holder you will have limited ability, if at all, to influence our policies or any other corporate matter, including the election of directors, changes to our company's governance documents, additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the company or of assets of the company or transactions with related parties.

Dilution

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. The investor's stake in a company could be diluted due to the company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the company issues more shares, the percentage of the company that you own will decrease, even though the value of the company may increase. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g. convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into stock. If we decide to issue more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (though this typically occurs only if we offer dividends, and most early stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, preferring to invest any earnings into the company).

The type of dilution that hurts early-stage investors most occurs when the company sells more shares in a "down round," meaning at a lower valuation than in earlier offerings.

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it's important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER

The common stock sold in the Regulation CF offering, may not be transferred by any purchaser, for a period of one-year beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

- (1) to the Company;
- (2) to an accredited investor;
- (3) as part of an offering registered with the SEC; or
- (4) to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REVIEW REPORT

To the Stockholders' of
Atmos Home Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying statement of financial condition of Atmos Home Inc. (the Company") as of December 31, 2019, the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the period then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Atmos Home Inc.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(unaudited)

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Atmos Home Inc. was formed on August 23, 2017 ("Inception") in the State of Florida. The financial statements of Atmos Home Inc. (which may be referred to as the "Company", "Atmos", "we," "us," or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Atmos Home is a technology hardware developer and manufacturer in the smart or connected home technology industry. Atmos designs hardware and software to create advanced home automation control systems. We've developed intelligent voice/speech recognition technology, along with a powerful operating system, and integrated multiple communication standards to make the AtmosControl smart home system compatible with most connected home devices.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amount of expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company's assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 – Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 – Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

The fair value hierarchy also requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Fair-value estimates discussed herein are based upon certain market assumptions and pertinent information available to management as of December 31, 2019. The respective carrying value of certain on-balance-sheet financial instruments approximated their fair values.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history and has not generated revenue intended operations. The Company's business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the U.S. and worldwide along with local, state, and federal governmental policy decisions. A host of factors beyond the Company's control could cause fluctuations in these conditions, including but not limited to: technological changes in the Company's industry, and competition in our space. Adverse developments in these general business and economic conditions, including recession, downturn or otherwise, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and the results of its operations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company will recognize revenues from the manufacture and sale of Atmos home control systems when (a) persuasive evidence that an agreement exists; (b) the service has been performed; (c) the prices are fixed and determinable and not subject to refund or adjustment; and (d) collection of the amounts due is reasonably assured. No revenues have been derived to date.

Income Taxes

The Company is taxed as a corporation. Accordingly, the Company applies Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740 Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial statement reported amounts at each period end, based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. The provision for income taxes represents the tax expense for the period, if any and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

ASC 740 also provides criteria for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. A tax benefit from an uncertain position is recognized only if it is "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable upon examination by the relevant taxing authority based on its technical merit.

The Company has chosen a fiscal year-end of December 31st. The accompanying financial statements do not provide a provision for income taxes and the related disclosures as the Company has not completed a taxable year. In addition, the Company expects to record a full valuation allowance on any deferred tax assets. The Company currently is not under examination by any tax authority.
