RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

An investment in our shares involves a high degree of risk and many uncertainties. You should carefully consider the specific factors listed below, together with the other information included in this offering circular, before purchasing our shares in this offering. If one or more of the possibilities described as risks below actually occur, our operating results and financial condition would likely suffer and the trading price, if any, of our shares could fall, causing you to lose some or all of your investment. The following is a description of what we consider the key challenges and material risks to our business and an investment in our securities.

If our brand does not achieve more widespread consumer acceptance, our growth may be limited.

Our brand is early in its growth cycle and has not yet achieved extensive brand recognition. Accordingly, if consumers do not accept our brand, we will not be able to penetrate our markets and our growth may be limited.

Buy Out Right: The Company may, at any time after the closing of the Offering, and in connection with a bona fide institutional financing, repurchase the Common Stock from the subscribers in the Offering, by delivering the undersigned written notice of such repurchase along with payment for the Common Stock. The payment for the Common Stock shall be based on the valuation of the Company in such institutional financing.

Labor shortages, an increase in labor costs, or an inability to attract employees could harm our business.

Our employees and our ability to deliver an enjoyable cafe experience to our customers will be essential to our operations. If we are unable to attract and retain enough qualified restaurant personnel at a reasonable cost, and if they do not deliver an enjoyable customer experience, our results may be negatively affected. Additionally, competition for qualified employees could require us to pay higher wages, which could result in higher labor costs.

Disruptions in our supply chain or increases in ingredient, product and other supply costs could adversely affect our profitability and operating results.

Our cafes will be dependent on frequent deliveries of ingredients and other products. We believe we shall have adequate sources of supplies for our ingredients and products to support our cafe operations, however, there are many factors which could cause shortages or interruptions in the supply of our ingredients and products, including weather, unanticipated demand, labor, production or distribution problems, quality issues and cost. Some of these factors are beyond our control, and could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Delays in Opening our Cafes.

The proceeds of this Offering will be used, in part, to build out and open one or more cafes. Our revenues will arise primarily from the operation of the cafes and franchise fees. We do not anticipate receiving any income until our first cafes are complete and our initial franchisees have executed franchise agreements. Therefore, anything that delays the opening of the cafes or the on boarding of franchisees, will adversely effect our profitability.

Our Success Is Highly Dependent On Our Current Management.

Our success depends in significant part on the continued services of our current management team. Our success also depends in significant part on our ability to attract and retain additional management and other personnel. The inability to attract and retain such key personnel, or losing one or more of our existing management team, would seriously impair our ability to, or could cause us to fail to, successfully implement our business plan. This would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition and the investors could lose their investment.

Risks of Borrowing.

We may have to seek loans from financial institutions or other individuals in the future. Typical loan agreements might contain restrictive covenants which may impair our operating flexibility, and may require us to provide a security interest in our assets.

Limited Transferability and Liquidity.

Certain conditions imposed by the Securities Act must be satisfied prior to any sale, transfer, conversion or other disposition of our common stock. No public market exists for our common stock and no market is expected to develop.

Our failure or inability to protect our brand, trademarks or other proprietary rights could adversely affect our business and competitive position.

We believe that our brand, intellectual property and our confidential and proprietary information will be very important to our business and our competitive position. The brand "Black Momma Tea & Cafe", along with trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information and other intellectual property rights are key components of our operating and marketing strategies. Unauthorized usage or imitation by others could harm our image, brand or competitive position and, if we commence litigation to enforce our rights, cause us to incur significant legal fees. In addition, actions by other parties claiming that we are infringing on their intellectual property rights could also cause us to incur significant legal fees and divert management's attention from the operation of our cafes.

Projections: Forward Looking Information.

Any projections regarding our anticipated financial performance are hypothetical and are based on management's best estimate of the probable results of our operations, and have not been reviewed by our independent accountants. Such projections are based on several assumptions which management believes are reasonable. Some assumptions invariably will not materialize due to unanticipated events and circumstances beyond management's control. Therefore, actual results of operations will vary from the projections, and such variances may be material. The projected results cannot be guaranteed.

Dilution

You should understand the potential for dilution. Each investor's stake in us, could be diluted due to our issuing additional shares. In other words, if we issue more shares, the percentage of the Company that you own will decrease, even though our value may increase. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in the number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g., convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into stock.

If we decide to issue more shares, you could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (although this typically occurs only if we offer dividends, and most early stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, referring to invest any earnings into the Company).

The type of dilution that hurts early-stage investors mostly occurs when the company sells more shares in a "down round," meaning at a lower valuation than in earlier offerings.

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the Company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it is important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the Company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share

The cafe business is highly competitive. Although we believe we have a strong brand and will have strategic locations, there are many existing tea and coffee houses. We face competition from established companies such as Coffee Bean & Tea Leaf, as well as coffee houses such as Starbucks and Diedrich Coffee. Many of our competitors have substantially greater financial and marketing resources, larger customer bases, longer operating histories, greater name recognition and more established relationships in the industry than us. As a result, these competitors may be able to devote greater resources to marketing and sales than us. There can be no assurance that we will compete successfully with such competitors.

The Investor hereby appoints the CEO of the Company (the "CEO"), or his or her successor, as the Investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, to, consistent with this Instrument and on behalf of the Investor, (i) vote all Securities, (ii) give and receive notices and communications, (iii) execute any instrument or document that the CEO determines is necessary or appropriate in the exercise of its authority under this instrument, and (iv) take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the CEO for the accomplishment of the foregoing, including, but not limited to, signing all documents, and taking any and all actions, determined by the Company's officers and directors, in good faith, to be advisable to transfer any shares held by the Investor into a special purpose vehicle or other entity designed to aggregate the interests of holders of the Shares pursuant to Section 11 of this Agreement.

Our future success depends on the efforts of a small management team. The loss of services of the members of the management team may have an adverse effect on the company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

George Tootle is a part-time officer. As such, it is likely that the company will not make the same progress as it would if that were not the case.

Lack of Operating History and Risks of Operation.We are a new company (commencing operations in 2017). We have not yet commenced significant business operations. We are therefore, subject to all of the risks inherent in any new business enterprise. There can be no assurance that we or our franchisees will be successful in operating our cafes, and our failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 8: Avoid generalized statements and include only those factors that are unique to the issuer. Discussion should be tailored to the issuer's business and the offering and should not repeat the factors addressed in the legends set forth above. No specific number of risk factors is required to be identified.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 10: An issuer must provide a reasonably detailed description of any intended use of proceeds, such that investors are provided with an adequate amount of information to understand how the offering proceeds will be used. If an issuer has identified a range of possible uses, the issuer should identify and describe each probable use and the factors the issuer may consider in allocating proceeds among the potential uses. If the issuer will accept proceeds in excess of the target offering amount, the issuer must describe the purpose, method for allocating oversubscriptions, and intended use of the excess proceeds with similar specificity. Please include all potential uses of the proceeds of the offering, including any that may apply only in the case of oversubscriptions. If you do not do so, you may later be required to amend your Form C. Wefunder is not responsible for any failure by you to describe a potential use of offering proceeds.

DELIVERY & CANCELLATIONS

11. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

If we reach our target offering amount prior to the deadline, we may conduct an initial closing of the offering early if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to the new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Wefunder will notify investors if we conduct an Initial closing. Thereafter, we may conduct additional closings from time to time at our and Wefunder's discretion until the deadline date.

The following describes the process to invest in the Company, including how the Company will complete an investor's transaction and deliver securities to the investor.

1. Investor Commitment. The Investor will submit, through Wefunder Portal, a requested investment amount. When doing so, the investor will also execute an investment contract with the Company ("Investment Agreement"), using the investor's electronic signature.
2. Acceptance of the Investment. If the Investor Agreement is complete, the investor's commitment will typically be recorded within a few minutes. The commitment will also be available on the investor's "My Investments" screen on the wefunder.com website. After the offering closes, the contract will be counter-signed by the Company. The executed investment contract will then be sent to the investor via email, and is also available to download on the "My Investments" screen.
3. Investor Transfer of Funds. Upon receiving confirmation that an investment has been accepted, the investor will be responsible for transferring funds from a source that is accepted by Wefunder Portal into an escrow account held with a third party bank on behalf of issuers offering securities through Wefunder Portal.
4. Progress of the Offering. The Investor will receive periodic email updates on the progress of the offering, including total amounts raised at any given time, and will be notified by email and through the "My Investments" screen when the target offering amount is met.
5. Closing: Original Deadline. Unless we meet the target offering amount early, investor funds will be transferred from the escrow account to the Company on the deadline date identified in the Cover Page to this Form C and the Company's Wefunder Portal Profile.
6. Early Closings. If the target offering amount is met prior to the original deadline date, we may close the offering earlier, but no less than 21 days after the date on which information about the Company, including this Form C, is posted on our Wefunder Portal Profile. We will reschedule the offering deadline, and at least five days prior to the new deadline, investors will receive notice of it by email and through the "My Investments" screen. At the time of the new deadline, your funds will be transferred to the Company from the escrow account, provided that the target offering amount is still met after any cancellations.
7. Book Entry. Investments may be in book entry form. This means that the investor may not receive a certificate representing his or her investment. Each investment will be recorded in our books and records and will be recorded in each investor's "My Investments" screen. The investor will also be emailed the Investment Agreement again. The Investment Agreement will also be available on the "My Investments" screen. At the option of the Company, you may receive an electronic certificate.

12. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

An investor's right to cancel. An investor may cancel his or her investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the offering deadline.

If there is a material change to the terms of the offering or the information provided to the investor about the offering and/or the Company, the investor will be provided notice of the change and must re-confirm his or her investment commitment within five business days of receipt of the notice. If the investor does not reconfirm, he or she will receive notifications disclosing that the commitment was cancelled, the reason for the cancellation, and the refund amount that the investor is required to receive. If a material change occurs within five business days of the maximum number of days the offering is to remain open, the offering will be extended to allow for a period of five business days for the investor to reconfirm.

If the investor cancels his or her investment commitment during the period when cancellation is permissible, or does not reconfirm a commitment in the case of a material change to the investment, or the offering does not close, all of the investor's funds will be returned within five business days.

Within five business days of cancellation of an offering by the Company, the Company will give each investor notification of the cancellation, disclose the reason for the cancellation, identify the refund amount the investor will receive, and refund the investor's funds.

The Company's right to cancel. The Investment Agreement you will execute with us provides the Company the right to cancel for any reason before the offering deadline.

If the sum of the investment commitments from all investors does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the time of the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.

In addition, we may cap at 450 the total number of investors who will be allowed to invest through the offering that are not "accredited investors," as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. In the event that more than 450 non-accredited investors are initially accepted into an offering in step (2) described in Question 11, the Company may cancel investments based on the order in which payments by investors were received, or other criteria at the discretion of the Company, before the offering deadline.

Describe any other rights:

The common stock issued in the 2018 Regulation Crowdfunding campaign does not have voting rights.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

In the future we may issue shares of preferred stock in series from time to time with such designation, rights, preferences, and limitations as needed to raise capital. The terms of preferred stock could be more advantageous to those investors than to the holders of our common stock.

For example, the holders of preferred stock are typically granted a preference upon a liquidation, dissolution or winding up, our a sale of the company, which would mean they would be entitled to receive certain distributions before any payments to the holders of common stock. As another example, the holders of preferred stock are often granted the right to receive a certain amount of dividends before the payment of any dividends to the holders of common stock. Sometimes, the holders of preferred stock are granted anti-dilution rights, which means that if we issue future securities at below the price such investors pay for their shares of preferred stock, such holders would be entitled to the issuance of additional shares of common stock, through a reduction in the effective conversion price for such preferred stock, which would result in additional dilution to the holders of common stock, through an additional decrease in the holder's relative percentage ownership of us.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

No.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

As holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company, the shareholders may make decisions with which the Investor disagrees, or that negatively affect the value of the Investor's securities in the Company, and the Investor will have no recourse to change these decisions. The Investor's interests may conflict with those of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is optimal for or advantageous to the Investor.

For example, the shareholders may change the terms of the articles of incorporation for the company, change the terms of securities issued by the Company, change the management of the Company, and even force out minority holders of securities. The shareholders may make changes that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that are unfavorable to you but favorable to them. They may also vote to engage in new offerings and/or to register certain of the Company's securities in a way that negatively affects the value of the securities the Investor owns. Other holders of securities of the Company may also have access to more information than the Investor, leaving the Investor at a disadvantage with respect to any decisions regarding the securities he or she owns.

The shareholders have the right to redeem their securities at any time. Shareholders could decide to force the Company to redeem their securities at a time that is not favorable to the Investor and is damaging to the Company. Investors' exit may affect the value of the Company and/or its viability.

In cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro-rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional stock, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

Based on the risks described above, the Investor could lose all or part of his or her investment in the securities in this offering, and may never see positive returns.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The offering price for the securities offered pursuant to this Form C has been determined arbitrarily by the Company, and does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company's book value, assets, earnings or other generally accepted valuation criteria. In determining the offering price, the Company did not employ investment banking firms or other outside organizations to make an independent appraisal or evaluation. Accordingly, the offering price should not be considered to be indicative of the actual value of the securities offered hereby.

Because there is no public market for our securities, the price of the stock has been determined by our board of directors. Among the factors we have considered in determining the initial price are prevailing market conditions, our financial information, market valuations of other companies that we believe to be comparable to us, estimates of our business potential, the present state of our development and other factors deemed relevant.

In the future, we will perform valuations of our common stock that take into account factors such as the following:

- unrelated third party valuations of our common stock;
- the price at which we sell other securities, such as convertible debt or preferred stock, in light of the rights, preferences and privileges of our those securities relative to those of our common stock;
- our results of operations, financial position and capital resources;
- current business conditions and projections;
- the lack of marketability of our common stock;
- the hiring of key personnel and the experience of our management;
- the introduction of new products;
- the risk inherent in the development and expansion of our products;
- our stage of development and material risks related to our business;
- the likelihood of achieving a liquidity event, such as an initial public offering or a sale of our company given the prevailing market conditions and the nature and history of our business;
- industry trends and competitive environment;
- trends in consumer spending, including consumer confidence;
- overall economic indicators, including gross domestic product, employment, inflation and interest rates; and
- the general economic outlook.

We will analyze factors such as those described above using a combination of financial and market-based methodologies to determine our business enterprise value. For example, we may use methodologies that assume that businesses operating in the same industry will share similar characteristics and that the Company's value will correlate to those characteristics, and/or methodologies that compare transactions in similar securities issued by us that were conducted in the market.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

An Investor in the Company will likely hold a minority position in the Company, and thus be limited as to its ability to control or influence the governance and operations of the Company.

The marketability and value of the Investor's interest in the Company will depend upon many factors outside the control of the Investor. The Company will be managed by its officers and be governed in accordance with the strategic direction and decision-making of its Board Of Directors, and the Investor will have no independent right to name or remove an officer or member of the Board Of Directors of the Company.

Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

Additional issuances of securities. Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

Issuer repurchases of securities. The Company may have authority to repurchase its securities from shareholders, which may serve to decrease any liquidity in the market for such securities, decrease the percentage interests held by other similarly situated investors to the Investor, and create pressure on the Investor to sell its securities to the Company concurrently.

A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer. As a minority owner of the Company, the Investor will have limited or no ability to influence a potential sale of the Company or a substantial portion of its assets. Thus, the Investor will rely upon the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company to manage the Company so as to maximize value for shareholders. Accordingly, the success of the Investor's investment in the Company will depend in large part upon the skill and expertise of the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company. If the Board Of Directors of the Company authorizes a sale of all or a part of the Company, or a disposition of a substantial portion of the Company's assets, there can be no guarantee that the value received by the Investor, together with the fair market estimate of the value remaining in the Company, will be equal to or exceed the value of the Investor's initial investment in the Company.

Transactions with related parties. The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the executive management and Board of Directors of the Company will be guided by their good faith judgement as to the Company's best interests. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length, but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its shareholders. By acquiring an interest in the Company, the Investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

☐ No

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

You should read the following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations together with our financial statements and the related notes and other financial information included elsewhere in this offering. Some of the information contained in this discussion and analysis, including information regarding the strategy and plans for our business, includes forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. You should review the "Risk Factors" section for a discussion of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results described in or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in the following discussion and analysis.

Overview

We are purveyors of teas from different countries. We source directly from the plantation, so there's no middleman. Black Momma Tea & Cafe is the physical extension of our existing brands: Black Momma Vodka, Black Momma Tea, Black Momma Agave, and Black Momma Mixers, which currently have 26,000 total customers and totaled $2.5 million in online sales last year. We're building two locations in N.Y. to create physical extensions of our e-commerce business and to jump-start our expansion.

In five years, we hope to have 500 Black Momma Tea & Cafes that will consist of corporate stores, franchises, and licensed units. In addition, we are striving to be listed on a major exchange in the future which will allow for further expansion globally. This growth will create jobs, collaboration with new small businesses and help expand small manufacturers within the Food & Beverage industry.

Given the Company's limited operating history, the Company cannot reliably estimate how much revenue it will receive in the future, if any.

This investment is only in Black Momma Tea and Cafe, Inc. and not in our other brands.

Milestones

Black Momma Tea and Cafe, Inc was incorporated in the State of Delaware in August 2017.

Since then, we have:

- Two cafes in New York.
- Existing Black Momma brand products currently have 33,000 customers and totaled $2.9 million in sales.
- Our founder, Vanessa Braxton, is a retired structural engineer with experience managing an annual $350 million contracts and construction budget. With over 20 years of experience in engineering and construction, she became the first African American woman to build a Burger King in New York 22 years ago.
- Signed Letter of Intent for Location 1: 2263 Broadhollow Rd. across the street from 9600 Student Campus.
- Registered as a Federal Government Contractor in order to facilitate licensed locations on military bases.
- Applied as a vendor and Minority Women-Owned Business for NY State OGS Food, a retail contract which supplies NY state schools, hospitals, and agencies.

Historical Results of Operations

Our company was organized in August 2017 and has limited operations upon which prospective investors may base an evaluation of its performance.

- Revenues & Gross Margin. For the period ended July 31, 2019, the Company had revenues of $1,420.59 compared to the year ended July 31, 2018, when the Company had revenues of $0. Our gross margin was 2.56% in fiscal year 2019.
- Assets. As of July 31, 2019, the Company had total assets of $368,840, including $354,011 in cash. As of July 31, 2018, the Company had $0 in total assets, including $0 in cash.
- Net Loss. The Company has had net losses of $34,164 and net income of $0 for the fiscal years ended July 31, 2019 and July 31, 2018, respectively.

Related Party Transaction

Refer to Question 26 of this Form C for disclosure of all related party transactions.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

To-date, the company has been financed with $2,000 in debt and $1,066,250 in equity.

We plan to use the proceeds as set forth in this Form C under "Use of Funds". We don't have any other sources of capital in the immediate future.

We will likely require additional financing in excess of the proceeds from the Offering in order to perform operations over the lifetime of the Company. We plan offering in order to perform operations and the income of the Company, the plan to raise capital in 3 months. Except as otherwise described in this Form C, we do not have additional sources of capital other than the proceeds from the offering. Because of the complexities and uncertainties in establishing a new business strategy, it is not possible to adequately project whether the proceeds of this offering will be sufficient to enable us to implement our strategy. This complexity and uncertainty will be increased if less than the maximum amount of securities offered in this offering is sold. The Company intends to raise additional capital in the future from investors. Although capital may be available for early-stage companies, there is no guarantee that the Company will receive any investments from investors.

Runway & Short/Mid Term Expenses

Black Momma Tea and Cafe, Inc cash in hand is $300,000, as of August 2019. Over the last three months, revenues have averaged $500/month, cost of goods sold has averaged $0/month, and operational expenses have averaged $33,000/month, for an average burn rate of $32,500 per month. Our intent is to be profitable in 9 months.

Our revenues are currently low because we are in construction. The only revenue we've made in the last three months has been from a trade show where we made about $1,400. We have partnered with Shopify to run an ecommerce site, and that will be transferred in ownership to Black Momma Tea and Cafe, Inc. once the Cafe opens. Our expenses are also high at the moment as we're in construction. Although we can't guarantee it, we expect construction to be completed by summer 2019. We've already secured the space. In the first 3 - 6 months after opening, we expect revenues to be at around $75,000 - $90,000 per month. During the same time period, we expect expenses to be around $40,000. We expect the business to be profitable shortly after opening because it'll be in our busiest season (summer to fall).

We plan to do a Reg D shortly after the Wefunder raise. We're hoping to raise $5mil through that round, which will allow us to start building out the other location.
