Report of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Members of
SurfTrade, LLC

Opinion on the Financial statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of SurfTrade, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2020, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplementary Information

The supplementary information contained in Schedule I - Computation of Net Capital pursuant to Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of Securities and Exchange Commission has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 CFR § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE A

Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business - SurfTrade, LLC (Company), a Nevada limited liability company, was formed in December 2016. The Company was approved on March 3, 2020 as a broker/dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Company is solely owned by SurfTrade International Corporation (the "Parent"). The Parent was formed as a Nevada corporation on November 15, 2016.

The Company operates pursuant to the paragraph (k)(2)(ii) exemptive provision of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that Rule. The Company does not hold customer funds or securities as an introducing broker or dealer and will clear transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis through a clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries accounts of the customers and maintains and preserves all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker/dealer. As the Company has not conducted business it does not currently maintain a clearing broker/dealer.

The Company is a non-exchange member effecting transactions in listed securities through exchange member.

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and is treated as a disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes. The Company's taxable income or loss is included in the individual tax return of its member; therefore, federal income taxes are not payable by or provide for the Company.

Cash

Cash consists of cash in a bank, held at one financial institution which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insures accounts up to $250,000. The Company reduces its exposure to credit risk by depositing its cash with high credit-quality financial institutions.

DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE A NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. This revenue recognition guidance requires that an entity recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Upon commencement of revenue-generating activities, the Company intends to enter into contracts with customers related to their approved business activities. The Company, upon commencement of generating revenue, will recognize such revenue under ASC Topic 606. The Company had no customers in 2020 and accordingly no revenue was recognized during the year ended December 31, 2020.

Property Plant & Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment is stated at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset or the lease term. Assets costing more than $5,000 with a useful life of one year or more will be capitalized else, charged to the income statement in the year of purchase.

Note B Contingencies

There are currently no asserted claims or legal proceedings against the Company, however, the nature of the Company's business subjects it to various claims, regulatory examinations, and other proceedings in the ordinary course of business. The ultimate outcome of any such action against the Company could have an adverse impact on the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

NOTE C Financial Instruments and Concentration of Risk

Financial instruments subject to risk concentration is cash. The Company maintains depository cash with one banking institution. Depository accounts are insured by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") to a maximum of $250,000 per bank, per depositor.

DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE D Net Capital Requirements

The Company, as a registered broker dealer is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 8 to 1 during the first year following SEC approval. At December 31, 2020, the Company had net capital of $101,445, which was $96,445 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000 and its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .03 to 1.0.

NOTE E Related Party Transactions

The sole shareholder of the Parent purchases supplies or pays for expenses of the Company from time to time. The sole shareholder of the Parent paid for $5,290 of expenses on behalf of the Company between March 3, 2020 and December 31, 2020. The Company reimbursed the sole shareholder of the Parent $4,638 between March 3, 2020 and December 31, 2020 for expenses paid by the sole shareholder of the Parent on behalf of the Company. The Company owes the sole shareholder of the Parent $2,809 at December 31, 2020 for expenses paid by the sole shareholder of the Parent on behalf of the Company and is reflected on the Statement of Financial Condition as Accounts Payable. The entirety of the outstanding payable due to the sole shareholder of the Parent at December 31, 2020 is attributable to expenses paid for by the sole shareholder of the Parent since the Company was approved as a broker/dealer on March 3, 2020.

Financial position and results of operations could differ from the amounts in the financial statements if these transactions did not exist.

NOTE F Recent Accounting Pronouncements

During the year ended December 31, 2020 and through February 25, 2021, there were several new accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB. Each of these pronouncements, as applicable, has been or will be adopted by the Company. Management does not believe the adoption of any of these accounting pronouncements has had or will have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

NOTE G Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through April 23, 2021, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No subsequent events occurred which require adjustment or disclosure to the financial statements at December 31, 2020.

Note H Economic Risks

In March 2020, The World Health Organization (WHO) declared COVID-19 a global pandemic. This pandemic event has resulted in significant business disruption and uncertainty in both global and U.S. markets. While the Company believes that it is in an appropriate position to sustain the short-term effects of these world-wide events, the direct and long-term impact to the Company and its financial statements is undetermined at this time.

Statement regarding the Exemption from Reserve Requirements

The Company is exempt from the reserve requirements and the related computations for the determination thereof under paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as the Company is an introducing broker or dealer, clears all transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker or dealer, and who promptly transmits all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker or dealer which carries all of the accounts of such customers and maintains and preserves such books and records pertaining thereto pursuant to the requirements of Rule 17a-3 and Rule 17a-4, as are customarily made and kept by a clearing broker or dealer.

See accompanying report of independent registered public accounting firm.

Report of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Members of
SurfTrade, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying SurfTrade, LLC's Exemption Report, in which (1) SurfTrade, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3 under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that they met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
