Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. Set forth each question and any notes, but not any instructions thereto, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the responsive disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

RISK FACTORS

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

A large well-funded established player (Amazon, eBay, etc) could enter the localized auction business and disrupt our plans.

At this time, the Company's operations are limited to Southern California. The market opportunity may not be the same in other regions. This may limit the Company's ability to grow.

The Company plans to expand into other categories beyond furniture and decor. The economics associated with these expansions may not be similar to the economics of the existing category.

The Company may not raise enough capital to fund its losses while trying to get to profitability.

The Company's current auction locations are based where it previously had retail operations. The cost and effort associated with launching an auction may be different in a location where it has not had a prior operation.

Our future success depends on the efforts of a small management team. The loss of services of the members of the management team may have an adverse effect on the company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

The Company may never receive a future equity financing or elect to convert the Securities upon such future financing. In addition, the Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an IPO. If neither the conversion of the Securities nor a liquidity event occurs, the Purchasers could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities are not equity interests, have no ownership rights, have no rights to the Company's assets or profits and have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its actions.

Overview

Loveseat.com is a thriving local online auction marketplace in San Diego & Los Angeles. Today we are selling over 2,000 pieces of furniture and decor on a monthly basis. We plan to scale up our operations in our current markets as well as to expand geographically, ultimately to every city in the United States.

We intend to take Loveseat nationwide. While our only focus at this time is home furnishings, there are many other categories where we think the Loveseat experience is significantly better than the incumbents. By combining online auctions with a physical warehouse, we're able to eliminate the pricing friction of Craigslist and the shipping friction of eBay. There is potential to build a $1b/year transactional marketplace focused exclusively on local used goods.

Milestones

Loveseat, Inc was incorporated in the State of Delaware in July 2015.

Since then, we have:

- Selling 500+ pieces of furniture each week.
- 96% of items sell in 1 week at an average price of $55.
- Solid founding team - Wharton / Venmo (exit) / Ticketleap (exit).
- 61% of bidders repeat monthly.
- Take rate is 68% of Gross Merchandise Sales.
- Market opportunity north of $1b annually.
- Nearly 25% of consignors have participated in 3+ auctions.

- Assets. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had total assets of $223,599.72, including $143,902.78 in cash. As of December 31, 2018, the Company had $360,781.25 in total assets, including $121,230.04 in cash.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

To-date, the company has been financed with $119,500 in debt, $1,793,332 in equity, and $405,337 in SAFEs.

Our business is currently operationally profitable and we do not anticipate the financial need to raise money in the future. We are considering the possibility of raising additional funds to fuel growth across geographies and categories.

Runway & Short-/Mid Term Expenses

Loveseat, Inc cash in hand is $261,303.69, as of May 2020. Over the last three months, revenues have averaged $172,937.51/month, cost of goods sold has averaged $72,465.18/month, and operational expenses have averaged $81,118.29/month, for an average net margin of $19,354.04 per month. Our intent is to be profitable in 6 months.

Our financial operations were profitable in Q1 2020 and April 2020. We continue to expand to new categories and a larger percentage of our business is new, returned merchandise rather than vintage items.

We expect our revenues to grow over the next 3-6 months as we expand our operations by moving into larger warehouses and new cities. Expenses will grow accordingly, but we expect to remain operationally profitable.
