NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT (UNAUDITED) December 31, 2016

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

Compassion Massage Therapeutic Clinic ("The Company") is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Company sells the service of therapeutic massage sessions in its facility. The Company specializes in advanced massage therapy treatments such as orthopedic massage, oncology massage, sports massage, and prenatal/postpartum massage. In addition, The Company sells a small line of retail products that complement its massage therapy services. The Company also provides mobile massage therapy services at off-site events.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of The Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The Company has adopted the calendar year as the basis for its fiscal/reporting year.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents and Concentration of Cash Balance

The Company considers all highly liquid securities with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's current operations are self-sustainable in its current location. However, to make the planned expansion into a second location in 2018, additional funds from investment and bank loans will be required. If The Company does not secure the funds planned for in this business plan it will not be able to make the planned expansion.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes when: (1) upon the sale of a massage services or retail products. (2) Gift card sales are recorded as unearned revenue upon initial sale and placed as an asset on the balance sheet in a separate bank account from the operating account and as a liability on the balance sheet in the Gift Card account. Gift card revenue is recognized when it is rendered to pay for services or products.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Rent

The Company occupies 1,200 sq. ft. of commercial office space on the first floor of the owner's home, zoned for residential home business use. The Company does not pay lease payments currently for use of the space. In 2016 The Company explored a partnership with another practitioner in the practitioner's space in the town of Groton Massachusetts. The partnership between the The Company and the practitioner only lasted four months, this is why there is rent expense on the 2016 P&L. Rent was paid to the practioner for the four months in which The Company occupied the practitioner's space.

Income Tax

As a single member Limited Liability Company (LLC), The Company is considered a "disregarded entity" by the Internal Revenue Services (IRS). Thus, all profits are subject to taxation on the owner's personal income tax.

Debt

The Company currently has no business loans or credit lines. The Company maintains a business credit card for month to month operational expenses. Presently, of the filing of this form the company maintains one business credit card with a revolving balance of $500 +/- each month and an availability of $6,000.
