GAGE & TOLLNER

A historic Brooklyn restaurant reborn

Gage & Tollner was a Brooklyn institution for 100 years. Opened in 1879 by Abraham Gage and Thomas Tollner, it was known for its wood-fired steak and seafood, its white tablecloth service, and its clientele that included Presidents, Hollywood stars, and Brooklyn Dodgers legends. It closed its doors in 1979 after a fire and 100 years of history.

Adam Kirk
Founder & CEO

Live Interview

We are virtual! Gage and Tollner tells a historic story & also perfectly represents the Brooklyn community we're building. Adam is a dynamic entrepreneur and leader. Based on our research & interviews, I would invest in Gage & Tollner as an investor & a customer.

Live Interview

- Total projected raise is around $2.5M + minimum investment $500
- Valuation is $10M pre-money with $2.5M in SAFE (post-money) Note with 1 million in a note offering
- The $500K investor tier (expected to primarily be friends + family) is the only one I would be interested in investing in. - Ben Rosen

View Investment Memo ↗ ↗

Why I Like Gage & Tollner

"This is one of the jewels of Fulton Street."

Adam Kirk
Founder & CEO of Gage & Tollner

THE MUST READ ABOUT GAGE & TOLLNER

"The Gage & Tollner building is one of the iconic grand historic landmarks on the way from Downtown Brooklyn to Fort Greene. It's a beautiful building that's been a part of the Brooklyn fabric for the last century. It's important that we preserve landmarks like this, and I'm excited to see Gage & Tollner be brought back to life. I'm excited to see the building and historic artifacts from the days of opening Brooklyn get showcased. At Wefunder, we're excited to help Adam and his team as they bring this vision to life and we're looking out of the window there when we're done."
William Lobel
Wefunder Co-Founder & CEO

"As Jane Austin, as a businessman & humanist, and one of the very great fiction writers."
Mark Cuban
Billionaire Entrepreneur & Investor

"First of all, I have to have Gage & Tollner's long history of serving a high-level fine-grade steak and seafood. Secondly, I have to have the ambiance of the old-world charm that Gage & Tollner had. Mr. Kirkner's plan to preserve all of that is perfect. I couldn't have asked for anybody to be a better historic steward and restoring that—or making that to bring it back to life. I'm excited to be a part of it. I'm excited to be a part of the Wefunder community and I'm excited to be a part of the Gage & Tollner community. I'm excited to be a part of the Brooklyn community. I'm excited to be a part of the Brooklyn community. I'm excited to be a part of the Brooklyn community."
Adam Kirk
Founder & CEO

"I've never been a real fan. Your husband's always. Mark and his sister, Jessica Mayerson, have been a part of the Brooklyn community for a long time. I'm excited to be a part of the Brooklyn community. I'm excited to be a part of the Brooklyn community. I'm excited to be a part of the Brooklyn community