SEC Legend and Disclaimer: Rule 255 under Regulation A. No money or other consideration is being solicited for our Regulation A+ offering at this time and if sent in to PunchFlix, Inc. will not be accepted. No offer to buy securities in a Regulation A+ offering of PunchFlix can be accepted and no part of the purchase price can be received until PunchFlix's offering statement is qualified with the SEC. Any such offer to buy securities may be withdrawn or revoked, without obligation or commitment of any kind, at any time before notice of its acceptance given after the qualification date. Any indications of interest in PunchFlix's offering involves no obligation or commitment of any kind.

PunchFlix Inc. is testing the waters under Regulation A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. This process allows companies to determine whether there may be interest in an eventual offering of its securities. PunchFlix is not under any obligation to make an offering under Regulation A. PunchFlix may choose to make an offering to some, but not all, of the people who indicate an interest in investing, and that offering may not be made under Regulation A. For example, PunchFlix may determine to proceed with an offering under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D, in which case we will only offer our securities to accredited investors as defined by Rule 501(a) of Regulation D. If PunchFlix does go ahead with an offering under Regulation A, it will only be able to make sales after it has filed an offering statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and only after the SEC has qualified such offering statement. The information in the offering statement will be more complete than the test-the-waters materials and could differ in important ways. You must read the offering statement filed with the SEC.

After you purchase your stock you will receive an electronic stock certificate or an electronic ledger from the Transfer Agent. These are private shares, which means they are not publicly traded. There are two ways to make money with private shares.

1. First, you can sell your shares after owning them for a certain period of time to another investor in a private sale. You and the buyer negotiate a price and complete the transaction.
2. Second, we intend to register our shares on an exchange within 36 months. Once your shares are registered, you can post them on your online brokerage account and freely trade them with other investors.
3. We are not offering a dividend as of now. However will study the appropriate time frame in which to consider the issuance of a regular dividend.
