Offering Statement

Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. Set forth each question and any notes, but not any instructions there to, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the responsive disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

RISK FACTORS

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky.

Our technologies are in an early stage of development and are unproven.

The effectiveness of our technologies is not well-known in, or accepted generally by, the clinical medical community. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully employ our technologies as therapeutic, diagnostic, or preventative solutions for any disease or condition. Our failure to establish the efficacy or safety of our technologies would have a material adverse effect on our business.

In addition, we have a limited operating history. Our operations to date have been primarily limited to organizing and staffing our Company, developing our technology, and undertaking pre-clinical studies of our product candidate. We have not yet obtained regulatory approvals for any of our pharmaceutical product. Consequently, any predictions you make about our future success or viability may not be as accurate as they could be if we had a longer operating history.

The results of pre-clinical trials and previous clinical trials for our products may not be predictive of future results, and our current and planned clinical trials may not satisfy the requirements of the FDA or other non-U.S. regulatory authorities.

Positive results from pre-clinical studies should not be relied upon as evidence that later-stage or large-scale clinical trials will succeed. Likewise, there can be no assurance that the results of studies conducted by collaborators or other third parties will be viewed favorably or are indicative of our own future study results. We may be required to demonstrate with substantial evidence through well-controlled clinical trials that our product candidates are safe and effective for use in a diverse population of their intended uses. Success in early clinical trials does not mean that future clinical trials will be successful because product candidates in later-stage clinical trials may fail to demonstrate sufficient safety and efficacy to the satisfaction of the FDA and other non-U.S. regulatory authorities despite having prior usage or having progressed through initial clinical trials.

Further, our drug candidates may not be approved or cleared even if they achieve their primary endpoints in phase 3 clinical trials or registration trials. The FDA or other non-U.S. regulatory authorities may disagree with our trial design and our interpretation of data from pre-clinical studies and clinical trials. In addition, any of these regulatory authorities may change requirements for the approval or clearance of a product candidate even after reviewing and providing comment on a protocol for a pivotal clinical trial that has the potential to result in FDA and other non-U.S. regulatory authorities' approval. Any of these regulatory authorities may also approve or clear a product candidate for fewer or more limited indications or uses than we request or may grant approval or clearance contingent on the performance of costly post-marketing clinical trials. The FDA or other non-U.S. regulatory authorities may not approve the labeling claims necessary or desirable for the successful commercialization of our product candidates.

If serious adverse events or unacceptable side effects are identified during the development of our product candidates, we may need to abandon or limit our development of some of our product candidates.

If our product candidates are associated with undesirable side effects in preclinical or clinical trials or have characteristics that are unexpected, we may need to interrupt, delay, or abandon their development or limit development to more narrow uses or sub-populations in which the undesirable side effects are less prevalent, less severe or more acceptable from a risk-benefit perspective. Testing in animals may not uncover all expected side effects or side effects in humans may be more severe. No assurance can be given that N-001 will not cause unwanted and potentially unacceptable, side effects when tested in the clinic. Many compounds developed in the biopharmaceutical industry that initially showed promise in early stage-testing have later been found to cause side effects that prevented further development of the compound. Any of these occurrences may harm our business, financial condition, and prospects significantly.

We rely on third parties to perform many essential services, and if such third parties fail to perform as expected or to comply with legal and regulatory requirements, our efforts to commercialize any products may be significantly impacted.

We rely on third-party service providers to perform a variety of functions related to the development of our products, key aspects of which are out of our direct control. If these third-party service providers fail to comply with applicable laws and regulations, fail to meet expected deadlines, or otherwise do not carry out their contractual duties to us, our ability to deliver product to meet commercial demand would be significantly impaired. In addition, we have engaged third parties to perform various other services for us relating to adverse event reporting, safety database management, fulfillment of requests for medical information and related services. If the quality or accuracy of the data maintained or services performed by these third parties is insufficient, we could be subject to regulatory sanctions.

The company needs to raise substantial additional funding in order to continue operations and achieve milestones.

The Company may never receive a future equity financing or elect to convert the Securities upon such future financing. In addition, the Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an IPO. If neither the conversion of the Securities nor a liquidity event occurs, the Purchasers could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities are not equity interests, have no ownership rights, have no rights to the Company's assets or profits and have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its actions.

Our future success depends on the efforts of a small management team. The loss of services of the members of the management team may have an adverse effect on the company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 8: Avoid generalised statements and include only those factors that are unique to the issuer. Discussion should be tailored to the issuer's business and the offering and should not repeat the factors addressed in the legends set forth above. No specific number of risk factors is required to be identified.

Options:

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

None

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 24: name the creditor, amount owed, interest rate, maturity date, and any other material terms.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

Offering Date	Exemption Section 4(a)(2)	Security Type	Amount Sold	Use of Proceeds General operations
12/2017		Common stock	$250,000
12/2017	Section 4(a)(2)	Common stock	$30,000	General operations

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12- month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

- any director or officer of the issuer;
 - any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;
 - if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;
 - or (4) any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.
- ☒ Yes
☐ No

For each transaction specify the person, relationship to issuer, nature of interest in transaction, and amount of interest.

During the period ended December 31, 2017, the Company entered into an exclusive license agreement with a non-profit organization for the unlimited worldwide use of certain patent rights. The Company may also sublicense these rights. The Company issued the non-profit organization 64,935 shares of common stock in lieu of payment for the license fee of $30,000. The issuance of common stock represents 5% of the common stock issued and outstanding on a fully diluted basis as of the effective date of the agreement. The agreement includes an anti-dilution protection which requires the Company to issue additional shares of common stock as necessary to the non-profit organization to maintain the 5% ownership until an equity investment occurs that is (i) at least $5,000,000 and (ii) has a post-financing equity valuation of at least $5,000,000.

On a quarterly basis, the Company will pay the non-profit organization a royalty of 2% of net sales related to the licensed products as defined in the agreement unless the Company is required to pay royalties to a third party in order to use the licensed product. In this situation, the Company may reduce the royalty by 50% of the amount of the royalty paid to the third party, but in no event will be less than 1%. Effective in 2022, a minimum annual royalty payment of $1,000 will be paid until the first commercial sale occurs as defined in the agreement. The minimum annual royalty payment increases to $50,000 effective in the year following the first commercial sale. These payments will continue until the patent expires.

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 26: The term transaction includes, but is not limited to, any financial transaction, arrangement or relationship (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness) or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships.

Beneficial ownership for purposes of paragraph (9) shall be determined as of a date that is no more than 180 days prior to the date of filing of this offering statement and using the same calculation described in Question 6 of this Question and Answer format.

The term "member of the family" includes any child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spouse equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the person, and includes adoptive relationships. The term

"spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Compute the amount of a related party's interest in any transaction without regard to the amount of the profit or loss involved in the transaction. Where it is not practicable to state the approximate amount of the interest, disclose the approximate amount involved in the transaction.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ISSUER

27. Does the issuer have an operating history?

☒ Yes
☐ No

28. Describe the financial condition of the issuer, including, to the extent material, liquidity, capital resources and historical results of operations.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

You should read the following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations together with our financial statements and the related notes and other financial information included elsewhere in this offering. Some of the information contained in this discussion and analysis, including information regarding the strategy and plans for our business, includes forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. You should review the "Risk Factors" section for a discussion of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results described in or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in the following discussion and analysis.

Overview

Since 2017 the opioid epidemic has been classified as national emergency. We're developing a non-opioid drug to treat pain without risk of addiction. So far we've shown promising results in animal trials and are fundraising to continue pre-clinical development.

Our mission is to improve the quality of life for patients in pain by producing a long-acting non-opioid drug that provides relief without addiction. Personal experience with chronic pain drives our commitment to a better pain treatment. We know first-hand the difficulty of treating pain well, and the dream of providing a new solution is at the core of Neurocarrus. By 2020, we plan to be ready for clinical trials in humans and hope to be on the market in seven years.

Given the Company's limited operating history, the Company cannot reliably estimate how much revenue it will receive in the future, if any.

Milestones

Neurocarrus Inc was incorporated in the State of Delaware in October 2017.

Since then, we have:

- Founder has been working in space for 25+ years.
- Early animal trials show pain relief equal to that of opioids but lasting 3x as long.
- No addictive potential because drug is locally delivered and won't enter the brain.
- Drug is highly innovative and first of its kind.
- IndieBio Accelerator Spring 2018.
- $10K awarded by the U.S. National Institute on Drug Abuse.
- Produces no doping effects and movement remains normal

Historical Results of Operations

Our company was organized in October 2017 and has limited operations upon which prospective investors may base an evaluation of its performance.

- Revenues & Gross Margin. For the period ended December 31, 2020, the Company had revenues of $0 compared to the year ended December 31, 2019, when the Company had revenues of $0. Our gross margin was 0% in fiscal year 2020, compared to 0% in 2019.
- Assets. As of December 31, 2020, the Company had total assets of $236,853, including $93,094 in cash. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had $91,037 in total assets, including $17,287 in cash.
- Net Loss. The Company has had net losses of $180,671 and net losses of $139,365 for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019, respectively.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

To-date, the company has been financed with $600,000 in equity.

After the conclusion of the most recent Offering, our projected runway is 12 months before we need to raise further capital.

We plan to use the proceeds as set forth in this Form C under "Use of Funds". We don't have any other sources of capital in the immediate future.

We will likely require additional financing in excess of the proceeds from the Offering in order to perform operations over the lifetime of the Company. We plan to raise capital in 12 months. Except as otherwise described in this Form C, we do not have additional sources of capital other than the proceeds from the offering. Because of the complexities and uncertainties in establishing a new business strategy, it is not possible to adequately project whether the proceeds of this offering will be sufficient to enable us to implement our strategy. This complexity and uncertainty will be increased if less than the maximum amount of securities offered in this offering is sold. The Company intends to raise additional capital in the future from investors. Although capital may be available for early-stage companies, there is no guarantee that the Company will receive any investments from investors.

Runway & Short/Mid Term Expenses

Neurocarrus Inc cash in hand is $93,094, as of April 2021. Over the last three months, revenues have averaged $0/month, cost of goods sold has averaged $0/month, and operational expenses have averaged $6,838/month, for an average burn rate of $6,838 per month. Our intent is to be profitable in 24 months.

No materials changes or trends in finances or operations since latest financials were reported.

$100,00 Nebraska Department of Economic Revenue 2020-2021.

Discuss how the proceeds from the offering will affect liquidity, whether receiving these funds and any other additional funds is necessary to the viability of the business, and how quickly the issuer anticipates using its available cash. Describe the other available sources of capital to the business, such as lines of credit or required contributions by shareholders.
