Russian Language. Mr. McDonald was a Russian language student at the University of California Santa Cruz and one of thirty Americans to win a national scholarship for a semester at Leningrad State University. After the Berlin Wall came down, his pursuit of fluency in Russian as an avocation led to academic exchanges with Russian law schools involving U.S., international and Russian intellectual property law, including lectures and participation in moot courts, publications, a presentation at the Russian Supreme Court (2013), membership on the Advisory Board of, and submission of public comments to, the Intellectual Property Court of the Russian Federation (2013-2022), and amicus briefs on behalf of the Russian Federation in the Stolichnaya Vodka trademark cases (2013-2016), all prior to the outbreak of hostilities in 2022.

In 2013, he gave a presentation at the Russian Supreme Court, in Russian, on the recently enacted America Invents Act, at an event commemorating the establishment of the newly created Intellectual Property Court of the Russian Federation, www.sgrlaw.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/10/2013-04-22-Presentation-to-Supreme-Commercial-Court-of-the-Russian-Federation-Russian-Original.pdf (English translation at www.sgrlaw.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/10/2013-04-22-Presentation-to-Supreme-Commercial-Court-of-the-Russian-Federation-English-Translation.pdf). His written report was published in the inaugural edition of the Official Journal of the Russian Intellectual Property Court, www.sgrlaw.com/site/assets/files/3908/4.pdf (August 2013). In 2013 and 2016, he submitted amicus briefs for the Russian Federation in a dispute over ownership of the Stolichnaya vodka trademark, 726 F. 3d 62 (2d Cir. 2013), and 809 F.3d 737 (2d Cir. 2016)

From 2013 until the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022, Mr. McDonald was the only American and one of only four Westerners on the 69-member Advisory Council of the newly created Russian Intellectual Property Court. Members included representatives from the Russian judiciary, universities and intellectual property establishment. During this time he attended the Council's meetings in Moscow (2020 and 2021 by Zoom) and submitted the following public comments:

- Issues Raised by the Exercise of Judicial Power in the Development of Standards, Guidelines and Definitions Relating to Unfair Competition and Intellectual Property, Dec. 27, 2013, www.sgrlaw.com/site/assets/files/3908/3.pdf
