Bethany Klebanov

Sr. Director, Analytics at ICF Olson

March 2, 2011, Bethany reported directly to Sean

Sean always has his eye on the big picture and how to take an analysis to the next level to drive the most benefit for the client. He was extremely supportive of my efforts to gain experience with new analytic techniques. Sean gave me ample latitude in how I went about my day to day work, but was there to support me when I needed it. He's a great person to work for and with!

Huan Hoang

Manager, Analytics, Data Science & Sales Optimization

March 1, 2011, Huan worked with Sean in different groups

Sean is one of the brightest and most talented people I have had the pleasure of working with and has an amazing ability to think analytically and strategically. He is an accomplished consultant and a talented deal negotiator. I found Sean to be friendly, articulate and a great person to work with and would highly recommend him to anyone anywhere in the world.
