REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the member of
Liquidly IAS, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Liquidly IAS, LLC as of December 31, 2021, the related statements of income, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2021, and the related notes and schedules. In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Liquidly IAS, LLC as of December 31, 2021 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2021 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Liquidly IAS, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Liquidly IAS, LLC financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Liquidly IAS, LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Auditor's Report on Supplemental Information

The supplementary information contained in Schedules I, II & III have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Liquidly IAS, LLC financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Liquidly IAS, LLC management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the Supplementary schedule is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 – Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Liquidly IAS, LLC (the “Company”) was organized on December 8, 2017 as a limited liability company in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware. Liquidly IAS, LLC was approved as a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on January 2, 2020 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Liquidly, Inc. (the “Member”).

The Company’s principal business activity and purposes of the Company is to operate and sponsor an alternative trading system (ATS) to facilitate secondary trades in the private funds sold through its online platform. The Company will also conduct business as placement agent and facilitator of limited partnership interests in private funds and private assets sold on a best efforts via an online platform.

Basis of Presentation

The accounting policies and reporting practices of the Company conform to the practices in the broker-dealer industry and are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Government and Other Regulation

The Company’s business is subject to significant regulation by various governmental agencies and self-regulatory organizations, including the SEC and FINRA. Such regulation includes, among other things, periodic examinations by these regulatory bodies to determine whether the Company is conducting and reporting its operations in accordance with the applicable requirements of these organizations. As a registered broker dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC’s net capital rules (Rule 15c3-1) which require that the Company maintain a minimum net capital, as defined. The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments having original maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. The Company may, during the ordinary course of business, maintain account balances with banks in excess of federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced losses on these accounts, and Management believes that the Company is not exposed to significant risks on such accounts. At December 31, 2021, cash and cash equivalents were held in a non- interest bearing account at Citibank totaling $109,156.

Note 1 – Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Management Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at December 31, 2021 and revenues and expenses during the year then ended. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes - No provisions have been made for income taxes since the Company is a single member limited liability company and is considered a disregarded entity for income tax purposes. The sole member is liable for income taxes based on the Company's taxable income.

Note 2 – Uniform Net Capital Rule

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. As of December 31, 2021, the Company had net capital of $84,207 which was $79,027 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .30 to 1.

Note 3 – Commitment and Related Party Transactions

The Company has an Expense Sharing Agreement (ESA) in place with its Parent whereby the Parent charges the Company for occupancy charges, employee compensation, travel, entertainment, marketing, technology and business development charges. Charges allocated by the Parent are included in the Statement of Operations and totaled $120,173 for the year ended December 31, 2021.

At October, 2021, the Company owed the Parent $96,570. The Parent forgave the amount ($96,570), and the Company recorded that forgiveness as a Capital Contribution effective as of December 1, 2021. As of December 31, 2021 the Company owes the Parent $24,629 for allocation of expenses and other cash advances.

Note 4 – Commitment and Contingencies

The Company is exposed to various asserted and unasserted potential claims encountered in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2021, and through the date of this report, there were no such claims.

Note 5 – Subsequent Events

The subsequent events for the Company have been evaluated by management through March 25, 2022 the date financial statements were available to be issued. It was determined that there were no subsequent events to recognize in the financial statements.

Note 6 – Going Concern

The firm generated $0 revenue in 2021. While the firm expects it will generate revenue in 2022, it will continue to be supported by its parent, Liquidly Inc. through capital contributions until such time it can independently sustain its existence.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Members of
Liquidly IAS, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Liquidly IAS, LLC states that the Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and file an exemption report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to: (a) private placements of securities, and (b) receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients, revenue in providing an alternative trading system, referring securities transactions to other brokers; and The Company (a) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold and or otherwise owe funds or securities for to customers, other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4; (b) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (c) did not carry PAB account (as defined in Rule 15c3-3); and (2) Liquidly IAS, LLC stated that Liquidly IAS, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Liquidly IAS, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Liquidly IAS, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

LIQUIDLY IAS, LLC EXEMPTION REPORT

Liquidly IAS, LLC (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5, "Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers"). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17C.F.R. §240.17a-5(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company states the following:

- (1) The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and
- (2) The Company is filing this Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to: (a) private placements of securities, and (b) receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients, revenue in providing an alternative trading system, referring securities transactions to other brokers. The Company (i) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (ii) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (iii) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.
- (3) Liquidly IAS, LLC stated that Liquidly IAS, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

I, Anusha Harid-Paoletti, swear (or affirm) that, to my best knowledge and belief, this Exemption Report is true and correct.
