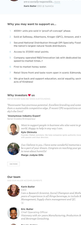
hunniCo

Honey water is the next big thing in flavored water, a rapidly growing market!



Hunnico was founded by two guys who had a passion for beverages. Kombucha was the goal but we just got lucky by the time our first batch was ready, the kombucha craze was over. We decided to pivot and create a honey water that would be a healthier alternative to soda.

Kevin Barker CEO & Co-Founder

Why you may want to support us...

- 40000+ cans sold in a period of a couple+ years
