What We've Built

In just 18 months, we've built a moat.

We've proven demand, designed an addictive product and built nationwide distribution.

1. Market

Found an underserved customer and proved a whitespace in the market

2. Product

Designed a sticky product users love.

3. Operations

Built Profitable Nationwide Distribution

What We've Built

First

We proved the market. We built a viral waitlist and experienced huge, organic demand in beta. After shipping over 7,000 beta orders, we're ready to launch.

What We've Built

Second

We designed an addictive product.

After testing 1,000 products with 100K users, we've built a service that users love more than any other grocer.

What We've Built

Third

We built nationwide distribution.

3 DCs, 250 Products and 50 Producers later, Move will be the first and only grocer to get to all 50 states.

Average Order Value

We're a full grocery store.
And we see full grocery baskets.

In beta, each time we added a new aisle, AOV grows.

Luxury Brand Margins

40% Gross Margin. Today.

The Highest in Grocery.

By going private label and D2C, we've erased the largest costs in grocery.

$$\begin{array}{ccccccc} $135 & - & $54 & - & $12.5 & - & $11 & = & $57 \\ \text{AOV} & & \text{COGS} & & \text{Shipping} & & \text{Packaging + Labor} & & \text{Profit} \end{array}$$

The Brandless Example

Brandless is an online bargain store that sells private label CPG products. Within a year of launching, they're worth $500M.

Move is to premium grocery stores what Brandless is to value general stores.

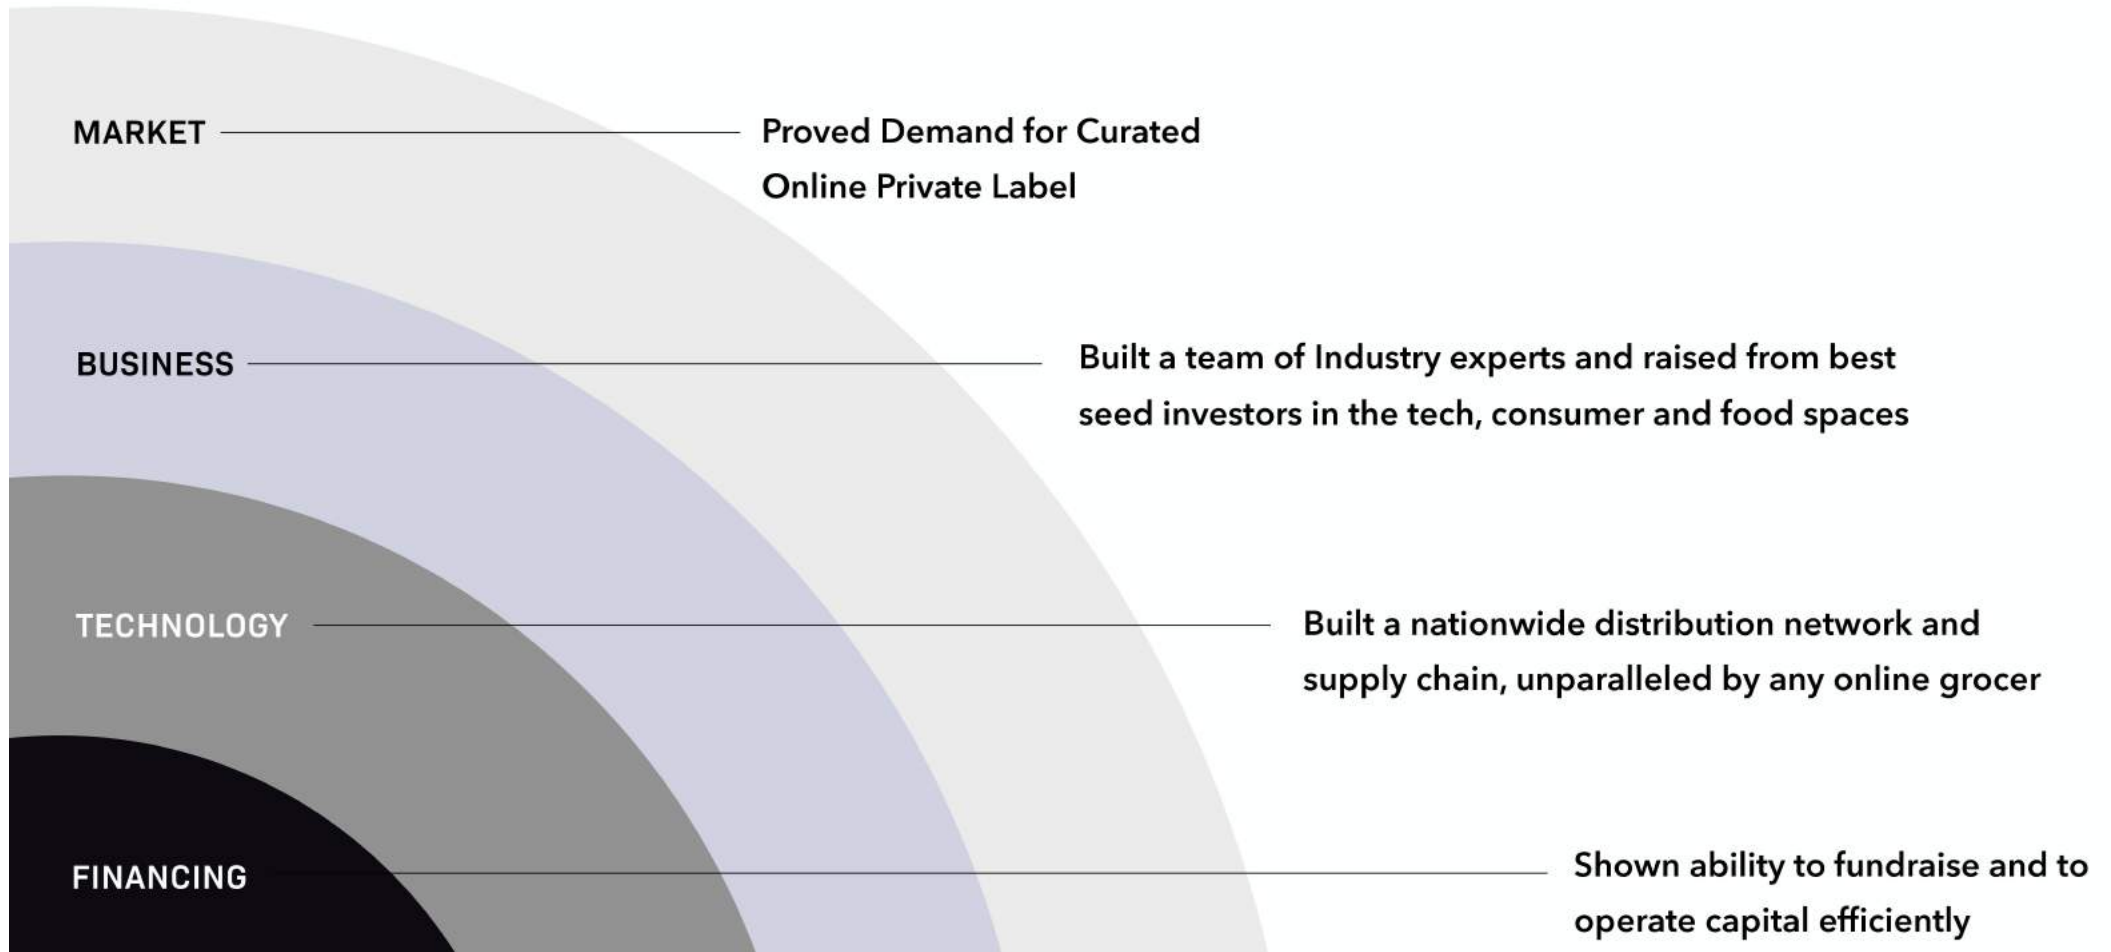

Funding To Date

In 16 months, with a $1.65M pre-seed, we've proven demand, designed an addictive product, built nationwide distribution and recruited an expert team.

We've Peeled The Biggest Layers of Risk.

Now we're ready to fundraise and go to market.

Use Of Funds

Now we're raising funds to launch Move, finance inventory and acquire customers.

The 5 Year Vision

A Direct-to-Consumer Amazon.
Every Thing You Buy. One Brand.
