

The background is a comic book illustration. On the right, the Hulk is depicted with green skin, a red cape, and a fierce, roaring expression. He is wearing a blue t-shirt. On the left, a man with a balding head and a blue t-shirt is shown from the chest up, looking towards the Hulk. The Hulk's right arm is raised, with his hand near the man's head. The man's left arm is raised, holding a large, grey, mechanical claw or gauntlet. The background is a mix of red and yellow, with the word "WOLF" visible in large, bold, yellow letters at the top. The overall style is classic comic book art with bold lines and a limited color palette.
