

Mahia

THE SPIRIT OF MOROCCO

Handcrafted Fig Spirit • Hudson Valley Distillery

Deliciously served on the rocks, with a squeeze of citrus.

Our Mission

Peaceful co-existence in life and spirits.

Our Story

Mahia is to Morocco as tequila is to Mexico.

Mahia, the national spirit of Morocco, has been celebrated for centuries. It's delicious served straight, on ice with a squeeze of citrus, in cocktails, as well as in chef-inspired dishes. Esteemed chefs, including Daniel Boulud, have played with our Mahia in savory dishes, too.

Tasting Notes

Fig and floral notes with hints of apricots, clementine, banana, licorice, apple and pear.
