I help businesses tackle problems and realize their potential. How? I'm a generalist and contextual thinker with a creative and business mind. I have the ability to see the forest AND the trees; to see it and do it; to connect the dots, from Research to Strategy to Creative to Execution, always keeping th...

Health

I serve as a Board Member to help launch this start-up not for profit focused on food insecurity in Boulder County.

Real|Good's mission is to help close the food gap in Boulder County by engaging our robust food community in generating funds and awareness to support the food insecure population and the organizations that serve it. We give those organizations the increased capacity they need to do their jobs well into the future by rallying community members around a common love of good food.
