Independent Accountant's Review Report

To the board of Directors:

Lifograph, Inc.
Loomis, California

We have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of Lifograph, Inc., which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagements in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

LIFOGRAPH, INC.

NOTE 1 - GENERAL

LIFOGRAPH, INC., ("the Company"), was incorporated on November 7, 2012 in the state of Delaware and registered with California Secretary of State as a foreign corporation on June 14, 2019

The Company engaged in online business of building biographies and timelines of people and the companies.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and disclosed in the accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all monies in banks and highly liquid investments with maturity dates of less than three months. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value because of the short maturities of those financial instruments.

Accounts Receivable & Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable consists of amounts billed to customers for purchase for which payment has not yet been received. Due to the nature of business, no accounts receivable and allowance for doubtful accounts were recognized for the reporting periods of these financial statements.

Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and receivables. The Institution places cash in high credit quality financial institutions, which limits the amount of credit exposure. Concentrations of risk with respect to receivables is limited due to the online business nature. The management of the Company believes no significant credit risk exists for the reporting period of these financial statements.

LIFOGRAPH, INC.
