SPC CAPITAL MARKETS LLC

Notes to the Financial Statement

December 31, 2022

1. Organization

SPC Capital Markets LLC (the "Company"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SPC Capital Markets Holdings LLC (the "Parent"), is a Delaware limited liability company organized on June 20, 2019. Pursuant to its membership agreement dated January 17, 2020, the Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

The Company was formed to facilitate the arranging, structuring, underwriting and distribution of securities. The Company may also act as a placement agent in private placements and as a financial advisor to participants in mergers, acquisitions, sales, real estate syndications and dispositions of companies.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") as promulgated by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") through the Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") as the source of authoritative accounting principles in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements. The U.S. dollar ($) is the functional currency of the Company.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accounts receivables are estimates in that they are known fee receivable amounts less estimated transaction related expenses owed to the lead underwriters upon prior settlement of the transaction. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents or restricted cash balances at December 31, 2022.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are carried at the amounts billed to customers, net of an allowance for credit losses, which is an estimate for credit losses based on a review of all outstanding amounts. There were no accounts receivable outstanding at December 31, 2022.

Allowance for Credit Losses

The allowance for credit losses is based on the Company's expectation of the collectability of financial instruments carried at amortized cost, including accounts receivable utilizing the current expected credit loss framework. The Company's expectation is that the credit risk associated with accounts receivable is that any client with which it conducts business with is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations. Management monitors the credit risk of clients and currently there is not a foreseeable expectation of an event or change which could result in the fees receivable being unpaid based on individual facts and circumstances. The Company considers factors such as historical experience, credit quality, age of balances and current and future economic conditions that may affect the

Notes to the Financial Statement

Company's expectation of the collectability in determining the allowance for credit losses. There was no allowance for credit losses as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Accounts payable and accrued expenses

The Company records expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company treated as a disregarded entity for income tax purposes and accordingly, no provision has been made in the accompanying financial statements for any federal, state or local income taxes. All revenue and expenses retain their character and pass directly to the Parent's income tax returns.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances, and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change. The Company believes that it has no material uncertain income tax positions and accordingly, no liability has been recorded. The Company continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law, and new authoritative rulings.

Reserves for Contingencies

The Company establishes reserves for contingencies when the Company believes that it is probable that a loss has been incurred and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated. The Company discloses a contingency if there is at least a reasonable possibility that a loss may have been incurred and there are no reserves for the loss because the conditions above are not met. The Company's disclosure includes an estimate of the reasonably possible loss or range of loss for those matters which an estimate can be made. Neither reserve nor disclosure is required for losses that are deemed remote. At December 31, 2022, the Company did not have a reserve for contingencies.

Recent Accounting Standards

Accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial positions, result of operations or cash flows.

3. Cash

The Company maintains cash in a bank deposit account that, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses with respect to these deposits. As of December 31, 2022, cash held in this bank deposit account was $18,199,141. Throughout the year and as of December 31, 2022, there were no restricted cash balances.

4. Indemnifications

In the normal course of business, the Company may be subject to various claims, litigation, regulatory and arbitration matters. The Company also enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties that provide indemnifications under certain circumstances. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Company that have not yet occurred. The Company expects the risk of loss to be remote.

At December 31, 2022, the Company owed $573,394 to Stone Point in connection with the ASA.

6. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule ("Rule 15 c3-1"), which requires maintenance of minimum net capital in excess of the greater of $100,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness.
