Netcapital and Portal do not make investment recommendations and no communication, through this website or in any other medium, should be construed as a recommendation for any security offered on or off this investment platform. Equity crowdfunding investments in private placements, Regulation A, D and CF offerings, and start-up investments in particular are speculative and involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest in start-ups. Companies seeking startup investments through equity crowdfunding tend to be in earlier stages of development and their business model, products and services may not yet be fully developed, operational or tested in the public marketplace. There is no guarantee that the stated valuation and other terms are accurate or in agreement with the market or industry valuations. Additionally, investors may receive illiquid and/or restricted stock that may be subject to holding period requirements and/or liquidity concerns. In the most sensible investment strategy for start-up investing, start-ups should only be part of your overall investment portfolio. Further, the start-up portion of your portfolio may include a balanced portfolio of different start-ups. Investments in startups are highly illiquid and those investors who cannot hold an investment for the long term (at least 5-7 years) should not invest.

Short Bio: Ray Hall has worked in and around the entertainment industry for 30 years. He has created and written several different television projects that could be on the pulse of some of today's hit comedies and dramas. In 1993, Hall became the assistant to Mr. Frank Capra, Jr., at the Flint Publications Building in Beverly Hills, CA. He learned everything he could about movie production and the financing requirements needed. Hall also worked as an assistant to Noel Marshall, one of Hollywood's great agents in the '60s and '70s and was instrumental in bringing "The Exorcist" to movie theaters worldwide. Hall was part of the six-man team that raised the funds for Napoleon Dynamite. Hall later went to work for a small entertainment company in Burbank, CA. The company was producing two shows—a children's show and a music game show. Hall continued to formulate "THE NEXT FEMALE SUPERSTAR® all-female singing competition series, BOB ZOMBIE NEWS™ a Horror Dramedy Series, I'M TWICE™, a hip hop fable series" and many other television scripts. NPTI is in the business of developing Internet entertainment content, music, and television programming. The company's intellectual properties were all created by Hall. Name

Daniel L Ringler

Principal occupation and employment responsibilities during at least the last three (3) years with start and ending dates

Start Date	End Date	Company	Position / Title
05/23/2019	Present	New Platform Tech Inc.	Board Member

Short Bio: Lt Colonel Daniel L. Ringler is a retired United States Air Force officer and a Vietnam veteran. After graduating from Forrest-Strawn-Wing High School in Illinois, he moved to Colorado and attended his first year of college at the University of Colorado at Boulder. While there he applied for an appointment to the USAF Academy, Colorado, and was accepted into the Class of 1963. After graduation he attended pilot training and became a transport pilot for the Military Airlift Command flying C-124s and C-141s. During the Vietnam War and because of his experience in instrument flying, the Air Force re-assigned Lt Col Ringler to the HH-53B long-range helicopter to fly all-weather rescue missions out of Udorn RTAFB, Thailand, to pick up downed airmen throughout the Vietnam War zone areas - Laos, North Vietnam, and South Vietnam. During that war-time operation, Mr. Ringler earned the Bronze Star. Mr. Ringler later attended the Air Force Institute of Technology (AFIT) and obtained his Master of Science Degree in Logistics Management at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, and thereafter served in various leadership positions at various USAF bases around the world. After his retirement from the Air Force, Lt Col Ringler obtained his real estate license and worked as a real estate broker for several different brokerages over the years in Vacaville, CA and in 2009 became a co-owner of California Homes & Ranches Inc. in the Northern Solano County area of California. Since early 2020 when the Covid-19 pandemic started, Lt Col Ringler has remotely assisted Mr. Hall in maintaining the company's business due to office closures in Nevada.

Principal Security Holders

- 5. Provide the name and ownership level of each person, as of the most recent practicable date, who is the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power. To calculate total voting power, include all securities for which the person directly or indirectly has or shares the voting power, which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such securities. If the person has the right to acquire voting power of such securities within 60 days, including through the exercise of any option, warrant or right, the conversion of a security, or other arrangement, or if securities are held by a member of the family, through corporations or partnerships, or otherwise in a manner that would allow a person to direct or control the voting of the securities (or share in such direction or control — as, for example, a co-trustee) they should be included as being "beneficially owned." You should include an explanation of these circumstances in a footnote to the "Number of and Class of Securities Now Held." To calculate outstanding voting equity securities, assume all outstanding options are exercised and all outstanding convertible securities converted.

None of the beneficial owners of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, owns 20 percent or more of voting power.

Business and Anticipated Business Plan

- 6. Describe in detail the business of the issuer and the anticipated business plan of the issuer.

New Platform Tech Inc. (NPTI) creates digital intellectual properties including several series made especially for television and is planning to introduce its first flagship project to be known as THE NEXT FEMALE SUPERSTAR® (TNFS) singing competition series with its voting-engine platform called TNFS Voting Engine Blockchain Algorithm Multiplier™ (TVEBAM™) developed on its own iOS Android/standalone web-portal platforms. The purpose of the platforms is to generate a pool of singers, songwriters, and their followers from 46 worldwide countries using a one-time password to register and vote on the app to advance the best singers and songwriters' songs through THE NEXT FEMALE SUPERSTAR® (TNFS) singing competition series. Based in Las Vegas, Nevada, NPTI, is ready to enhance its TNFS Voting Engine Algorithm Multiplier™ platform (TVEAM™) with WEB3 NFT Minting /Auction functionality technology. After the enhancements are completed, the platform aims to then be branded as TVEBAM™.

New Platform Tech currently has 4 employees.

Risk Factors

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

7. Material factors that make an investment in New Platform Tech Inc. speculative or risky:

1. Third parties might infringe upon our technology: We cannot assure you that the steps we have taken to protect our property rights will prevent misappropriation of our technology. To protect our rights to our intellectual property, we plan to rely on a combination of patents, trade secrets, confidentiality agreements and other contractual arrangements with our employees, affiliates, strategic partners, and others. We may be unable to detect inappropriate use of our technology. Failure to adequately protect our intellectual property could materially harm our brand, devalue our proprietary content and affect our ability to compete effectively. Further, defending any intellectual property rights could result in significant financial expenses and managerial resources. If we were to initiate legal proceedings against a third party to enforce a patent claiming one of our technologies, the defendant may assert that our patent is invalid and/or unenforceable or does not cover its processes, components or future products. Proving patent infringement can be difficult. Any loss of patent protection or difficulty in enforcing intellectual property rights would have a material adverse impact on our business.
2. Start-up investing is risky. Investing in early-stage companies is very risky, highly speculative, and should not be made by anyone who cannot afford to lose their entire investment. Unlike an investment in a mature business where there is a track record of revenue and income, the success of a startup or early-stage venture often relies on the development of a new product or service that may or may not find a market. Before investing, you should carefully consider the specific risks and disclosures related to both this offering type and the Company.
3. Any valuation at this stage is difficult to assess. Unlike listed companies that are valued publicly through market-driven stock prices, the valuation of private companies, especially startups, is difficult to assess and you may risk overpaying for your investment. In addition, there may be additional classes of equity with rights that are superior to the class of equity being sold.
4. No governmental agency has reviewed the Company's offering and no state or federal agency has passed upon either the adequacy of the disclosure contained herein or the fairness of the terms of this Offering.
5. We are dependent on general economic conditions. Potential customers may be less willing to invest in innovation and technological improvements in an economic downturn. This may temporarily reduce our market size.
6. Our management may not be able to control costs in an effective or timely manner. The Company's management anticipates it can use reasonable efforts to assess, predict and control costs and expenses. However, implementing our business plan may require more employees, capital equipment, supplies or other expenditure items than management has predicted.

7. Our future growth depends on our ability to develop and retain customers. Our future growth depends to a large extent on our ability to effectively anticipate and adapt to customer requirements and offer services that meet customer demands. If we are unable to attract customers and/or retain customers, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be materially adversely affected.
8. Our ability to succeed depends on how successful we will be in our fundraising efforts. We rely on investment funds in order to use resources to build the necessary tech and business infrastructure to be successful in the long-term. Current and future competitors may be able to draw on substantially greater financial resources than those available to the Company to develop products that are easier to commercialize or become more popular with the potential consumers of our products.
9. We face risks related to health epidemics and other outbreaks, which could significantly disrupt the Company's operations and could have a material adverse impact on us. The outbreak of pandemics and epidemics could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, and results of operations. If a pandemic occurs in areas in which we have material operations or sales, the Company's business activities originating from affected areas, including sales, materials, and supply chain related activities, could be adversely affected. Disruptive activities could include the temporary closure of facilities used in the Company's supply chain processes, restrictions on the export or shipment of products necessary to run the Company's business, business closures in impacted areas, and restrictions on the Company's employees' or consultants' ability to travel and to meet with customers, vendors or other business relationships. The extent to which a pandemic or other health outbreak impacts the Company's results will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of a virus and the actions to contain it or treat its impact, among others. Pandemics can also result in social, economic, and labor instability which may adversely impact the Company's business. If the Company's employees or employees of any of the Company's vendors, suppliers or customers become ill or are quarantined and in either or both events are therefore unable to work, the Company's operations could be subject to disruption. The extent to which a pandemic affects the Company's results will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted.
10. Your shares are not easily transferable. You should not plan on being able to readily transfer and/or resell your security. Currently there is no market or liquidity for these shares and the Company does not have any plans to list these shares on an exchange or other secondary market. At some point the Company may choose to do so, but until then you should plan to hold your investment for a significant period of time before a liquidation event occurs, if ever.
11. The Company likely will not pay dividends for the foreseeable future. Unless otherwise specified in the offering documents and subject to state law, you are not entitled to receive any dividends on your interest in the Company. Accordingly, any potential investor who anticipates the need for current dividends or income from an investment should not purchase Securities in the Offering.
12. You may only receive limited ongoing disclosure. While the Company must disclose certain information, since the Company is at an early stage, it is only able to provide limited information about its business plan and operations because it does not have fully developed operations or a long history. The Company may also only be obligated to file information periodically regarding its business, including financial statements. A publicly listed company, in contrast, is required to file annual and quarterly reports and promptly disclose certain events — through continuing disclosure that you can use to evaluate the status of your investment.
13. The Company may never receive a future equity financing or undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an initial public offering (IPO). If a liquidity event does not occur, such as a sale of the Company or an IPO, the purchasers could be left holding Company securities in perpetuity. The Company's securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with potentially no secondary market on which to sell them. The securities have only a minority of voting rights and do not provide the ability to direct the Company or its actions.
14. Future fundraising may affect the rights of investors. The Company is raising funds to finance its expansion plans, and may raise additional funds in the future, either through offerings of securities or borrowing from banks or other lending sources. The terms of future capital raises or loan agreements may include covenants that give security holders or creditors greater control over the Company's ability to raise additional funds and use of its assets.

15. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C, and if applicable Form D is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering.

16. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws, leading to an absence of certain regulation applicable to the Company.

The securities being offered have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), in reliance on exemptive provisions of the Securities Act. Similar reliance has been placed on apparently available exemptions from securities registration or qualification requirements under applicable state securities laws. No assurance can be given that any offering currently qualifies or will continue to qualify under one or more of such exemptive provisions due to, among other things, the adequacy of disclosure and the manner of distribution, the existence of similar offerings in the past or in the future, or a change of any securities law or regulation that has retroactive effect. If, and to the extent that, claims or suits for rescission are brought and successfully concluded for failure to register any offering or other offerings or for acts or omissions constituting offenses under the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or applicable state securities laws, the Company could be materially adversely affected, jeopardizing the Company's ability to operate successfully. Furthermore, the human and capital resources of the Company could be adversely affected by the need to defend actions under these laws, even if the Company is ultimately successful in its defense.

17. The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline, conduct multiple closings, or end the Offering early.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Minimum Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment up to 48 hours before an Offering Deadline, if you choose to not cancel your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you. If the Company reaches the target offering amount prior to the Offering Deadline, they may conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline, provided that the Company gives notice to the investors of the closing at least five business days prior to the closing (absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Thereafter, the Company may conduct additional closings until the Offering Deadline. The Company may also end the Offering early; if the Offering reaches its target offering amount after 21-calendar days but before the deadline, the Company can end the Offering with 5 business days' notice. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to participate – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending it early.

18. The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Despite that the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the allocation of proceeds from the Offering. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

19. The Securities issued by the Company will not be freely tradable until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with his or her attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities offered in this Offering have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or non-United States jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be affected. Limitations on the transfer of the shares of Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the shares of Securities in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Investors in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

20. Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by Regulation CF.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by Regulation CF. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C and no additional information – there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders.

21. The shares of Securities acquired upon the Offering may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent financings.

Company equity securities will be subject to dilution. Company intends to issue additional equity to future employees and third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time, and as a consequence, holders of Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount. Such dilution may reduce the purchaser's economic interests in the Company.

22. The amount of additional financing needed by Company will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering. Each such round of financing (whether from the Company or other investors) is typically intended to provide the Company with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds are not sufficient, Company may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to the existing investors. The availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to predict accurately the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source. Failure to obtain such financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the investor's Company securities.

23. There is no present public market for these Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

The offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our net worth or prior earnings. We cannot assure you that the Securities could be resold by you at the Offering price or at any other price.

24. In addition to the risks listed above, businesses are often subject to risks not foreseen or fully appreciated by the management. It is not possible to foresee all risks that may affect us. Moreover, the Company cannot predict whether the Company will successfully effectuate the Company's current business plan. Each prospective Investor is encouraged to carefully analyze the risks and merits of an investment in the Securities and should take into consideration when making such analysis, among other, the Risk Factors discussed above.
25. THE SECURITIES OFFERED INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK AND MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OF YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. ANY PERSON CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SECURITIES SHOULD BE AWARE OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS SET FORTH IN THIS OFFERING STATEMENT AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER LEGAL, TAX AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS PRIOR TO MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. THE SECURITIES SHOULD ONLY BE PURCHASED BY PERSONS WHO CAN AFFORD TO LOSE ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

The Offering

New Platform Tech Inc. ("Company") is offering securities under Regulation CF, through Netcapital Funding Portal Inc. ("Portal"). Portal is a FINRA/SEC registered funding portal and will receive cash compensation equal to 4.9% of the value of the securities sold through Regulation CF. Investments made under Regulation CF involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest.

The Company plans to raise between $10,000 and $1,200,000 through an offering under Regulation CF. Specifically, if we reach the target offering amount of $10,000, we may conduct the first of multiple or rolling closings of the offering early if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Oversubscriptions will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Changes to the offering, material or otherwise, occurring after a closing, will only impact investments which have yet to be closed.

In the event The Company fails to reach the offering target of $10,000, any investments made under the offering will be cancelled and the investment funds will be returned to the investor.

8. What is the purpose of this offering?

The Company intends to use the proceeds from this raise on technology enhancements, general and administrative expenses, paying off debt/liabilities, and marketing.

9. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

Uses	If Target Offering Amount Sold	If Maximum Amount Sold
Intermediary Fees	$490	$58,800
General & Administrative	$4,800	$191,200
Minting/Auction enhancements	$4,000	$400,000
Beta Test Marketing	$0	$100,000
Software Cloud Expense name	$0	$100,000
TNFS App Upgrades	$0	$150,000
Legal Fees	$0	$50,000
NPTI Immediate Liabilities	$710	$150,000
Total Use of Proceeds	$10,000	$1,200,000

10. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

In entering into an agreement on the Netcapital Funding Portal to purchase securities, both investors and New Platform Tech Inc. must agree that a transfer agent, which keeps records of our outstanding Common Stock (the "Securities"), will issue digital Securities in the investor's name (a paper certificate will not be printed). Similar to other online investment accounts, the transfer agent will give investors access to a web site to see the number of Securities that they own in our company. These Securities will be issued to investors after the deadline date for investing has passed, as long as the targeted offering amount has been reached. The transfer agent will record the issuance when we have received the purchase proceeds from the escrow agent who is holding your investment commitment.

11. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

You may cancel an investment commitment for any reason until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in the offering by logging in to your account with Netcapital, browsing to the Investments screen, and clicking to cancel your investment commitment. Netcapital will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment. If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

12. Can the Company perform multiple closings or rolling closings for the offering?

If we reach the target offering amount prior to the offering deadline, we may conduct the first of multiple closings of the offering early, if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Thereafter, we may conduct additional closings until the offering deadline. We will issue Securities in connection with each closing. Oversubscriptions will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Changes to the offering, material or otherwise, occurring after a closing, will only impact investments which have yet to be closed.

Ownership and Capital Structure

The Offering

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

We are issuing Securities at an offering price of $0.10 per share.

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?

The Securities are being issued with voting rights. However, so that the crowdfunding community has the opportunity to act together and cast a vote as a group when a voting matter arises, a record owner will cast your vote for you. Please refer to the record owner agreement that you sign before your purchase is complete.

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?

You are giving your voting rights to the record owner, who will vote the Securities on behalf of all investors who purchased Securities on the Netcapital crowdfunding portal.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

Any provision of the terms of the Securities being offered may be amended, waived or modified by written consent of the majority owner(s) of the Company. We may choose to modify the terms of the Securities before the offering is completed. However, if the terms are modified, and we deem it to be a material change, we need to contact you and you will be given the opportunity to reconfirm your investment. Your reconfirmation must be completed within five business days of receipt of the notice of a material change, and if you do not reconfirm, your investment will be canceled and your money will be returned to you.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Offered

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one-year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

- to the issuer;
- to an accredited investor;
- as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
- to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

The term “accredited investor” means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term “member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent” includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term “spousal equivalent” means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Description of Issuer’s Securities

17. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Securities

Class of Security	Amount Authorized	Amount Outstanding	Voting Rights	Other Rights
Common Stock	400,000,000	117,434,308	Yes

Options, Warrants and Other Rights

None.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of securities?

None of the Company's existing debt is convertible into equity.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

The Company has granted a perpetual waiver of the transfer restrictions listed in the bylaws of the Company for all Securities sold in this Offering.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal owners identified in Question 5 above affect the purchasers of Securities being offered?

The Company's bylaws can be amended by the shareholders of the Company, and directors can be added or removed by shareholder vote. As minority owners, you are subject to the decisions made by the majority owners. The issued and outstanding common stock gives management voting control of the Company. As a minority owner, you may be outvoted on issues that impact your investment, such as the issuance of additional shares, or the sale of debt, convertible debt or assets of the Company.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The price of the Securities was determined solely by the management and bears no relation to traditional measures of valuation such as book value or price-to-earnings ratios. We expect that any future valuation will take the same approach.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

As the holder of a majority of the voting rights in the Company, our majority shareholders may make decisions with which you disagree, or that negatively affect the value of your investment in the Company, and you will have no recourse to change those decisions. Your interests may conflict with the interests of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is advantageous to you. For example, the majority shareholders may decide to issue additional shares to new investors, sell convertible debt instruments with beneficial conversion features, or make decisions that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that may be unfavorable to you. Based on the risks described above, you may lose all or part of your investment in the securities that you purchase, and you may never see positive returns.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions including:

- additional issuances of securities,
- issuer repurchases of securities,
- a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or
- transactions with related parties?

The issuance of additional shares of our common stock will dilute your ownership. As a result, if we achieve profitable operations in the future, our net income per share will be reduced because of dilution, and the market price of our common stock, if there is a market price, could decline as a result of the additional issuances of securities. If we repurchase securities, so that the above risk is mitigated, and there are fewer shares of common stock outstanding, we may not have enough cash available for marketing expenses, growth, or operating expenses to reach our goals. If we do not have enough cash to operate and grow, we anticipate the market price of our stock would decline. A sale of our company or of the assets of our company may result in an entire loss of your investment. We cannot predict the market value of our company or our assets, and the proceeds of a sale may not be cash, but instead, unmarketable securities, or an assumption of liabilities. In addition to the payment of wages and expense reimbursements, we may need to engage in transactions with officers, directors, or affiliates. By acquiring an interest in the Company, you will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential related party transactions and waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from a perceived or actual conflict of interest. In some instances, we may deem it necessary to seek a loan from related parties. Such financing may not be available when needed. Even if such financing is available, it may be on terms that are materially averse to your interests with respect to dilution of book value, dividend preferences, liquidation preferences, or other terms. No assurance can be given that such funds will be available or, if available, will be on commercially reasonable terms satisfactory to us. If we are unable to obtain financing on reasonable terms, we could be forced to discontinue our operations. We anticipate that any transactions with related parties will be vetted and approved by executives(s) unaffiliated with the related parties.

New Platform Tech Inc. answers 'NO' to all of the above questions.

Other Material Information

31. The following is the transcript of the video shown on the Company's offering page: Hi, I'm Jessica. Today, New Platform Tech Inc. invited me to speak with you about this amazing opportunity. First, there were social music platforms that helped artists earn gifts in the form of tokens gifted to them by other users. Then came streaming music platforms that offered cash incentives for streaming achievements, incentivizing new singers and songwriters to register and use their services and build their market share. In early 2020, music NFT auction marketplaces exploded across the worldwide web, giving artists and songwriters the ability to make more money than they'd ever made before. Just imagine if NPTI combined all that technology in the form of a voting engine called TNFS Voting Engine, blockchain algorithm multiplier platform (T-BAM for short). Brand yourself to stardom, where the best-voted singers and the best-voted songs advance to the next Female Superstar singing competition series that gives singers and songwriters a real chance at fame, fortune, and superstar. Hi, I'm Charlie Midnight. I produced and/or written for artists such as James Brown, Christina Agala, Billy Joel, Cher, Joni Mitchell, Britney Spears, The Doobie Brothers, Joe Cocker, and Barbara Streisand, amongst others. My song "Living in America" won James Brown his second Grammy, and I have had songs in over 40 films. When my good friend Ray Hall told me about the next Female Superstar, I was drawn to the idea. My decades in the music business taught me that there was always a world of singing talent waiting to be discovered that just needed a chance to be heard. And the idea of focusing on females felt important to me. I've advised Ray on the different ways that the next Female Superstar could provide opportunities to talent as well as establish the next Female Superstar as a force with a conscience. As a record label and music publishing company, I am looking forward to lending my decades of experience as a record producer and songwriter to being a judge on the next Female Superstar and to consulting Ray Hall on these aspects of the music landscape. Hello, my name is Ray Hall. I'm the founder of New Platform Tech Inc. and one of the architects who developed this investment opportunity in two parts. First part, our TNFS Voting Engine, blockchain algorithm multiplier platform (T-BAM for short). Our slogan: Just your voice, the song, and your phone. And the second part is the next Female Superstar, a 25-episode all-female singing competition series. So yes, you're making one investment in two properties, and both of those properties are in very successful money-generating industries: the music technology industry and the singing competition industry. Our TNFS Voting Engine is designed to help undiscovered female singers and published or non-published songwriters have a chance at fame, fortune, and superstardom by registering on the platform, uploading their content (which is an audition for singers and two published or non-published unsold songs). Now, the platform is designed to allow singers from all over the world, be in Sydney, Australia; Tokyo; London; Paris; New Zealand; Australia; Mexico; and all over the United States, have an opportunity to register using an OTP (one-time password). Once they register, they get to audition through their phone, 30C audition uploaded, or upload two published or non-published unsold songs. Now, here's the kicker: before they can get onto the 180-day voting tournament, they have to go out and get 100 votes to vote them onto the playing field where they get to use our voting tool to reach out to other voters and get them to vote for them. Singers who get voted to the highest vote category each week for 26 weeks earn $500. If they get 100,000 vote streams, they earn 9 cents per stream. That might not sound like much, but think about it this way: Spotify pays 41 of 1 cent per stream. We're paying 9 cents per stream. So if they had 100,000 streams, they walk away with $99,000. And they get to advance to the TNFS Live Showdown in Las Vegas, Nevada, where these singers from all over the globe will descend on Las Vegas, and the highest 233 voted songs will advance to The Showdown as well. Where a panel of judges, including my friend Charlie Midnight, my executive in charge of production Amy Roland (who's going to be in charge of putting on the series), and the other panel will decide the top 10 finalists that will advance as the next Female Superstar and the 55 songs that they will sing on that series. After the 10 performance episodes and 10 elimination episodes and five backstory episodes, one undiscovered female singer will be crowned and branded the next Female Superstar. So when she goes out, whether she's doing an article in a magazine or going on to a talk show, what have you, she will be introduced as the next Female Superstar, and the songwriter winner (because she sung their song to win the competition) will be introduced as the TNFS Songwriter Winner. Both winners will earn a $2 million cash prize for winning the series, and the singer will win a multi-year record contract, and the songwriter will win a multi-year music placement contract. Both of these projects could be very interesting year one. Just think about it this way: we always want our stock to grow as far as price per share goes. Imagine us getting this done, and we find the first next Female Superstar, and she goes on to be successful, and the songwriter goes on to be successful. Imagine the clout that we're going to have in Season 2. Imagine the interest. Appreciate your time. Thank you. This is Amus reporting for Vog Magazine, World of Fashion. The question is, what is Daniela Evangelista wearing tonight on the next Female Superstar series? And now, coming to the stage for the next Female Superstar performance is "Every Woman is a Superstar." "Look in the mirror. You know who you are. Every woman is a superstar, so sing, hey, hey." Imagine that.
