Neville said, "My greatness of America can be judged by the way in which we treat our animals. I think that's a terrific line. I'm not sure that the comedy scene can withstand it. I should argue it down a little bit or outlaw it completely. I'm against cruelty and I'm against cruelty regarding the clever to safe action against animals." Neville Chamberlain

Why you may want to invest in us...

1. A story of friendship between a wolfdog, Lucky, and a teenage boy, Sasa, and the journey of Lucky in search of his best friend.
2. The film has been written by Bob Rochelen, a multiple award-winning writer and director of both live action and animated features.
3. The film has been registered with and is nonconformist, The Humane Society, whose representatives are on set during each animal scene.
4. Year-long and four-season production, which allows the key and the wolfdog to grow with the film, and the film to grow with the wolfdog.
5. This film is unique because of the multidimensional lead character, Lucky—a wolfdog capable of emotions such as love, longing, and loyalty.
6. Audience Among each month's worldwide viewership of Animal Planet, approximately 40% are between the ages of 18 and 34 years old.
7. With millions of national and global dog lovers, this films market could be significant, attracting large audiences across the world.
8. A bold, message-driven film, that pushes the boundaries of visual story-telling.
