Education

University of Plymouth

Bachelor of Science (BSc), Psychology

2002 – 2005

Activities and Societies: I had a fantastic time as a member of the Officer Training Corp, it provided me with leadership and management skills within a military and adventure-training environment. I took part in expeditions around Africa, Europe and the UK where I summited Mount Kilimanjaro/Kenya, went skydiving (much to the stress of my mother) and scuba diving, to name a few. Survival, sleep deprivation and military exercises gave me experience in team work and being cold and tired for weeks on end!
