The Notice shall contain the Transferee's name, business and residence address, the number of Ownership Units to be transferred, the price per Ownership Unit, if any, and the terms of the transfer. An executed copy of the Transferee's offer to purchase the Ownership Units shall be attached to the Notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, should the Offering Member fail to provide Notice pursuant to this Article III, Section 1, and the Company or any other Member learn of such proposed transfer, then such other Member or the Company shall provide notice to the Members and the Company, as applicable, of such proposed transfer. Consent to the Proposed Transfer must be granted by the Members holding a Majority of the Ownership Units.

2. Member's Right of First Refusal. For thirty (30) days following the receipt of the Notice, the remaining Members shall have the option to redeem all, but not less than all, of the Offered Units at the price and on the terms and conditions set forth in the Notice by giving notice to the Offering Member and the Members within such thirty (30) day period of its intention to redeem the Offered Units; provided, however, that the remaining Members may elect to purchase less than all of the Offered Units provided that the Members, or any of them, elect to exercise their option rights pursuant to Article III, Section 3, so as to purchase all of the remaining Offered Units.
3. Members' Right of Second Refusal.
 - a. If the remaining Members fail or refuse to exercise their option to redeem all of the Offered Units by giving notice as set forth in Article III, Section 2 within the period set forth in Article III, Section 2 above, then the Members receiving the Notice shall give further notice of the contemplated transfer and the Member's decision to each Member and provide a copy of such further notice to the Offering Member. For thirty (30) days following the receipt of such further notice to the Members, the Members shall have the option to purchase all, but not less than all, of the remaining Offered Units at the price and on the terms and conditions set forth in the Notice.
 - b. Any Member desiring to exercise the option granted under this Article III, Section 3 shall deliver to the Offering Member and the other Members, within thirty (30) days of such further notice, a written notice of election to purchase the Offered Units, specifying the number of Ownership Units to be purchased. If more than one Member elects to purchase any or all of the Offered Units, each electing Member shall have the right to purchase a proportionate number of the Offered Units based on the ratio of the number of Ownership Units which the electing Member owns to the total number of Ownership Units held by all electing Members electing to purchase under this Article III, Section 3 (the "Allocation").
 - c. If any electing Member has elected to purchase a number of Ownership Units which is less than the number of Offered Units to which such electing Member is entitled under the Allocation, then those electing Members desiring to purchase more than their share under the Allocation shall be entitled to purchase any such unpurchased Offered Units on the pro rata basis established by the Allocation. Any such reallocation shall continue for as many rounds as are necessary for the purchase of all the Offered Units. The Members shall have five (5) additional business days beyond the thirty (30) day option period provided in this Article III, Section 3 in which to determine the number of Offered Units purchased in subsequent rounds by electing Members. Within the thirty (30) day option period, as provided herein, or if subsequent rounds are necessary, the additional five (5) business day period provided herein, the Company shall notify each electing Member of the number of Ownership Units as to which his or her election is effective.
 - d. If all the Units offered for sale in accordance with the terms of Article III, Sections 2 and 3 are not purchased by the Members, any options exercised under either of Article III, Sections 2 and 3 as to the Units so offered are null and void and all such Ownership Units may be transferred to a Transferee for up to three (3) months after the date of the Notice given pursuant to Section 4(a) at the price and upon terms no more favorable to the Transferee than those specified in such Notice (the "Transfer"). No transfer of the Ownership Units shall be made to the Transferee after the end of the three (3) month period set forth in this Article III, Section 3(d) nor shall any change in the terms of the transfer be permitted without another Notice of transfer in compliance with Article III, Section 1.

Each Member will maintain the confidentiality of any Confidential Information received pursuant to this Agreement, or as a result of being a Member hereunder, and this provision shall survive termination of this Agreement and shall survive even after any Member ceases to be a Member of the Company.

ARTICLE VIII – INDEMNIFICATION

1. Right to Indemnification. The Company shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless any person or entity who was or is a party, or who is threatened to be made a party, to any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that such person or entity was or is a Member, employee, or other agent of the Company, or was or is serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, or employee, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by such person or entity in connection with such legal proceeding, if such person or entity acted in good faith and in a manner that such person or entity reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company, and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, such person or entity had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's or entity's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any legal proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, by itself, create a presumption that the person or entity did not act in good faith and in a manner that such person or entity reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company, or that the person or entity had reasonable cause to believe that the person's or entity's conduct was unlawful.

2. Expenses of Indemnification. Expenses of each person or entity indemnified under this Agreement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of a legal proceeding may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, as authorized by the Members who are not seeking indemnification or, if there are none, by the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Ownership Units owned by the Members, upon receipt of an undertaking by such person or entity to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person or entity is entitled to be indemnified by the Company. As used in this Article IX, the term "expenses" includes, without limitation, attorney's fees and expenses of establishing a right to indemnification, if any, under this Article X.
3. Insurance. The Members may, to the full extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists, or may hereafter be amended from time to time, authorize an appropriate Member to purchase and maintain at the Company's expense insurance: (a) to indemnify the Company for any obligation which it incurs as a result of the indemnification of Members or employees under the provisions of this Article IX; and (b) to indemnify or insure Members or employees against liability in instances in which they may not otherwise be indemnified by the Company under the provisions of this Article X.

ARTICLE IX – DISABILITY, DISSOLUTION, AND WINDING UP

1. Disability. Should the Manager become incapacitated or unable to fulfill the day to day managerial role the day to day operations will be handled by an assigned agent. The Manager's salary and dividend income should continue at 50% for as long as the Manager is incapacitated or up to six months from date of inability to perform management role.
2. Dissolution. The Company will dissolve upon the earlier of (a) Decision of the Managers to dissolve in accordance with the requirements of Article X. below, or (b) such time as the Company has no Members. Neither the death, incompetency, or bankruptcy of the Member nor the assignment of the Member's entire membership interest will dissolve the Company.
3. Divorce of Member. In the event any Member becomes divorced or divides his marital property, and in connection therewith an agreement is entered into or an order is entered granting any Units to the spouse of such Member, then on the date when it is finally determined that such an agreement or order is to be entered into or entered, (i) the Member owning the affected Units shall give the Company and the Other Members written notice thereof promptly upon the occurrence of such event, and (ii) the Company and the Other Members, successively, shall have the right--but not the obligation--to purchase all of such Member's Units. The Company may elect to purchase all (but not less than all) of such Member's Units by giving written notice to such Member within 30 days after the date of receipt of such notice from the subject Member. If the Company does not exercise its right to purchase all of such Member's Units, the Other Members shall have the exclusive right during the period of 20 days next following such 30-day period to purchase (pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings of Units) all (but not less than all) of such Member's Units by giving written notice to such Member. If the Other Members do not elect to purchase all such Units, any remaining Units may be allocated among the Other Members who have elected to purchase such Units pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings of Units, and such Other Members shall have 10 days following such 20-day period to elect to purchase such remaining Units.

4. Winding Up and Liquidation. The company may be dissolved by approval of a majority of the Members. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the affairs of the Company must be wound up by the Members. If the affairs of the Company are to be wound up, a full account must be taken of the assets and liabilities of the Company, and the assets of the Company must then be promptly liquidated. The proceeds must first be paid to creditors of the Company in satisfaction of all liabilities and obligations of the Company, including, to the extent permitted by law, liabilities and obligations owed to the Member as a creditor. Any remaining proceeds may then be distributed to the Members. Property of the Company may be distributed in kind in the process of winding up and liquidation.

5. Valuation. Upon death, disability, or termination of services, or exit of a Member, the value of any Member's Ownership Units will be valued in accordance with the following:

The Company, through a majority vote of the able and non-dissociating Members, shall select a firm that provides valuation services to privately held companies. That selected firm shall provide such valuation services to determine the fair market value of the Ownership Units. The cost of this service will be borne by the Company. Should a party disagree with the accepted valuation, the party may obtain a separate valuation at their own cost (such valuation to be used in negotiations for an agreed upon fair market value) or the disagreeing party may select a firm and together each valuating firm shall select a neutral third firm to provide valuation services to determine fair market value of the Company's Ownership Units.

6. Negative Capital Account. If a Member has a negative balance in that Member's capital account upon liquidation of the Company, the Member will have no obligation to make any contribution to the capital of the Company to make up the deficit, and the deficit will not be considered a debt owed to the Company or any other person for any purpose.
