About

Roshini Sanah Jaiswal has recently taken on the mantle of CRO, a critical leadership role at Jagatjit Industries. This task requires her to look strategically and tactically at both external facing departments such as marketing, branding, sales and back end support functions of quality control, production, human resources and technology.

Prior to Jagatjit, Roshini successfully founded and ran her own entrepreneurial ventures and brings to the table about 10 years of experience and expertise in the Food and Beverages industry in addition to an innate understanding of the liquor industry, having grown up in a family committed to this business for nearly 7 decades.
