“Disinterested Majority” of the board of directors. The Disinterested Majority of the board of directors will exclude any directors who directly or indirectly have a material interest (including an economic interest) in such Election Decision. Note that a board member, while considered independent for regulatory compliance purposes, may not be considered independent for accounting purposes if that member was appointed to the board by individuals who currently hold Class B common stock and Common Units. Therefore, if a majority of the Disinterested Majority is comprised of board members nominated by holders of the Common Units and shares of Class B common stock, the cash redemption feature may be outside of the Company’s control. Please advise us or revise your pro forma balance sheet presentation and the applicable related disclosures.

You may contact Joseph Kempf, Senior Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3352 or Robert Littlepage, Accounting Branch Chief, at (202) 551-3361 if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters. Please contact Alexandra Barone, Staff Attorney, at (202) 551-8816 or Larry Spigel, Office Chief, at (202) 551-3815 with any other questions.
