A FAITH INFUSED ROMANTIC COMEDY

READY FOR DISTRIBUTION // SUMMER 2019

Finding Love Starts with Finding Hope

thestory

The classic love triangle with a twist of truth.
It's not about finding the one, it's about learning to love another despite imperfections.

Thomas has spent his whole life searching for his perfect girl.
Then he met Hope; and everything he thought he wanted changed...that is until Desiree walked through the door.
Now he has to choose between the girl of his dreams and the friend he has grown to love.

marketopportunity

faithinfused

Faith based films brought in 130 million in US box office revenue last year on a fraction of the budget of other genres.

False Hopes infuses people of faith into our story, but doesn't hit people over the head with a faith message which broadens our market.

We have a strong base with a high ceiling for growth.

storycentered

Is there a perfect match for you?
How do I know if this is the one?
Everyone has asked themselves these questions. FALSE HOPES gives a unique answer that everyone can agree on.

FALSE HOPES addresses age old questions that are familiar to everyone searching for love. It uses the proven dramatic premise of a love triangle but keeps it fun and comedic.

strongreviews

We have done test screenings with more than 2000 people and have received overwhelming support for the film.

We have also had great reviews from pastors and ministry leaders who appreciate the strong faith message that is genuine and relateable.

People love that False Hopes is a real comedy with moments of laughter and lightheartedness in a genre that is commonly dominated by dramas.

The actors were great, the plot was captivating, and the attention to details was obvious. Faith was portrayed in a true, honest, and applicable way without being offensive. I can't wait to show it at our church!

False Hopes was very enjoyable to watch. The acting was credible. The story line was engaging. And the humor was a great compliment to the drama. I found myself laughing out loud a couple of times, which is not typical for me.

Influencers Speak Up

A romantic, feel-good comedy that demonstrates how love wins in the end through the truth, wisdom, and love of family and friends. A redemptive message that celebrates the gift and joy of the second chance.

Great chemistry between Justin Ray

Love this movie! I'm not a movie critic; therefore, I'm not one to write eloquently about my experience with a movie. That said, I think this movie is well done and the acting is wonderful. The story is told with situational humor that relates to the dangerous journey in seeking perfect romance.

I give it four bags of popcorn....just because, I always wanted to write that in a movie review.

Good movie! You should see it! Today! NOW!
