Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition and Cost of Revenue, page F-38

1. We reviewed your response to comment 4 and the revisions to your disclosure. You state that "[t]he Company reviewed its processes for shipping, whether from the Company's warehouse or from a manufacturer's or distributor's warehouse (i.e., drop shipments) and has determined that there is no difference between the two shipping methods." In addition, we note you removed the disclosure regarding drop shipments, specifically that you bear a risk of loss, can change shipping instructions in transit, handle any customer complaints or returns and take legal title to the product between shipment and delivery.

Please explain to us why you removed that disclosure and as previously requested, explain to us how you determined control transfers to the customer upon shipment and why it is appropriate to recognize revenue upon shipment versus delivery.
