FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AND REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM
PURSUANT TO SEC RULE 17a-5

DECEMBER 31, 2021

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Member of
Egwele Securities LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Egwele Securities LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2021, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Egwele Securities LLC as of December 31, 2021 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as Egwele Securities LLC's auditor since 2020.

Egwele Securities LLC

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2021

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Egwele Securities LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) effective September 2, 2020. The Company advises companies and private funds on offering investments in such companies and private funds to investors. The Company is located in the state of Illinois and was organized as a limited liability company in Illinois on November 20, 2017. As a limited liability company, the member's liability is limited to its equity contribution.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which is in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles which is required by the SEC and FINRA.

The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, providing private placement and M&A advisory services.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded at cost less an allowance for expected credit losses. The Company develops its estimate of credit losses on accounts receivable by considering all available information (past, current, and future) relevant to assessing collectability.

The Company had no receivables at December 31, 2021.

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606 Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). Under ASC 606 revenue is recognized upon satisfaction of performance obligations by transferring control over goods or service to a customer.

Revenue from advisory arrangements is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction) or the contract is cancelled. However, for certain contracts, revenue is recognized over time for advisory arrangements in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. In some circumstances, significant judgment is needed to determine the timing and measure of progress appropriate for revenue recognition under a specific contract. Retainers and other fees received from customers prior to recognizing revenue are reflected as contract liabilities.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Income taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and as such, is not required to file its own tax return. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements as they are the responsibility of the individual member.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

The member files income tax returns in the U.S. in both federal jurisdiction and state jurisdictions.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. As of December 31, 2021, the Company had net capital of $107,510 which was $102,510 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.0088 to 1.

Egwele Securities LLC

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2021

4. Concentration

70% of the Company's revenue for the year-ended December 31, 2021 was earned from two customers.

5. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company had no commitments or contingencies that required disclosure as of December 31, 2021.

6. Lease

The Company leases office space pursuant to month-to-month lease agreements. $4,873 was incurred under such leases for the year ended December 31, 2021 and is included in occupancy and equipment on the accompanying statement of operations.

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. The Company recognizes lease cost associated with short-term leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

7. Subsequent Events

Management evaluated subsequent events through March 3, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
