Personal Statement

My passion for fulfilling the great commission of Christ drives me to reach for the greatest success in ministry for Christ and the Church. I believe that in order to fulfill this mission that Christ has set us on, we must not rest on our laurels, we need to challenge ourselves to reach out into our communities and create opportunities that invite the un-churched and the 'nones' into our faith-filled communities. If we fail to do this, I believe we are not fulfilling the great commission of Christ.
