Experience

CEO, Co-Founder

Firehawk Aerospace

Aug 2018 – Present · 1 yr 11 mos

Firehawk Aerospace builds high-performance rocket engines that are safe, reliable, and cost effective. Our engines have 12 parts, can be designed and built in 4 to 6 months (the industry average is 5 to 7 years) and cost 20% of what other rocket engine companies charge. We achieve this through our patented method of 3D printing fuel.
