Vanessa Otero

CEO and Founder of Ad Fontes Media
Westminster, Colorado, United States

Summary

I'm the founder and CEO of Ad Fontes Media, Inc. We rate the news for reliability and bias. Our mission is to rate ALL the news to positively transform society. I started this company because I am the creator of the original Media Bias Chart, the viral image that prompted many lively discussions around the internet about where people get their news.

Prior to founding Ad Fontes, I practiced as an intellectual property attorney. My practice focused on patent prosecution, trademark prosecution, litigation support, and general IP counseling. I helped technology companies of all sizes acquire and strategically deploy their intellectual property. I graduated from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law in December of 2013, and have a B.A. in English from UCLA.

I went to law school part time while working in pharmaceutical sales. I have a total of 10 years of professional sales experience, including business to business, pharmaceutical, and direct sales.

I am interested in connecting with creative individuals in all kinds of professional fields.
