A.I powered platform to recruit, develop and manage the Digital Workforce.

Quaesitus is a SaaS platform that provides all the tools an organization needs to find, hire, develop and retain talent. It uses the latest technologies, including AI and Quantitative Data Analytics with a clear UI. The platform is designed to work as a digital (virtual) companion to each employee for the duration of their career. It also provides AI-based performance improvement recommendations to both the organization and each individual user, and helps analyze data for more efficiency within HR.
