1. We re-issue our prior comment 2, and have the following comments based on your revised disclosures in response to our comment:

- Please revise your Government Regulations section to discuss the effects of the various regulations that you disclose there on your business, so that investors can understand how the regulations are applicable to you, as well as the nature and degree of impact of such regulations on your business. Additionally, please consider significantly expanding your disclosure in this section to provide a more robust discussion of the material Hong Kong and Malaysian laws and regulations to which your business is subject to including, but not limited to, acquiring necessary permits or licenses, intellectual property rights, regulation affecting foreign-based businesses operating in Hong Kong and Malaysia and/or tax issues. To the extent your company has not yet obtained all required licenses, permits or approvals, please clearly describe the foregoing.

- As a related matter, please add risk factor disclosure addressing the risks or known concerns relating to the regulatory environment in Hong Kong and Malaysia, including, but not limited to, risks related to acquiring necessary permits or licenses, the interpretation and enforcement of laws and regulations, challenges to protecting intellectual property rights, unfavorable tax consequences for non-citizen shareholders, restrictions on foreign investment, and the ability to transfer funds into or out of the country. Additionally, consider any other Hong Kong or Malaysian laws, regulations or customs that could present material risks to your business.
- Please also add a risk factor that addresses limitations on the ability of U.S. regulators, such as the Department of Justice, the SEC, the PCAOB and other authorities, to conduct investigations and inspections within Hong Kong.

For additional guidance, refer to Item 101(h)(4)(viii) and (ix) of Regulation S-K, as well as CF Disclosure Guidance: Topic No. 10.
