SALE AND TRANSFER LIMITATIONS ON SHARES

5.1. Transfers. If any common stockholder (a "Holder") proposes to sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of, by operation of law or otherwise

(collectively “Transfer”) any such shares pursuant to a bona fide offer acceptable to such Holder, then Holder shall give written notice of the proposed Transfer (the “Transfer Notice”) to the Corporation. The Transfer Notice shall state the name of the proposed transferee, the number of shares Holder proposes to transfer (the “Offered Shares”), whether the Offered Shares are vested or unvested, the price per share and all other material terms and conditions of the transfer, including any available exemption from the restrictions set forth in Section 5.2 and 5.3 set forth below, and shall include a confirmation from the Holder that the proposed transferee is an “accredited investor” as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). For clarity, nothing herein will be interpreted to permit the transfer of shares in violation of any agreement between the holder thereof and the Corporation.

5.2. Consent to Transfer. Following receipt of the Transfer Notice, the prior written consent of the Corporation (upon duly authorized action of its board of directors) shall be required (and such consent may be withheld) if such transfer (a) would be to an individual, company or any other form of entity identified by the Corporation as a potential competitor; (b) increases the risk of the Corporation having a class of equity security requiring the Corporation to register any class of securities under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934; (c) would result in the loss of any federal or state securities law exemption relied upon by the Corporation in connection with the initial issuance of such shares or the issuance of any other securities; (d) is facilitated in any manner by any public posting, message board, trading portal, internet site or similar method of communication, including without limitation any trading portal or internet site intended to facilitate secondary transfers of securities; (e) is to be effected in a brokered transaction; (f) represents a transfer of less than all of the shares then held by the Holder and its affiliates or is to be made to more than a single transferee; or (g) is determined by the Corporation’s board of directors to require such consent for any legitimate business purpose. The Corporation shall notify Holder within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Transfer Notice indicating whether the proposed transfer requires such consent and if so, whether such consent has been provided (a “Transfer Approval”) or withheld (a “Transfer Denial” and together with “Transfer Approval”, the “Transfer Determination”). For purposes of clarity, a Holder shall not be entitled to transfer any shares if such proposed Transfer results in a Transfer Denial.

5.3. Right of First Refusal.

A. Subject to the exceptions set forth in Section 5.4 below, for thirty (30) days following a Transfer Determination that results in a Transfer Approval, the Corporation or its assigns shall have the option to purchase all or part of the Offered Shares at the price and upon the terms set forth in the Transfer Notice (the “Right of First Refusal”). In the event the Corporation or its assigns, as applicable, elects to purchase all or part of the Offered Shares, it shall give written notice of such election to the Holder within such thirty (30) day period. Within ten (10) days after Holder’s receipt of such notice, Holder shall tender to the Corporation at its principal offices the certificate or certificates representing the Offered Shares to be purchased by the Corporation, duly endorsed in blank by Holder or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in a form suitable for transfer of the Offered Shares to the Corporation. Promptly following receipt of such certificate or certificates, the Corporation or its assigns, as applicable, shall deliver or mail to Holder a check in payment of the purchase price for such Offered Shares; provided that if the terms of payment set forth in the Transfer Notice were other than cash against delivery, the Corporation or its assigns, as applicable, may pay for the Offered Shares on the same terms and conditions as were set forth in the Transfer Notice.

B. If the Corporation or its assigns, as applicable, does not elect to acquire any of the Offered Shares, Holder may, within the thirty (30) day period following the expiration of the option granted to the Corporation under Section 5.3A above, transfer the Offered Shares that the Corporation has not elected to acquire to the proposed transferee, provided that such transfer shall not be on terms and conditions more favorable to the transferee than those contained in the Transfer Notice, such transfer shall be only to a prospective transferee that is an accredited investor as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and such transfer shall comply with the Securities Act. Notwithstanding any of the above, all Offered Shares transferred pursuant to this Section 5.3 shall remain subject to these Bylaws and any equity grant agreement such Offered Shares were subject to and such transferee shall, as a condition to such transfer, deliver to the Corporation a written instrument confirming that such transferee shall be bound by all of the terms and conditions of these Bylaws and any applicable equity grant agreement.

C. After the time at which the Offered Shares are required to be delivered to the Corporation for transfer to the Corporation pursuant to Section 5.3A above, the Corporation shall not pay any dividend to Holder on account of such Offered Shares or permit Holder to exercise any of the privileges or rights of a stockholder with respect to such Offered Shares, but shall, insofar as permitted by law, treat the Corporation as the owner of such Offered Shares.

D. The Corporation may assign its Right of First Refusal in any particular transaction under this Section 5.3 to one or more persons or entities.

5.4. Exceptions.

A. The provisions of this Article V may be waived with respect to any Transfer by the board of directors.

B. The following transactions shall be exempt from the restrictions set forth in this Article V:

iv. a transfer by any Holder of the Corporation's preferred stock, if any, or any shares of common stock issued on conversion thereof.

C. In the case of a transfer pursuant to Section 5.4B(i) above, such shares shall remain subject to these Bylaws and any existing equity grant agreement and such transferee shall, as a condition to such transfer, deliver to the Corporation a written instrument confirming that such transferee shall be bound by all of the terms and conditions of these Bylaws and any applicable equity grant agreement and there shall be no further transfer of such shares except in accordance with these Bylaws.

5.5. Termination. The provisions of Article V shall terminate upon the closing of the sale of shares of common stock in an underwritten public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement filed by the Corporation under the Securities Act.

5.6. Void Transfers. The Corporation shall not be required (a) to transfer on its books any shares which shall have been sold or otherwise transferred in violation of any of the provisions of this Article V or (b) to treat as owner of such shares or to accord the right to vote or pay dividends to any purchaser or other transferee to whom any such shares shall have been so sold or transferred.

5.7. Legends. The books and records of the Corporation and any certificates representing shares of stock of the Corporation shall contain or bear the following legend (or similar, as determined by the board of directors, in its sole discretion) so long as the foregoing Transfer restrictions are in effect:
