You should assume that the information contained in this Form C-AR is accurate only as of the date of this Form C-AR, regardless of the time of delivery of this Form C-AR. Our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects may have changed since that date.

Statements contained herein as to the content of any agreements or other document are summaries and, therefore, are necessarily selective and incomplete and are qualified in their entirety by the actual agreements or other documents.

SUMMARY

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by more detailed information that may appear elsewhere in this Form C-AR and the Exhibits hereto.

Belladinas Easley LLC (the "Company") is a South Carolina Limited Liability Company, formed on August 5, 2020.

The Company is located at 101 S. Hudson St , Greenville , SC 29601.

The Company's website is <https://belladinas.com/>.

The information available on or through our website is not a part of this Form C-AR.

The Business

Belladina's Easley will be a part of the larger Silos Easley project, bringing a group of food and drink offerings together in a communal setting for a new "food and brew hall" experience in downtown Easley, SC.

RISK FACTORS

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumption of stable economic conditions and other various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will depend in large part on future events over which Belladina's and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or their underlying facts could significantly affect the forecasts. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may vary significantly from the projected outcomes. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the actual operating results will correspond to the forecasts provided herein.

You Might Lose Your Money

Buying a Note is not guaranteed or insured to protect from loss. The ability of Belladina's to make the payments you expect, and ultimately to give you your money back, depends on a number of factors, including many beyond our control.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with new entrants in the market. Belladina's competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality, price, location, and customer experience. Changes in customer preference away from Belladina's core business or the inability to compete successfully against other competitors could negatively affect Belladina's financial performance.

Changes in Economic Conditions Could Hurt Belladina's

Factors like Covid-19, global or national economic recessions, changes in interest rates, changes in credit markets, changes in capital market conditions, declining employment, changes in real estate values, changes in tax policy, changes in political conditions, and wars and other crises, among other factors are unpredictable and could negatively affect Belladina's financial performance or ability to continue to operate. In the event Belladina's ceases operations due to the foregoing factors, it cannot guarantee that it will be able to resume operations or generate revenue in the future.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for twelve months after you acquire them. Even after that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. Even if you are permitted to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there is no established market. Given these factors, you should be prepared to hold your investment for its full term.

No Registration Under Securities Laws

The Notes will not be registered with the SEC or the securities regulator of any State. Hence, neither Belladina's nor the Notes will be subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Lack of Offering Information

Regulation Crowdfunding does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other kinds of securities offerings, such as a public offering of shares (for example, publicly-traded firms must generally provide investors with quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm). Although Regulation Crowdfunding does require extensive information, it is possible that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Uninsured Losses

Although Belladina's will carry some insurance, Belladina's may not carry enough insurance to protect against all risks to the business. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Therefore, Belladina's could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

Lack of Ongoing Information

Belladina's will be required to provide some information to investors for at least 12 months following the offering. However, this information is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting Belladina's; and Belladina's is allowed to stop providing annual information in certain circumstances.

Conflict of Interest with Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Belladina's management will coincide. For example, you both want Belladina's to be as successful as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas. For example, you might want Belladina's to spend conservatively to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while Belladina's might prefer to spend aggressively to invest in growing the business.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Belladina's needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of financing, the new investors might have rights superior to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions, to have a greater voice in management, or otherwise.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Belladina's management or vote on and/or influence any managerial decisions regarding Belladina's. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Belladina's were to leave Belladina's or become unable to work, Belladina's (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

The Company Might Need More Capital

Belladina's might need to raise more capital in the future to fund/expand operations, buy property and equipment, hire new team members, market its services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that do not adversely affect your interests as an investor. If Belladina's is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations altogether.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements of the National Securities Exchanges

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to a number of rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges require listed companies to have an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material outside relationships with the company or management), which is responsible for monitoring the company's compliance with the law. Belladina's will not be required to implement these and other investor protections.

You Do Have a Downside

Conversely, if Belladina's fails to generate enough revenue, you could lose some or all of your money.

The Notes Are Unsecured and Uninsured

The Notes are not secured by any collateral, nor are they guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other entity.

You Have a Limited Upside

Notes include a maximum amount you can receive. You cannot receive more than that even if Belladina's is significantly more successful than your initial expectations.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, consumer protection laws, securities laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Belladina's financial performance or ability to continue to operate. Specifically, any additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the business.

Lack of Guaranty

The Notes are not personally guaranteed by any of the founders or any other person.

Subordination

The Notes shall be subordinated to all indebtedness of Belladina's to banks, commercial finance lenders, leasing and equipment financing institutions, and/or other institutions regularly engaged in the business of lending money.

Limitation of Individual Rights in Event of Default

In the event of a default under the Notes, you will not be able to enforce your rights individually (for example, by bringing a lawsuit). Instead, a representative will be appointed according to the procedures set forth in the Note Indenture. It's possible that you will not like the representative, or that the representative will do things you believe are wrong or misguided. If an event of default has occurred and a representative has been appointed, all of the representative's reasonable expenses must be paid before any further payments are made with respect to the Notes.

COVID-19 Impact

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may impact Belladina's ability to generate revenue and/or continue operations. If operations are ceased due to COVID-19 controls, Belladina's cannot guarantee that it will resume operations in the future.

Limited Services

Belladina's operates with a very limited scope, offering only particular services to potential clients, making them vulnerable to changes in customer preferences.

Payments and Return Are Unpredictable

Because your payments are based on the revenue of Belladina's, and the revenue of Belladina's can go up or down (or even disappear altogether) unpredictably, it is impossible to predict how much you will receive and when. And because the payments are unpredictable, so is your ultimate return.

Business Decision Risks

Potito Leccese owns 100% of the company and will be able to make decisions on behalf of the company without the input of other investors.

Key Employee Risks

Joseph and Potito will all be involved in Belladina's Hudson LLC in a part-time capacity. While they will employ team members they deem qualified and capable to perform all the needed work when they are not at the Belladina's Hudson LLC location, this may create additional risk to the outcomes of the location.

Regulations and Licensing

Governmental regulation may adversely affect the Issuer's ability to open the restaurant or otherwise adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations. The Issuer will be subject to various federal, state and local regulations, including those relating to the preparation and sale of food. Our restaurant is also subject to state and local licensing and regulation by health, sanitation, food and occupational safety and other agencies. We may experience material difficulties or failures in obtaining the necessary licenses, approvals or permits for our restaurant, which could delay planned restaurant opening.

Potential Threat of Litigation

Food service businesses can be adversely affected by litigation and complaints from customers or government authorities resulting from food quality, health claims, allergens, illness, injury or other health concerns or operating issues stemming from one or more retail locations. Negative publicity about these allegations may negatively affect us, regardless of whether the allegations are true, by discouraging customers from patronizing Belladina's. We may also be impacted by industry trends in litigation, including class-action allegations brought under various consumer protection laws, securities and derivative lawsuits claiming violations of state and federal securities law, and employee lawsuits, including wage and hour claims. Due to the inherent uncertainties of litigation and regulatory proceedings, we cannot accurately predict the outcome of any such proceedings. An unfavorable outcome could have a material adverse impact on the business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, regardless of outcome, these proceedings could result in substantial costs and may require resources be used to defend any claims.

New Entity Risk

Belladina's Easley LLC is a newly formed entity that has yet to generate any revenue or profit; this offering is for a new entity, not the currently operating restaurant; and management will be dividing time between other restaurants.

In addition to the risks listed above, businesses are often subject to risks not foreseen or fully appreciated by the management. It is not possible to foresee all risks that may affect us. Moreover, the Company cannot predict whether the Company will successfully effectuate the Company's current business plan. Each prospective Purchaser is encouraged to carefully analyze the risks and merits of an investment in the Securities and should take into consideration when making such analysis, among other, the Risk Factors discussed above.

BUSINESS

NOTE 1— NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

BELLADINAS EASLEY, LLC (“the Company”) was incorporated on August 5, 2020 under the laws of the State of South Carolina, and is headquartered in Greenville, South Carolina. The Company is a family-owned pizzeria with a goal of providing authentic, Italian foods and a high level of service in a casual, community environment.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. All such adjustments are normal and recurring in nature. The Company’s fiscal year-end is December 31.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The company recognizes revenue in accordance with the following core principles of the Accounting Standards Codification Section 606:

- Identification of the contract with a customer;
- Identification of the performance obligations in the contract;
- Determination of the transaction price;
- Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and
- Recognition of revenue when, or as, the Company satisfies the performance obligations.

The Company has not yet commenced its principal operations; thus, no revenue has been recognized, however expects the majority of its revenue transactions to be consummated at the time of payment from its retail customers.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect market assumptions. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date. Level 1 primarily consists of financial instruments whose value is based on quoted market prices such as exchange-traded instruments and listed equities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly (e.g., quoted prices of similar assets or liabilities in active markets, or quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active).

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. Financial instruments are considered Level 3 when their fair values are determined using pricing models, discounted cash flows or similar techniques and at least one significant model assumption or input is unobservable.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents. As of November 12, 2020, the Company had no items that would be considered cash equivalents. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, that may at times, exceed federal insured limits. No losses have been recognized as a result of these excess amounts.

NOTE 2— GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates the recoverability of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Company has not commenced operations as of December 31, 2021 which, among other factors, raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon management's ability to commence profitable sales of its products, and its ability to generate positive operational cash flow. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be required should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 3 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

From time to time, during the normal course of business, the Company may be subject to various claims or lawsuits from customers, vendors, or competitors. The Company is not currently involved with and has no current knowledge of any pending or threatened litigation against the Company.

A novel strain of coronavirus, or COVID-19, has spread throughout Asia, Europe, and the United States, and has been declared a global pandemic by the World Health Organization. The Company's business plans have not been significantly impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak given the limited overall activity, however, the Company cannot accurately predict the specific extent, duration, or full impact that the COVID-19 outbreak will have on its financial condition, operations, and business plans for the duration of 2020 and future years.
