Our Mission

We founded Brubaker's on the concept of "Something Good." We always strive to be, do, and serve something good. By providing gainful employment with opportunities to learn skills, supporting local non-profits, and using local ingredients where possible, we will be "Something Good" in our community.

- Use local goods where possible while maintaining a price point that is accessible to most people.
- Source coffee from farms that practice sustainable growing and invest in those developing communities.
- Give back locally and globally to impact change for the better.

Our Story

Jeff and Jacob are father- and son-in-law. They decided to put together Jeff's 30 years of restaurant management and passion for baking with Jacob's background in all things coffee to create Brubaker's Café and Bakery.

- October 2018, Brubaker's exists on paper

- July 2020, Brubaker's opens our first pop-up at local farmer's market
- October 2020, everyone asks "where's your brick and mortar?"

The Team

Jeff Chaney, Owner - Operations Manager - Baker

With 30 years of restaurant experience, mostly in management, Jeff brings a knowledge of the operations of a healthy and successful restaurant. He brings a store of wisdom that can only be gathered from years of experience. Years ago, Jeff put in countless hours at the restaurant his family owned. Carrying on some of those same family recipes, and some new spins on old favorites, Jeff provides the bakery options we currently offer. His passion for baking and experience managing fast-food and casual restaurants has given him the tools needed to lead our company to success. He also makes some really good oatmeal cream pies.

Jacob Mullikin, Owner - Strategic Planning - Coffee Roaster

With a background ranging from barista to biochemist, Jacob is a "Jack-of-all-Trades" for the team. Spending most of his early twenties working in the coffee industry. Initially working as a barista and moving on to servicing and installing commercial coffee equipment for large accounts in the southeast. He learned the ins-and-outs of coffee equipment, service, and began roasting coffee in 2018. Customers as far away as Italy drink his coffee, and crave it regularly.

Social Responsibility

Jeff and I both believe that when you have a successful business, you're obligated to do something good with it. Our Motto is "Something Good" and that's what we want to make for the community. A good business, selling good coffee and baked goods, and doing good things with the profits.

We plan to fulfill these social responsibilities through, first of all, providing sustained employment for our team with opportunities to grow. Jeff and I are both well aware of the effects of being stuck in a job with no opportunity for growth. We don't want that for our team. We plan on providing valuable training that prepares our team to make a career with us or take their training and do other things. We want to offer our team the training and support to become certified by the Specialty Coffee Association. We also plan to train those on the team with technical abilities to be certified to repair our equipment, allowing us to reward our team with skills that can be carried into their future, whether it's with us or somewhere else.

After taking care of our team, we want to work with other teams. Teams like the one Jeff Wright leads at the By Name Project. The By Name Project is a young nonprofit based out of Sumter, SC. They provide fresh hot meals, clothes, and recognition and validation to the homeless and economically disadvantaged. Jeff W. has big dreams for all of the ways that the By Name Project can help these marginalized groups. Having already volunteered my time with the organization I can testify that it's great not only to give food and clothes to these people but to spend time with them and learn their stories and names. We have already met with Jeff W. and made plans to sponsor them with volunteers, food, and money. They have some big needs, and we have some big plans. There's money to be made in coffee and we want to do something good with that money by helping them increase their number of events, help them meet their funding goals to get a building to expand their services, and becoming a recurring donor for them. We estimate that with your patronage to our restaurant we can provide thousands of meals, hundreds of volunteer hours, and countless lives changed through the By Name Project in the next year.

In addition to this, we will work with small farms around the world to fairly source our coffee. We research all of the farms our coffee comes from and make selections based on factors like community impact, best growing practices, and quality. One of the farms we get out Guatemalan beans from has a well that they donate clean water from to families in their community. We plan to continue this practice and explore connections we have recently made with members of our community who were raised on family-owned coffee plantations in their home countries. We hope to put a face with all of our coffee and make sure that the human element of the coffee growing process is admired and reinforced by our practices.

Other Information on the Investment Process

- Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline.

- If the Company reaches the Target Offering Amount before the Offering Deadline, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new Offering Deadline at least five

(K) Material Changes

In the event the issuer undergoes a material change, the Investor will be notified of such change. The investor will have five (5) business days from the receipt of such notice to reconfirm their investment. #### Explanation

A “material change” means a change that an average, careful investor would want to know about before making an investment decision. If a material change occurs after you make an investment commitment but before the Offering closes, then the Company will notify you and ask whether you want to invest anyway. If you do not affirmatively choose to invest, then your commitment will be cancelled, your funds will be returned to you, and you will not receive any securities.

(L) Price of the Securities

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as “Notes.” The Notes are being offered at their face amount. For example, you will pay $1,000 for a Note with a face amount of $1,000.

(M) Terms of the Securities

Overview

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as the “Notes.” The Terms of the Notes are set forth in the Revenue Share Agreement accompanying this Form C in Appendix A. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C.

Summary of Terms

Revenue Percentage <sup>1</sup>	1.0 - 12.5% <sup>2</sup>
Payment Deadline	2027-01-01
Maximum Payment Multiple <sup>3</sup> - Early Investors - All Other Investors	1.8 x 1.6 x
Sharing Start Date	The first day after disbursement that the company has revenues greater than one ($1) dollar
First Payment Date	The last day of the calendar quarter ending not less than 90 days after the Sharing Start Date
Seniority	Subordinated
Securitization	Unsecured
Accrual Rate	0.38%

<sup>2</sup> The rate of revenue sharing is calculated on a linear scale with a minimum rate of 1.0% and a maximum rate of 12.5% and is rounded to the nearest 1/10th percent. The final rate is based on the amount raised and is calculated after the offering has successfully closed. As the amount raised in the offering increases, the rate of revenue sharing increases. For example, a hypothetical offering could result in the following revenue sharing percentages, depending on the amount raised:

Amount Raised	Revenue Sharing Percentage
$20,000	1.0%
$77,500	3.9%
$135,000	6.8%
$192,500	9.6%
$250,000	12.5%

<sup>3</sup> To reward early participation, the investors who contribute the first $50,000.0 raised in the offering will receive a 1.8x cap. Investors who contribute after $50,000.0 has been raised in the offering will receive a 1.6x cap.

Your Right to Payments under the Note

Your right to payments under the Note is set forth in the Note, together with a separate document called the Revenue Sharing Agreement. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C. Additionally, general terms are outlined below and in the Company's offering page.

Obligation to Contribute Capital

Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company. However, under some circumstances you could be required by law to return some or all of a distribution you receive from the Company.

No Right to Transfer

You should plan to hold the Notes until maturity. The Notes will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell them) for at least four reasons:

- The Revenue Sharing Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company's consent.
- If you want to sell your Note the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes, as there would be for a publicly-traded stock.
- By law, for a period of one year you won't be allowed to transfer the Investor Shares except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an "accredited" investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iii) in a public offering of the Company's shares.

Security

The Notes are not secured by any assets of the Company or any assets of persons associated with the Company.

Modification of Terms of Notes

The terms of the Notes and the Revenue Sharing Agreement may be modified or amended with the consent of Investors holding 50% of the Notes, measured by the total amount outstanding under each Note.

Other Classes of Securities

Name of Security	Limited Liability Company Interests
Number of Shares Outstanding	N/A
Describe Voting Rights of These Securities, Including Any Limitations on Voting Rights	N/A
How these securities differ from the revenue sharing notes being offered to investors	Limited Liability Company Interests are an equity interest, whereas Revenue Sharing Notes are a debt obligation of the Company.

Dilution of Rights

The Company has the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities (e.g., other classes of promissory notes). Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the Notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

The People Who Control the Company

Each of these people owns 20% or more of the total voting power of the Company:

Name of Holder	% of Voting Power (Prior to Offering)
Jeffrey Chaney	50%
Jacob Mullikin	50%

How the Exercise of Voting Rights Could Affect You

You will receive payments with respect to your Note only if the Company makes enough money to pay you, or, if the Company does not make enough money to pay you, if there is enough value in the collateral the Company pledged as security for the Notes.

The people with voting rights control the Company and make all the decisions about running its business. If they make good business decisions, it is more likely you will be paid. If they make poor business decisions, it is less likely you will be paid. For example, if they hire too many people and/or try to expand too quickly, the business could be harmed. The people with voting rights could also decide to file for bankruptcy protection, making it more difficult for you to be paid.

How the Notes are Being Valued

The Notes are being valued at their face value. We don't anticipate that we'll ever need to place a value on the Notes in the future.

(N) The Funding Portal

The Company is offering its securities through MainVest, Inc., which is a "Funding Portal" licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA. MainVest Inc.'s Central Index Key (CIK) number is 0001746059, their SEC File number is 007-00162, and their Central Registration Depository (CRD) number is 298384.

(O) Compensation of the Funding Portal

MainVest will be paid 6.0% of the final offering amount, upon the successful completion of the offering. MainVest does not receive compensation if the offering does not succeed. MainVest, Inc. owns no interest in the Company, directly or indirectly, and will not acquire an interest as part of the Offering, nor is there any arrangement for MainVest to acquire an interest.

(P) Indebtedness of the Company

The Company has no indebtedness outside of the debt the Company is expecting to raise through regulation crowdfunding on MainVest.

(Q) Other Offerings of Securities within the Last Three Years

The Company has not made any offerings with other third-party regulation crowdfunding companies in the past three years.

(R) Transactions Between the Company and “Insiders”

The Company has not entered into any business transactions, including stock Purchases, salaries, property rentals, consulting arrangements, guaranties, or other agreements with any individual identified in Section 227.201 (r)(1)-(4) of Regulation Crowdfunding during the 12 months preceding this Offering.

(S) The Company’s Financial Condition

No other outstanding debt or equity

The capital raised through Mainvest will make up the entirety of the Brubaker's Café and Bakery LLC’s fundraising. However, Brubaker's Café and Bakery LLC may require additional funds from alternate sources at a later date.

(T) The Company’s Financial Statements

Please see Appendix B for historical financial statements.
