9901 Brodie Lane
Suite 160 #1388
Austin, Texas 78748
(737) 234-0198

SPV INTERESTS REPRESENTING
UP TO $1,000,000 WORTH OF SENIOR CONVERTIBLE PROMISSORY NOTES

Minimum Investment Amount: $100

Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, a Delaware public benefit corporation (“Heroic” “the company,” “we,” or “us”), is offering up to $1,000,000 worth of Senior Convertible Promissory Notes (“CF Notes”). The investment will be made through Heroic CF SPV, LLC, a special purpose investment vehicle exempt from registration under the Investment Company Act pursuant to Rule 270.3a-9 promulgated under that Act (the “Crowdfunding SPV”). The minimum target amount under this Regulation CF offering is $300,000 (the “Target Amount”). As of September 19, 2022, the company has already reached the Target Amount. The company may accept subscriptions until August 15, 2023 (the “Termination Date”).

In this offering, the terms “Heroic,” “we,” “our,” “us” and “the company” refer to Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation (and Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, which was merged into the company).

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In the event that we become a reporting company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), we intend to take advantage of the provisions that relate to “Emerging Growth Companies” under the JOBS Act of 2012, including electing to delay compliance with certain new and revised accounting standards under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

THE COMPANY AND ITS BUSINESS

Overview

Heroic was founded on November 13, 2020 to help create a world in which 51% of the world's population is flourishing by the year 2051. How? We're building a social training platform to help people move from theory to practice to mastery together so they can show up as the best, most heroic versions of themselves. Our products are currently offered via web-based and mobile platforms directly to our customers.

On September 30, 2021, the company merged with Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, a Delaware public benefit corporation ("Optimize"), with the company being the surviving entity. Our CEO and founder, Brian Johnson, was also the CEO and founder of Optimize. The Crowdfunding SPV, Heroic CF SPV, LLC was organized on April 21, 2022, and has no purpose other than to hold the securities to be issued by the company and pass through the rights related to those securities.

Investments in this offering will be made through Heroic CF SPV, LLC, a special purpose investment vehicle exempt from registration under the Investment Company Act.

Principal Products

The company currently offers monthly and annual direct-to-consumer membership products, along with a coach certification that is available for a one-time fee and completion of required curriculum. Currently, the company's products are delivered via two mobile apps, the Heroic app and the Optimize by Heroic app, although the company is in the final stages of integrating all products into a single Heroic platform as described below.

No individual customer represents a significant portion of revenue.

Heroic Social Training Platform

Heroic is a social training platform that empowers people to move from theory to practice to mastery together so they can show up more consistently as the best, most heroic versions of themselves. The MVP of this product, which focused primarily on training features, was released on iOS on April 9, 2022 and on Android two months later.

The company plans to introduce many new features in the future—including social community engagement features in 2023.

As of the date of this Offering Memorandum, the Heroic Premium membership subscription retails for $14.99/month and $99.99/year, with a Lifetime Membership option for $399. The actual monthly, annual, or lifetime membership may be higher or lower than the current price. The company has in the past conducted and intends in the future to conduct promotional pricing. Lifetime memberships were introduced in September, 2022 and may only be available for a limited time.

Heroic Coach

Heroic Coach is a 300-day certification program for helping people to become the best versions of themselves. The program includes a guided, cohort-completed curriculum of digital content (video lessons, worksheets, reflections, and practices) and access to live coaching calls for individualized support. As of the date of this Offering Memorandum, Heroic Coach retails for $1,000 (with payment-plan options available). This gives participants lifetime access to course content, and a year of access to live coaching sessions. Additionally, extended access to Live Coaching sessions may be purchased at $500 per year, or $1,000 for lifetime access. The company has in the past conducted and intends in the future to conduct promotional pricing.

Over 11,000 people from 111+ countries have joined Heroic Coach. The program is delivered via mobile apps, a web-based platform, and video-conferencing software.

Market

Heroic is a self-development product. Early-adopters of Heroic are likely to be represented in the self-improvement industry. According to a study published on MarketResearch.com in August, 2021 (The Market For Self-Improvement Products & Services), the self-improvement industry is valued at $10.4 billion, and forecasts 6.0% average annual growth to $14.0 billion by 2025.

Heroic's customers are interested in improving their health and wellbeing. The global health and wellness market, currently estimated at $3.294 billion by IMARC Group, is forecasted to grow to $4.277 billion by 2027.

Competition

The self-improvement industry is large and highly competitive. We compete with direct-to-consumer self-improvement app providers such as Udemy, BetterUp, MasterClass, Calm, and many smaller companies. Unlike Heroic, however, none of these companies offers such a comprehensive set of tools to help people move from theory to practice to mastery together—taking information learned (Theory), integrating it into daily behaviors (Practice), consistently over time to become the best version of themselves (Mastery). We intend to further differentiate our products via the social tools we intend to launch in 2023 (together).

Additionally, we compete with online coaching programs and coach certification programs. Unlike Heroic, however, none of these companies offers access to such extensive content and programming at such a low price-point.

Third-Party Service Providers

As a creator of digital products, our primary inputs are the intellectual and creative output of our internal team and partners. Our partners contribute to facets including product design and development, customer acquisition, financial reports, and infrastructure maintenance.

Notable partners have included MetaLab, the company with which we partnered to create the MVP of our Heroic social training platform. MetaLab played a role in designing and concepting for Slack, Tinder, and Uber Eats.

Employees

As of the date of this Offering Memorandum, we have 9 full-time employees. We adopted an equity incentive plan on September 8, 2021 (the "Plan"). 2,500,000 shares of the company's Series 1 Common Stock are currently eligible for issuance pursuant to the Plan. As of the date of this Offering Memorandum, there are stock options to purchase 1,359,755 shares of the Company's Series 1 Common Stock, in the aggregate, outstanding under the Plan.

We intend to engage contractors from time to time on an as-needed basis to consult with us on specific corporate affairs, or to perform specific tasks in connection with our business development activities.

Regulation

Heroic is subject to regulations that impact digital products and subscription payments. This environment has been stable in recent years. There are exceptions, however, including recent rule changes from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) adding new requirements for companies to charge subscription/recurring payments. Given Heroic's global customer base, future regulatory changes in this space could impact how we collect revenue from our customers.

Intellectual Property

The company holds the following trademarks:

Type	Mark	Serial Number	Publication Date
Word	Heroic Public Benefit Corporation	90463027	September 7, 2021
Design		90463033	September 7, 2021

The company has no other registered intellectual property.

Effective protection of our intellectual property may be unavailable or limited in some jurisdictions outside the United States. Litigation may be necessary in the future to enforce or protect our rights or to determine the validity and scope of the rights of others. Such litigation could cause us to incur substantial costs and divert resources away from daily business, which in turn could materially adversely affect the business.

Litigation

The company is not currently engaged in any litigation and is not aware of any pending litigation.

The Company's Property

The company's workforce is completely remote; the company does not currently lease any commercial space.

RISK FACTORS

The SEC requires the company to identify risks that are specific to its business and its financial condition. The company is still subject to all the same risks to which all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events, and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently more risky than more developed companies. You should consider general risks as well as specific risks when deciding whether to invest.

These are the risks that relate to the company:

Risks Related to the Company

The company is a development-stage company.

Heroic was formed in 2020 and on September 30, 2021, the company merged with Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, a Delaware public benefit corporation (“Optimize”), with the company being the surviving entity. Optimize made its first sales in 2017 and Heroic made its first sales in 2021. Accordingly, the company has a limited history upon which an evaluation of its performance and future prospects can be made. Heroic’s current and proposed operations are subject to all the business risks associated with new enterprises. These include likely fluctuations in operating results as the company reacts to developments in its market, including purchasing patterns of customers and the entry of competitors into the market. Heroic will only be able to pay dividends on any shares issuable on conversion of the CF Notes once Heroic’s Board of Directors determines that it is financially able to do so.

Our management has raised substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern and our independent registered public accounting firm has included an explanatory paragraph relating to our ability to continue as a going concern in its audit report.

We are currently dependent on additional fundraising to sustain our ongoing operations. As our flagship Heroic product only recently launched on April 9, 2022, and as we have been investing heavily in the research, design, and development for the product, we have a history of losses and have projected operating losses and negative cash flows for the next several months. As a result of our recurring losses from operations, negative cash flows from operating activities and the need to raise additional capital, there is substantial doubt of our ability to continue as a going concern. Therefore, our independent registered public accounting firm included a going concern note expressing substantial doubt about the company’s ability to continue as a going concern in its report on our audited financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020. Our financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”), which contemplate that we will continue to operate as a going concern. Our financial statements do not contain any adjustments that might result if we are unable to continue as a going concern. We cannot assure you that the company will be successful in raising funds in this offering or acquiring additional funding at levels sufficient to fund its future operations beyond its current cash runway. If the company is unable to raise additional capital in sufficient amounts or on terms acceptable to it, the company may have to significantly reduce its operations or delay, scale back or discontinue the development of one or more of its platforms, seek alternative financing arrangements, declare bankruptcy or terminate its operations entirely.

The company expects to experience future losses as it implements its business strategy and will need to generate significant revenues to achieve profitability, which may not occur.

We have incurred net losses since our inception, and we expect to continue to incur net losses in the future. To date, we have funded our operations from both revenues and the sale of equity and debt securities and other financing arrangements. We expect to continue to increase operating expenses as we implement our business strategy, which include development, sales and marketing, and general and administrative expenses and, as a result, we expect to incur additional losses and continued negative cash flow from operations for the foreseeable future. We will need to generate significant additional revenues to achieve profitability. We cannot assure you that we will ever generate sufficient revenues to achieve profitability. If we do achieve profitability in some future period, we cannot assure you that we can sustain profitability on a quarterly or annual basis in the future. In addition, we may not achieve profitability before we have expended the proceeds to be raised in this offering. If our revenues grow more slowly than we anticipate or if our operating expenses exceed our expectations or cannot be adjusted accordingly, our business, operating results and financial condition will be materially and adversely affected.

We cannot assure you that we will effectively manage our growth.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to grow the company's revenues and earnings. The growth of the company is contingent upon various factors, including market acceptance, competition, access to capital, ability to employ effective employees, and to otherwise attract and retain key personnel. To manage the anticipated future growth and carry out the company's plans for the development and commercialization of the company's products and services, the company will need to recruit and retain qualified management and personnel across a wide range of operational, sales and financial capabilities. Competition for executive and key personnel is intense. The company may not be able to effectively manage the expansion of its operations or recruit and train additional qualified personnel. The expansion of the company's operations geographically may lead to significant costs and may divert the company's management and business development resources. Any ability to manage the company's growth or complications involving management of the company's growth could delay execution of the company's business plan or disrupt the company's operations.

Any valuation at this stage is difficult to assess.

Unlike listed companies that are valued publicly through market-driven stock prices, the valuation of private companies, especially startups, is difficult to assess and you may risk overpaying for your investment. In addition, there may be additional classes of equity with rights that are superior to the class of equity that may be issued upon any conversion of the CF Notes.

We expect to raise additional capital through equity and/or debt offerings and to provide our employees with equity incentives. Any ownership interest you may have in the company will likely be diluted and could be subordinated.

Heroic is seeking to raise up to $1,000,000 in this offering. In order to fund future growth and development, the company will likely need to raise additional funds in the future by offering shares of its common stock, preferred stock and/or other classes of equity or debt that convert into shares of preferred or common stock, any of which offerings would dilute the ownership percentage that investors in this offering would hold if the CF Notes convert. Furthermore, if and when the company raises debt or issues preferred stock, the holders of the debt will have priority over holders of common and preferred stock, and holders of preferred stock will have priority over holders of common stock including, if the CF Notes convert to common stock, shares that may be issuable upon conversion of the CF Notes in this offering, and the company may accept terms that restrict its ability to incur more debt.

The company depends on its founder.

The company depends on the skill and experience of our founder, Brian Johnson. If the company is not able to call upon Mr. Johnson for any reason, its operations and development could be harmed.

Competitors may be able to call on more resources than the company.

Although the company believes that the Heroic platform is unique, it is not the only self-improvement product on the market, and the company has to compete with a number of other approaches. Additionally, competitors may replicate Heroic's business ideas and produce directly competing products. These competitors may be better capitalized than Heroic, which would give them a significant advantage.

The company may not be successful in marketing its products to its customers.

The company's operating results may fluctuate significantly from period to period as a result of a variety of factors. There is no assurance that the company will be successful in marketing any of its products, or that the revenues from the sale of such products will be significant. Consequently, the company's revenues may vary, and the company's operating results may experience fluctuations.

Our trademarks could be unenforceable or ineffective.

Intellectual property is a complex field of law in which few things are certain. If competitors are able to bypass our trademark and copyright protection without obtaining a sub license, it is likely that the company's value will be materially and adversely impacted. This could also impair the company's ability to compete in the marketplace. Moreover, if our trademarks and copyrights are deemed unenforceable, the company will almost certainly lose any potential revenue it might be able to raise by entering into sublicenses. This would cut off a significant potential revenue stream for the company.

The cost of enforcing our trademarks and copyrights could prevent us from enforcing them.

Trademark and copyright litigation has become extremely expensive. Even if we believe that a competitor is infringing on one or more of our trademarks or copyrights, we might choose not to file suit because we lack the cash to successfully prosecute a multi-year litigation with an uncertain outcome; or because we believe that the cost of enforcing our trademark(s) or copyright(s) outweighs the value of winning the suit in light of the risks and consequences of losing it; or for some other reason. Choosing not to enforce our trademark(s) or copyright(s) could have adverse consequences for the company, including undermining the credibility of our intellectual property, reducing our ability to enter into sublicenses, and weakening our attempts to prevent competitors from entering the market. As a result, if we are unable to enforce our trademark(s) or copyright(s) because of the cost of enforcement, your investment in the company could be significantly and adversely affected.

The company is vulnerable to hackers and cyber-attacks.

Although we are following industry best-practices on data privacy and infrastructure redundancy, any internet-based business may be vulnerable to hackers who may access the data of our customers. Further, any significant disruption in service to our products and services or in software systems could reduce the attractiveness of the platform and result in a loss of customers willing to use our products and services. Further, we rely on third-party technology providers (like Amazon Web Services) to provide some of our back-end technology. Any disruptions of services or cyber-attacks either on our technology provider or on the company could harm our reputation and materially negatively impact our financial condition and business.

Our results of operations may be negatively impacted by the coronavirus outbreak.

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus, or COVID-19, was reported to have surfaced in Wuhan, China. COVID-19 has spread to many countries, including the United States, and was declared to be a pandemic by the World Health Organization. The impacts of the outbreak are unknown and continually evolving. A widespread health crisis has adversely affected and could continue to affect the global economy, resulting in an economic downturn that could negatively impact the value of the SPV interests and Investor demand for the SPV interests generally.

The continued spread of COVID-19 has also led to severe disruption and volatility in the global capital markets, which could increase our cost of capital and adversely affect our ability to access the capital markets in the future. It is possible that the continued spread of COVID-19 could cause a further economic slowdown or recession or cause other unpredictable events, each of which could adversely affect our business, results of operations or financial condition.

The direct impacts we have experienced from COVID-19 include increased wages for employees, which have increased our operating costs, increased advertising spend due to an increase in average cost per acquisition of new members with more people moving into our space, and increased competition in the digital product space as workforces navigate the new reality and lifestyles shift.

The extent to which COVID-19 affects our financial results will depend on future developments, which are uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of the COVID-19 outbreak and the actions to contain the outbreak or treat its impact, among others. Moreover, the COVID-19 outbreak has had and may continue to have indeterminable adverse effects on general commercial activity and the world economy, and our business and results of operations could be adversely affected to the extent that COVID-19 or any other pandemic harms the global economy generally.

Actual or threatened epidemics, pandemics, outbreaks, or other public health crises may adversely affect our business.

Our business could be materially and adversely affected by the risks, or the public perception of the risks, related to an epidemic, pandemic, outbreak, or other public health crisis, such as the recent outbreak of novel coronavirus, or COVID-19. The risk, or public perception of the risk, of a pandemic or media coverage of infectious diseases could adversely affect the value of the SPV interests and our Investors or prospective Investors financial condition, resulting in reduced demand for the SPV interests generally. Further, such risks could cause a limited attendance at membership experience events that we might sponsor or in which we might participate, or result in persons avoiding holding or appearing at in-person events. “Shelter-in-place” or other such orders by governmental entities could also disrupt our operations.

Risks Related to an Investment in Our Securities

There is no current market for the company’s securities.

There is no formal marketplace for the resale of the company’s securities. Our securities are illiquid and there will not be an official current price for them, as there would be if the company were a publicly-traded company with a listing on a stock exchange. Investors should assume that they may not be able to liquidate their investment for some time.

We have received a voluntary document request from the SEC staff in connection with an ongoing investigation.

In April 2022, Heroic received a voluntary document request from the SEC staff in connection with an ongoing investigation relating to the company's past fundraising efforts and investor communications. The company is cooperating with the ongoing investigation and related inquiries.

Your ability to transfer your securities may be limited.

The Note Purchase Agreement that the Crowdfunding SPV will enter into with the company (the "Note Purchase Agreement") contains a "market stand-off" provision applicable to shares of the company's capital stock into which the CF Notes may convert in the event of an initial public offering, which may limit or delay an investor's ability to transfer such shares, in the event of liquidation of or a distribution of such shares from the Crowdfunding SPV for a period of time surrounding such an offering. Likewise, the subscription agreement that investors will enter into contains an identical "market stand-off" provision limiting your ability to transfer any shares of the company's capital stock as a result of a liquidation of the Crowdfunding SPV. See "Securities Being Offered and Rights of the Securities of the Company" for further information.

Additionally, the company's Amended and Restated Bylaws contain a "right of first refusal" provision that would limit your ability to transfer any shares of the company's capital stock. A right of first refusal provision requires that a stockholder provide notice to the company of their intention to sell their securities and the price and terms of such sale. The company would be entitled to purchase such securities on the same terms as identified in the notice. The company's Amended and Restated Bylaws also restrict any sale, assignment, pledge or other transfer of the shares of its capital stock without the prior written consent of the company, including a prohibition on transferring any securities of the company to a competitor, except in certain circumstances. This provision will be enforceable against the Crowdfunding SPV initially and against an investor in this offering upon dissolution and liquidation of the Crowdfunding SPV.

The company is controlled by its founder; Investors will have limited ability to impact or otherwise influence corporate decisions of the company.

The company's founder, Brian Johnson, currently holds approximately 95% of the company's voting stock, either individually or jointly with his wife, and at the conclusion of this offering will continue to hold a majority of the company's voting power. Investors in this offering have no voting rights in the company through the SPV interests of the Crowdfunding SPV that holds the CF Notes and, even if the Crowdfunding SPV converts the CF Notes to common stock and distributes such shares of common stock to the investors in this offering, it will not have the ability to control a vote by the stockholders or the board of directors. Moreover, the note purchase agreement that the Crowdfunding Issuer will execute in connection with this offering grants an irrevocable proxy to the company's CEO to vote any shares of Common Stock and any other securities of the company that the Crowdfunding SPV may acquire on all matters put to a vote of the stockholders. Furthermore, to the extent investors ever hold shares, their transferees must agree to be bound by the terms of the proxy. For more information, see "Securities Being Offered and Rights of Securities of the Company – Convertible Notes -- Proxy."

The company may apply the proceeds of this offering to uses that differ from what is currently contemplated and with which you may disagree.

We will have broad discretion as to how to spend the proceeds from this offering and may spend these proceeds in ways in which you may not agree. We currently intend to use the proceeds of this offering to fund product development and engineering, customer experience and support and selling, general and administrative expenses. While we expect to use the proceeds of this offering as described in this Offering

Memorandum, we may use our remaining cash for other purposes. We cannot assure that any investment of the proceeds will yield a favorable return, or any return at all.

You will not be investing directly into the Company, but into a special purpose vehicle.

Changes to the securities laws that went into effect March 15, 2021, permit us to use a “special purpose vehicle” or “Crowdfunding SPV” in this offering. That means that you will invest in Heroic CF SPV, LLC, and become a member of the Crowdfunding SPV, and that investment will fund the purchases of the CF Notes by the Crowdfunding SPV. A condition to using an SPV is that the SPV passes on the same economic and governance rights that are set out in the CF Notes. It may not always be possible to replicate those rights exactly, however, because the Crowdfunding SPV is an LLC formed under Delaware law, as opposed to a Delaware corporation. Before March 15, 2021, this sort of arrangement had not been used for investing, and has not been used often since the change in the securities laws, and there may be unforeseen risks and complications. You will also be relying on us, as the Manager of the Crowdfunding SPV, to make sure the Crowdfunding SPV complies with Delaware law and functions in accordance with securities law. The structure of the Crowdfunding SPV is explained further in “Securities Being Offered.” The Crowdfunding SPV will terminate and distribute the securities it holds to you, so that you may hold them directly, in certain circumstances. Again, this has not been done before that date, so there may be delays, complications and unexpected risks in that process.

We are not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and lack the financial controls and safeguards required of public companies.

We do not have the internal infrastructure necessary, and are not required, to complete an attestation about our financial controls that would be required under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. There can be no assurance that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of our financial controls. We expect to incur additional expenses and diversion of management’s time if and when it becomes necessary to perform the system and process evaluation, testing and remediation required in order to comply with the management certification and auditor attestation requirements.

The subscription agreement has a forum selection provision that requires disputes be resolved in state or federal courts in the State of Delaware, regardless of convenience or cost to you, the investor.

In order to invest in this offering, investors agree to resolve disputes arising under the subscription agreement in state or federal courts located in the State of Delaware, for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the agreement. Section 22 of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) creates concurrent jurisdiction for federal and state courts over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. We believe that the exclusive forum provision applies to claims arising under the Securities Act, but there is uncertainty as to whether a court would enforce such a provision in this context. Section 27 of the Exchange Act creates exclusive federal jurisdiction over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. As a result, the exclusive forum provision will not apply to suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Exchange Act or any other claim for which the federal courts have exclusive jurisdiction. You will not be deemed to have waived the company’s compliance with the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations thereunder. This forum selection provision may limit your ability to obtain a favorable judicial forum for disputes with us. Although we believe the provision benefits us by providing increased consistency in the application of Delaware law in the types of lawsuits to which it applies and in limiting our litigation costs, to the extent it is enforceable, the forum selection provision may limit investors’ ability to bring claims in judicial forums that they find favorable to such disputes, may increase investors’ costs of bringing suit and may discourage lawsuits with respect to such claims. Alternatively, if a court were to find the provision inapplicable to, or unenforceable in an action, we may incur additional costs associated with resolving such matters in other jurisdictions, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Investors in this offering may not be entitled to a jury trial with respect to claims arising under the Subscription Agreement, which could result in less favorable outcomes to the plaintiff(s) in any action under the agreement.

Investors in this offering will be bound by the subscription agreement, which includes a provision under which investors waive the right to a jury trial of any claim they may have against the company arising out of or relating to the agreement, including any claims made under the federal securities laws. By signing the agreement, the investor warrants that the investor has reviewed this waiver with his or her legal counsel, and knowingly and voluntarily waives the investor's jury trial rights following consultation with the investor's legal counsel.

If we opposed a jury trial demand based on the waiver, a court would determine whether the waiver was enforceable based on the facts and circumstances of that case in accordance with the applicable state and federal law. To our knowledge, the enforceability of a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver in connection with claims arising under the federal securities laws has not been finally adjudicated by a federal court. However, we believe that a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver provision is generally enforceable, including under the laws of the State of Delaware, which governs the agreement, by a federal or state court in the State of Delaware. In determining whether to enforce a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver provision, courts will generally consider whether the visibility of the jury trial waiver provision within the agreement is sufficiently prominent such that a party knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily waived the right to a jury trial. We believe that this is the case with respect to the Subscription Agreement. You should consult legal counsel regarding the jury waiver provision before entering into the subscription agreement.

If you bring a claim against the company in connection with matters arising under the subscription agreement, including claims under the federal securities laws, you may not be entitled to a jury trial with respect to those claims, which may have the effect of limiting and discouraging lawsuits against the company. If a lawsuit is brought against the company under the agreement, it may be heard only by a judge or justice of the applicable trial court, which would be conducted according to different civil procedures and may result in different outcomes than a trial by jury would have had, including results that could be less favorable to the plaintiff(s) in such an action.

Nevertheless, if the jury trial waiver provision is not permitted by applicable law, an action could proceed under the terms of the agreement with a jury trial. No condition, stipulation or provision of the subscription agreement serves as a waiver by any holder of the company's securities or by the company of compliance with any substantive provision of the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations promulgated under those laws.

Using a credit card to purchase the SPV interests may impact the return on your investment as well as subject you to other risks inherent in this form of payment.

Investors in this offering have the option of paying for their investment with a credit card, which is not usual in the traditional investment markets. Transaction fees charged by your credit card company (which can reach 5% of transaction value if considered a cash advance) and interest charged on unpaid card balances (which can reach almost 25% in some states) add to the effective purchase price of the shares you buy. The cost of using a credit card may also increase if you do not make the minimum monthly card payments and incur late fees. Using a credit card is a relatively new form of payment for securities and will subject you to other risks inherent in this form of payment, including that, if you fail to make credit card payments (e.g., minimum monthly payments), you risk damaging your credit score and payment by credit card may be more susceptible to abuse than other forms of payment. Moreover, where a third-party payment processor is used, as in this offering, your recovery options in the case of disputes may be limited. The increased costs due to transaction fees and interest may reduce the return on your investment.

The SEC's Office of Investor Education and Advocacy issued an Investor Alert dated February 14, 2018 entitled: Credit Cards and Investments – A Risky Combination, which explains these and other risks you may want to consider before using a credit card to pay for your investment.

The custodial arrangement employed in the company's earlier crowdfunding offering may raise issues for the company. No regulator has given their approval of the form of the arrangement with the custodian.

In 2021, the company conducted an offering of shares of its Series Seed Preferred Stock on the portal operated by Wefunder Portal LLC ("Wefunder") under Regulation Crowdfunding. In order to invest in that offering, investors agreed to become a party to a subscription agreement with the company, and a Custodian and Voting Agreement with XX Investments, LLC (the "Custodian and Voting Agreement"), under which XX Investments, LLC (the "Custodian") holds title to the shares of Series Seed Preferred Stock for the benefit of the investor. The company chose to participate in the program offered by Wefunder as a means of simplifying communications with investors and to help facilitate future liquidity. As part of the Custodian and Voting Agreement, investors granted the Custodian the right to vote their shares purchased in the crowdfunding offering. The Custodian will vote the shares as directed by a "Lead Investor" appointed by the company who is supposed to represent the interests of investors. The company relied on representations by Wefunder regarding the legality of the arrangement with the Custodian. If the arrangement with the Custodian is challenged by the Commission staff, the company may incur costs to unwind the arrangement by either transferring title to the securities from the Custodian to investors, or by engaging a different custodian.

FINANCIAL DISCUSSION

Financial statements

Our financial statements can be found in Exhibit B to the Form C of which this Offering Memorandum forms a part. The financial statements were audited by Fruci & Associates. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements and the related notes included in this Offering Memorandum.

Overview

Heroic was founded on November 13, 2020 to help create a world in which 51% of the world's population is flourishing by the year 2051. How? We're building a social training platform to help people move from theory to practice to mastery together so they can show up as the best, most heroic versions of themselves. Our products are offered via the web-based and mobile platforms directly to our customers. The company's business model is to sell monthly and annual recurring subscriptions (memberships) to the Heroic social training platform and access fees to its Heroic Coach program.

On September 30, 2021, the company merged with Optimize, with the company being the surviving entity. While Optimize was acquired in September 2021, as it was under common control, the merger was recognized retroactively in our financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2021 as if it occurred on December 31, 2019, including with regards to presentation of the beginning equity and share balances reflective on an as-converted basis as if the merger had occurred at the beginning of the periods presented in the financial statements.

The Crowdfunding SPV, Heroic CF SPV, LLC was recently organized and has no purpose other than to hold the securities to be issued by the company and pass through the rights related to those securities.

Results of Operations

Factors Affecting Operating Results

We currently generate revenue from monthly and annual memberships to the Heroic social training platform, as well as access fees to the Heroic Coach program. The company has in the past offered and intends in the future to also offer Lifetime memberships to both the Heroic social training platform to the Heroic Coach program. Before July 2022, the company only offered annual memberships.

The company collects revenues in advance and, in the case of annual and lifetime memberships, initially records them as deferred revenues. Annual memberships are recognized monthly over the membership period on a straight-line basis, while lifetime memberships are recognized over a two-year period as the company estimates that a customer receives the most benefit from the membership during their first two years.

The company has determined that its performance obligations in relation to Heroic Coach are satisfied through the passage of time of the underlying plan period, which are annually or lifetime. As the lifetime plan is only available after 1 year's participation in the program, the company assessed that the customer will likely attend class up to another one year.

During the periods presented, the company also received revenue for monthly and annual memberships to Optimize by Heroic. This product was made free, as a "freemium" model product-led growth strategy, on October 8, 2021. The Heroic social training platform launched on April 9, 2022; we expect to recognize revenue for this product in future periods.

Net revenues are affected by discounts and promotions.

Operating expenses largely consist of product development and engineering, legal and professional fees, advertising expenses, salaries and wages, and marketing expenses.

- Our product development and engineering expenses consist primarily of costs incurred to MetaLab Design Ltd. (which supported the research, prototyping, design, development, and testing of our Heroic social training platform) and costs incurred in the development, maintenance, and enhancement of our backend infrastructure, website, and mobile apps to deliver our Heroic social training platform, Optimize by Heroic, and Heroic Coach products.
- Our legal and professional fees consist primarily of costs incurred in conjunction with the merger of Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation with the company, with ongoing compliance related to prior securities offerings, with ongoing securities offerings, and with the procurement of intellectual property agreements.
- Advertising expenses consist of costs incurred to publish ads across a range of online platforms, including Google Ads, the Apple App Store, Google Play Store, Facebook, Instagram, and podcast sponsorship.
- Salaries and wages consist of payroll and related expenses for employees involved in marketing, data, experience design, customer service, financial planning & analysis, and human resources.
- Marketing expenses consist primarily of costs incurred to Thrive Digital, First Spark Digital, Super Connector Media, LLC, and Dominate Web Media to support acquiring new customers, increasing lifetime value of existing customers, and building our brand awareness through various offline and online channels, including television, newspapers, digital and social media, podcasts, email, influencer marketing and strategic brand partnerships.

Year ended December 31, 2021 Compared to Year ended December 31, 2020

Net Revenues

Net revenues increased by $178,968 from $2,066,407 for the year ended December 31, 2020 ("Fiscal 2020") to $2,245,375 for the year ended December 31, 2021 ("Fiscal 2021"), or by 8.7%. Heroic Coach program revenues increased $392,560 from Fiscal 2020 to Fiscal 2021, offset by a decrease in Optimize membership revenues of $213,591 over the same periods. The increase in net revenues was due primarily to an increase in the number of Heroic Coach customers the company had in Fiscal 2021 when compared to Fiscal 2020, as well as providing Heroic Coach customers with free Optimize memberships during the tenure of their Coach access. During Fiscal 2020, revenues were roughly evenly split between coaching services and membership subscriptions, approximately 53.9% and 46.1%. During Fiscal 2021, the revenue mix was split approximately 67% and 33%.

Since the Optimize membership was made free on October 8, 2021, and, subsequent to December 31, 2022, we launched the Heroic social training platform on April 9, 2022, we anticipate that the revenue split will no longer include revenue from Optimize memberships. Going forward, it will be split between Heroic social training platform memberships and Heroic Coach access fees. We anticipate that Heroic social training platform memberships will be the primary driver of our revenues in 2022 and beyond.

Operating Expenses

Product development and engineering expenses increased from $298,927 during Fiscal 2020 to $3,674,914 during Fiscal 2021, an increase of 1,229.37%. The increase in product development and engineering expenses were attributable to investment in two major projects: 1) research, design, and development of the Heroic app with MetaLab Design Ltd., and 2) a complete backend and frontend rebuild of the Optimize platform with Paravel Inc. and Happy Cog (Vector Media Group, Inc.).

Legal and professional fees were $631,496 and $1,153,992, respectively, in Fiscal 2020 and Fiscal 2021, an increase of 82.7%. This increase was primarily attributable to activities supporting the offering of securities for its Seed Round of financing and the merger of Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation.

Advertising costs increased $416,715 from $505,657 during Fiscal 2020 to $922,372 during Fiscal 2021, or 82.4% as the company invested heavily in customer acquisition and retention via paid online channels.

Salaries and wages increased from $321,425 in Fiscal 2020 to $641,192 in Fiscal 2021, an increase of 99.5% as the company increased headcount and increased salaries and wages for its employees.

Costs for marketing professional services were $429,082 and $604,091, during Fiscal 2020 and Fiscal 2021, respectively, an increase of 40.8%. This expense increased as a result of investing in backend data systems to inform marketing activities, and an increase in marketing activities to drive customer acquisition and retention.

Other Income/Expense

During Fiscal 2021, the company incurred $238,700 in interest expense as a result of the conversion of principal and interest on its then outstanding convertible notes into shares of Series Seed Preferred Stock, as well as $5,463 in interest on those notes. See “Indebtedness” below.

Net Loss

As a result of the foregoing, we incurred a net loss of $5,744,503 in Fiscal 2021, compared to a net loss of $672,825 in Fiscal 2020.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2021, the company had $3,366,903 in cash and cash equivalents on hand. Deferred revenues at that date were $903,782. The company’s operations have been financed to date through a combination of revenues generated by the sale of our products, the issuance of equity securities and convertible notes, a note issued by its founder and a PPP loan. We believe that the proceeds from this offering and a concurrent private placement of convertibles notes, together with our cash and cash equivalent balances will be adequate to meet our liquidity and capital expenditure requirements for the next 12 months. If these sources are not sufficient to meet our cash requirements, we will need to seek additional capital, potentially through private placements of equity or debt, to fund our plan of operations.

Indebtedness

In April 2020, the company entered into a loan with a lender in an aggregate principal amount of $10,000 pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”) under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The PPP loan is evidenced by a promissory note (“Note”). Subject to the terms of the Note, the PPP loan bears interest at a fixed rate of one percent (1%) per annum, with the first six months of interest deferred, has an initial term of two years, and is unsecured and guaranteed by the Small Business Administration. In December 2020, the loan was forgiven, and the amount was recognized as other income.

During 2020, the company entered into several convertible note agreements for a total of $950,000 principal. Under the terms of the notes, the company was to pay 4% interest per annum and the notes were to mature in December 2022. The notes were subject to various conversion terms, including where the notes were automatically convertible to the company's stock at a 20% discount to the pricing in the triggering round if and upon the company closing a qualified equity financing of $1,250,000 or greater. On January 24, 2021, upon the issuance of Series Seed Preferred Stock in excess of $1,250,000, the then outstanding principal of $950,000 and accrued interest of $3,697 on the notes were converted into 754,328 shares of Series Seed Preferred Stock at a conversion rate of $1.26428 per share. The company incurred interest expense of $2,485 on notes and recognized $238,700 of interest expense on beneficial conversion feature against its additional paid-in capital during the year ended December 31, 2021.

On the date of incorporation of Heroic, November 13, 2020, the company entered into a contribution agreement with Brian Johnson, its founder and CEO, pursuant to which Mr. Johnson contributed certain assets to the company and the company assumed certain liabilities in exchange for 500,000 shares of the company's common stock. The company also entered into an unsecured note agreement with Mr. Johnson with a principal amount of $21,999, bearing interest at 0.13% per annum. The note was to mature on November 13, 2021. The note payable was consideration for the purchase of the company's website domain. The company paid the full amount in January 2021.

On November 30, 2021, the company was authorized by its Board of Directors to issue up to $10,000,000 in original principal amount of convertible notes in a private placement under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D (the "2021 Private Placement"). The company raised $4,209,375.17 in the 2021 Private Placement, which was closed on September 15, 2022.

In September 2022, the company was authorized by its Board of Directors to issue up to $1,000,000 in original principal amount of senior convertible notes in a private placement under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D (the "2022 Private Placement"). As of September 16, 2022, the company hadn't raised any proceeds in the 2022 Private Placement. The 2022 Private Placement will be concurrent with this offering.

Equity Issuances

During 2021, the company raised gross proceeds of $9,999,929 through the issuance of 6,327,667 shares of Series Seed Preferred Stock at a price per share of $1.58035 under concurrent offerings under Regulation Crowdfunding and Regulation D.

Trends

Optimize Enterprises Public Benefit Corporation had periods of profitability during the years before it merged with the company; the financial statements for those periods are not included in this Offering Memorandum. Since the merger, marketing has, at times, been successful in acquiring new customers and the price point for the Coach program was decreased. Discounting our prices on the Optimize platform (and even offering significant portions of the product for free) to attract customers to the new product launch for Heroic, in addition to investment in marketing and product development has decreased profitability such that the company has incurred losses in Fiscal 2020 and Fiscal 2021.

Going forward, the Company's growth and profitability will depend upon our ability to invest in customer acquisition marketing, developing the Heroic app such that it delights our community, and offering our services at an attractive price point. We may elect to spend an increased proportion of our revenues on these activities as compared to prior years to increase our growth trajectory while decreasing profitability.

Since 2021, our marketing spend has increased significantly. We will continue to spend in this area as we aim to acquire more customers. Our ability to acquire new customers at varying price points and at a velocity that contributes positively to our growth will determine the extent to which we continue to invest in this area.

Similarly, product development and engineering costs will continue to remain a large portion of spend throughout 2022 and 2023. Our employee headcount overall will continue to increase throughout 2022 and 2023 as we grow our team.

We recently launched the Heroic platform on April 9, 2022, and continue to invest in team growth, partnerships and customer acquisition, customer research, and product development and engineering as we continue development—including the launch of Heroic social in 2023. As such, we believe our growth and profit margins may improve in the post-launch phase of Heroic social.

Conversion at Next Equity Financing

Upon the closing of the Next Equity Financing (as defined herein), the CF Notes will convert into the class of securities sold in the Next Equity Financing. The number of shares of Equity Securities that the CF Notes will convert into will be determined by dividing the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest under each CF Note as of the date of conversion by the lower of: (a) the amount equal to (i) 80% multiplied by (ii) the lowest per share purchase price of the Equity Securities sold in the Next Equity Financing; or (b) the amount equal to (x) $50,000,000 divided by (y) the fully diluted capitalization immediately prior to the closing of the Next Equity Financing. "Next Equity Financing" means the next sale (or series of related sales) by the company of Equity Securities (as defined herein), in one or more offerings with the principal purpose of raising capital, from which the company receives gross proceeds of not less than $10,000,000 (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the aggregate principal amount of the CF Notes). "Equity Securities" means (a) common stock of the company, (b) any securities conferring the right to purchase common stock of the company; or (c) any securities directly or indirectly convertible into, or exchangeable for (with or without additional consideration) common stock of the company. "Equity Securities" does not include (i) any security granted, issued or sold by the company to any director, officer, employee, consultant or adviser of the company for the primary purpose of soliciting or retaining their services, (ii) any convertible promissory notes (including the CF Notes, 2021 Notes, and 2022 Notes) issued by the company, and (iii) any SAFEs issued by the company.

Conversion or Payment Upon Corporate Transaction

In the event of a Corporate Transaction (as defined herein) prior to the conversion of a CF Note or repayment of such CF Note, the holder of such CF Note may elect that either: (a) the company will pay the holder of such CF Note the outstanding principal balance and all accrued and unpaid interest of such CF Note; or (b) such CF Note will convert into that number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock obtained by dividing (i) the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest of such CF Note on the date of conversion by (ii) the amount equal to (x) $50,000,000 divided by (y) the fully diluted capitalization immediately prior to such conversion. "Corporate Transaction" means, with certain exceptions, (a) a sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the company's assets, (b) a merger or consolidation of the company with or into another entity, or (c) a transfer (whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise) of 50% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the company or the surviving or acquiring entity.

Conversion Upon Maturity

At any time on or after the maturity date, at the election of the holders of a majority-in-interest of the aggregate principal amount of the CF Notes, each CF Note will convert into that number of Series 1 Common Stock obtained by dividing (a) the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest of such CF Note on the date of such conversion by (b) the quotient resulting from dividing (x) $50,000,000 by (y) the fully diluted capitalization immediately prior to such conversion.

Prepayment

The principal and accrued interest may not be prepaid unless approved in writing by the holders of a majority-in-interest of the aggregate principal amount of the CF Notes, except in the event of a Corporate Transaction to the extent that a holder of a CF Note elects to have such CF Note prepaid.

Restrictions on Transfer

The Note Purchase Agreement and subscription agreement contain “market stand-off” provisions in the event of a proposed public offering. During the period, not to exceed 180 days, commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the initial public offering (“IPO”) of the company and ending on the date specified by the company and the managing underwriter of the IPO, investors agree not to transfer any shares of Common Stock, or securities convertible or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter. The market stand-off will not apply if the investor sells any shares in an underwritten offering. The provision will only apply to the IPO and only if all the officers and directors are subject to the same restrictions and the company uses reasonable efforts to obtain a similar agreement from all stockholders that individually own more than 5% of the company’s outstanding Common Stock. Investors agree to execute any agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters of the IPO to effect the market stand-off. The Crowdfunding SPV agrees in the Note Purchase Agreement, and investors agree in the subscription agreement, not to dispose of any of the company’s securities to the company’s competitors, as determined in good faith by the company.

Additionally, the company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws contain a right of first refusal provision which requires any shareholder to provide the company with written notice of its intention to sell or transfer their shares of stock. Such notice shall name the proposed transferee, state the number of shares to be transferred, provide the proposed consideration and describe any other terms and conditions of the proposed transfer. The company shall have 30 days upon receipt of the notice to exercise its option to purchase all or a portion of the share described in the notice at the price and upon the same terms described therein. The company may assign its rights of first refusal. The company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws also restrict any sale, assignment, pledge or other transfer of the shares of its capital stock without the prior consent of the company, including a prohibition on transferring any securities of the company to a competitor, except in certain circumstances.

Proxy

The note purchase agreement that the Crowdfunding SPV will execute in connection with this offering grants an irrevocable proxy to the company’s CEO to (i) vote all securities held of record by the Crowdfunding SPV (including any shares of the company’s capital stock that the Crowdfunding SPV may acquire in the future), (ii) give and receive notices and communications, (iii) execute any written consent, instrument or document that the CEO determines is necessary or appropriate at the CEO’s complete discretion, and (iv) take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the CEO for the accomplishment of the foregoing. The proxy will survive the death, incompetency and disability of an individual holder and, if a holder, like the Crowdfunding SPV, is an entity, will survive the merger or reorganization of the holder or any other entity holding the shares of Common Stock. The proxy will also be binding upon the heirs, estate, executors, personal representatives, successors and assigns of a holder (including any transferee of the holder). Any transferee of a holder must agree to be bound by the terms of the proxy. The proxy will terminate upon the closing of a firm-commitment underwritten public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering the offer and sale of Common Stock or the effectiveness of a registration statement under the Exchange Act covering the Common Stock.

Conversion at Next Equity Financing

Upon the closing of the Next Equity Financing (as defined herein), the 2021 Notes will convert into the class of securities sold in the Next Equity Financing. The 2022 Notes are pari passu with the CF Notes. The indebtedness evidenced by the 2022 Notes is a general, unsecured obligation.

Conversion at Next Equity Financing

Upon the closing of the Next Equity Financing (as defined herein), the 2022 Notes will convert into the class of securities sold in the Next Equity Financing. The number of shares of Equity Securities (as defined herein) that the 2022 Notes will convert into will be determined by dividing the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest under each 2022 Note as of the date of conversion by the lower of: (a) the amount equal to (i) 80% multiplied by (ii) the lowest per share purchase price of the Equity Securities sold in the Next Equity Financing; or (b) the amount equal to (x) $50,000,000 divided by (y) the fully diluted capitalization immediately prior to the closing of the Next Equity Financing.

Prepayment

The principal and accrued interest may not be prepaid unless approved in writing by the holders of a majority-in-interest of the aggregate principal amount of the 2022 Notes, except in the event of a Corporate Transaction to the extent that a holder of a 2022 Note elects to have such 2022 Note prepaid.

What it Means to be a Minority Holder

As an investor in the CF Notes of the company, if such notes convert into equity securities of the company, you will not have any rights in regard to the corporate actions of the company, including additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the company or its significant assets, or company transactions with related parties.

Transferability of securities

For a year, the securities can only be resold:

- In an IPO or other public offering registered with the SEC;
- To the company;
- To an accredited investor; and
- To a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

Transfer Agent

The company has not engaged a transfer agent as it intends to maintain current records of investors through the recordkeeping by its Crowdfunding SPV.

DILUTION

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. If the CF Notes convert into equity securities of the company, an investor's stake in a company could be diluted due to the company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the company issues more shares, the percentage of the company that you own will go down, even though the value of the company may go up. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round, angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g., convertible bonds, preferred shares or warrants) into stock.

If the company decides to issue more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (though this typically occurs only if the company offers dividends, and most early-stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, preferring to invest any earnings into the company).

The type of dilution that hurts early-stage investors most occurs when the company sells more shares in a "down round," meaning at a lower valuation than in earlier offerings. An example of how this might occur is as follows (numbers are for illustrative purposes only):

- In June 2020 Jane invests $20,000 for shares that represent 2% of a company valued at $1 million.
- In December the company is doing very well and sells $5 million in shares to venture capitalists on a valuation (before the new investment) of $10 million. Jane now owns only 1.3% of the company but her stake is worth $200,000.
- In June 2021 the company has run into serious problems and in order to stay afloat it raises $1 million at a valuation of only $2 million (the "down round"). Jane now owns only 0.89% of the company and her stake is worth only $26,660.

This type of dilution might also happen upon conversion of convertible notes into shares. Typically, the terms of convertible notes issued by early-stage companies provide that in the event of another round of financing, the holders of the convertible notes get to convert their notes into equity at a "discount" to the price paid by the new investors, i.e., they get more shares than the new investors would for the same price. Additionally, convertible notes may have a "price cap" on the conversion price, which effectively acts as a share price ceiling. Either way, the holders of the convertible notes get more shares for their money than new investors. In the event that the financing is a "down round" the holders of the convertible notes will dilute existing equity holders, and even more than the new investors do, because they get more shares for their money. Investors should pay careful attention to the aggregate total amount of convertible notes that the company has issued (and may issue in the future, and the terms of those notes).

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it's important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share.

Valuation

As discussed above, the valuation of the company will determine the amount by which the investor's stake is diluted in the future. An early-stage company typically sells its shares (or grants options to purchase its shares) to its founders and early employees at a very low cash cost, because they are, in effect, putting their "sweat equity" into the company. When the company seeks cash investments from outside investors, like you, the new investors typically pay a much larger sum for their shares than the founders or earlier investors, which means that the cash value of your stake is immediately diluted because each share of the same type is worth the same amount, and you paid more for your shares than earlier investors did for theirs.

There are several ways to value a company, and none of them is perfect and all of them involve a certain amount of guesswork. The same method can produce a different valuation if used by a different person.

Liquidation Value — The amount for which the assets of the company can be sold, minus the liabilities owed, e.g., the assets of a bakery include the cake mixers, ingredients, baking tins, etc. The liabilities of a bakery include the cost of rent or mortgage on the bakery. However, this value does not reflect the potential value of a business, e.g., the value of the secret recipe. The value for most startups lies in their potential, as many early-stage companies do not have many assets (they probably need to raise funds through a securities offering in order to purchase some equipment).

Book Value — This is based on analysis of the company's financial statements, usually looking at the company's balance sheet as prepared by its accountants. However, the balance sheet only looks at costs (i.e., what was paid for the asset), and does not consider whether the asset has increased in value over time. In addition, some intangible assets, such as patents, trademarks or trade names, are very valuable but are not usually represented at their market value on the balance sheet.

Earnings Approach — This is based on what the investor will pay (the present value) for what the investor expects to obtain in the future (the future return), taking into account inflation, the lost opportunity to participate in other investments, the risk of not receiving the return. However, predictions of the future are uncertain and valuation of future returns is a best guess.

Different methods of valuation produce a different answer as to what your investment is worth. Typically, liquidation value and book value will produce a lower valuation than the earnings approach. However, the earnings approach is also most likely to be risky as it is based on many assumptions about the future, while the liquidation value and book value are much more conservative.

Future investors (including people seeking to acquire the company) may value the company differently. They may use a different valuation method, or different assumptions about the company's business and its market. Different valuations may mean that the value assigned to your investment changes. It frequently happens that when a large institutional investor such as a venture capitalist makes an investment in a company, it values the company at a lower price than the initial investors did. If this happens, the value of the investment will go down.

Material Changes: Material changes to an offering include but are not limited to:

A change in minimum offering amount, change in security price, change in management, etc. If an issuing company makes a material change to the offering terms or other information disclosed, including a change to the offering deadline, investors will be given five business days to reconfirm their investment commitment. If investors do not reconfirm, their investment will be cancelled, and the funds will be returned.

Rolling and Early Closings: The company may elect to undertake rolling closings, or an early closing after it has received investment interests for its target offering amount. During a rolling closing, those investors that have committed funds will be provided five days' notice prior to acceptance of their subscriptions, release of funds to the company, and issuance of securities to the investors. During this time, the company may continue soliciting investors and receiving additional investment commitments. Investors should note that if investors have already received their securities, they will not be required to reconfirm upon the filing of a material amendment to the Form C. In an early closing, the offering will terminate upon the new target date, which must be at least five days from the date of the notice.

Investor Limitations

Investors are limited in how much they can invest on all crowdfunding offerings during any 12-month period. The limitation on how much they can invest depends on their net worth (excluding the value of their primary residence) and annual income. If either their annual income or net worth is less than $107,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to the greater of either $2,200 or 5% of the greater of their annual income or Net worth. If both their annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $107,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but their investments cannot exceed $107,000. If the investor is an “accredited investor” as defined under Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act, as amended, no investment limits apply.

As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

HEROIC ENTERPRISES, PUBLIC BENEFIT CORPORATION
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
As of December 31, 2021 and 2020 and for the years then ended

NOTE 1: NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation (the “Company” or “Heroic”) is a public benefit corporation organized on November 13, 2020 under the laws of Delaware. The Company’s mission is to provide a positive effect (or a reduction of negative effects) for society and persons by helping people optimize their lives so they can serve heroically, including but not limited to providing access to wisdom from heroic teachers; creating an online community to engage with other individuals committed to making a positive difference in their communities; and promoting other tools and services to help people be the change they want to see in the world.

On September 8, 2021, the Company entered into a merger agreement with Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation (“Optimize”), a public benefit corporation organized on July 16, 2014 under the laws of Delaware and which was under common control with the Company. As a result of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Optimize ceased and the Company survived the merger.

NOTE 2: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The consolidated financial statements include all accounts of Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation and Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation. All significant intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

In accordance with ASC 805-50-45-5, for transactions between entities under common control, financial statements and financial information presented for prior periods should be retroactively adjusted to furnish comparative information. While Optimize Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation was acquired in September 2021, as it was under common control, the merger was recognized retroactively in these financial statements as if it occurred on December 31, 2019, including with regards to presentation of the beginning equity and share balances reflective on an as-converted basis as if the merger had occurred at the beginning of the period presented.

The Company adopted the calendar year as its basis of reporting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Significant Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history. The Company’s business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the United States. A host of factors beyond the Company’s control could cause fluctuations in these conditions. The Company is subject to regulatory risks, primarily around changing digital media regulations. The Coronavirus Disease of 2019 (COVID-19) has recently affected global markets, supply chains, employees of companies, and our communities. Specific to the Company, COVID-19 may impact various parts of its operations and financial results including shelter in place orders, economic hardships affecting funding for the Company, and effects on the Company's workforce. Management believes the Company is taking appropriate actions to mitigate the negative impact. However, the full impact of COVID-19 is unknown and cannot be reasonably estimated as of the issuance date of these consolidated financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect market assumptions. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date. Level 1 primarily consists of financial instruments whose value is based on quoted market prices such as exchange-traded instruments and listed equities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly (e.g., quoted prices of similar assets or liabilities in active markets, or quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active).

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. Financial instruments are considered Level 3 when their fair values are determined using pricing models, discounted cash flows or similar techniques and at least one significant model assumption or input is unobservable.

The carrying amounts reported in the consolidated balance sheet approximates their fair value.

Cash Equivalents and Concentration of Cash Balance

The Company considers all highly liquid securities with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, all of the Company's cash and cash equivalents were held at one accredited financial institution and the Company had cash of $2,576,880 and $520,464 in excess of federally insured limits, respectively.

Subscription Receivable

The Company records stock issuances at the effective date. If the subscription is not funded upon issuance, the Company records a subscription receivable as an asset on a balance sheet. When subscriptions are not received prior to the issuance of financial statements at a reporting date in satisfaction of the requirements under FASB ASC 505-10-45-2, the subscription receivable is reclassified as a contra account to stockholders' equity on the balance sheet.

Escrow Receivable

Amounts held in escrow are recognized at estimated realizable value.

Deferred Offering Costs

The Company complies with the requirements of FASB ASC 340-10-S99-1 with regards to offering costs. Prior to the completion of an offering, offering costs are capitalized. The deferred offering costs are charged to stockholders' equity upon the completion of an offering or to expense if the offering is not completed. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, deferred offering costs recognized were $20,567 and $9,765, respectively. The deferred offering costs in 2020 were charged to additional paid-in capital in 2021 upon the completion of the offering.

Property and Equipment, Intangible Asset

Property and equipment and intangible asset are recorded at cost, including transaction costs, less accumulated depreciation, amortization and any impairment in value, excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing. Depreciation and amortization are calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets which the Company estimated to be three years for its computer and equipment and website. The useful lives and the depreciation and amortization methods are reviewed periodically to ensure that the periods and depreciation and amortization methods are consistent with the expected pattern of economic benefits from items of property and equipment and intangible asset.

There were no changes in the estimated useful lives of each of the Company's items of property and equipment and intangible asset during the year ended December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company continually monitors events and changes in circumstances that could indicate carrying amounts of long-lived assets may not be recoverable. When such events or changes in circumstances are present, the management assesses the recoverability of long-lived assets by determining whether the carrying value of such assets will be recovered through undiscounted expected future cash flows. If the total of the future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of those assets, the Company recognizes an impairment loss based on the excess of the carrying amount over the fair value of the Company's long-lived assets. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or the fair value less costs to sell.

No impairment in value of property and equipment or intangible asset was recognized for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Convertible Instruments

U.S. GAAP requires companies to bifurcate conversion options from their host instruments and account for them as free-standing derivative financial instruments according to certain criteria. The criteria include circumstances in which (a) the economic characteristics and risks of the embedded derivative instrument are not clearly and closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host contract, (b) the hybrid instrument that embodies both the embedded derivative instrument and the host contract is not re-measured at fair value under otherwise applicable generally accepted accounting principles with changes in fair value reported in earnings as they occur and (c) a separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative instrument would be considered a derivative instrument. An exception to this rule is when the host instrument is deemed to be conventional as that term is described under applicable U.S. GAAP.

See accompanying Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

When the Company has determined that the embedded conversion options should not be bifurcated from their host instruments, the Company records, when necessary, discounts (or beneficial conversion features) to convertible notes for the intrinsic value of conversion options embedded in debt instruments based upon the differences between the fair value of the underlying stock at the commitment date of the note transaction and the effective conversion price embedded in the note. Debt discounts or beneficial conversion features under these arrangements are (i) amortized over the term of the related debt to their stated date of redemption or (ii) when based on a future contingent event, the beneficial conversion feature is deferred and recorded at the time when the contingency no longer exists.

Revenue Recognition

ASC Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" establishes principles for reporting information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity's contracts to provide goods or services to customers.

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. The Company applies the following five steps in order to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to be recognized as it fulfills its obligations under each of its agreements: 1) identify the contract with a customer; 2) identify the performance obligations in the contract; 3) determine the transaction price; 4) allocate the transaction price to performance obligations in the contract; and 5) recognize revenue as the performance obligation is satisfied.

Membership

The Company collects revenues in advance for its memberships and initially records them as deferred revenues. The Company has determined that its performance obligation in relation to the membership agreements with customers (i.e., to provide customer access to the online database of Company content) are satisfied through the passage of time of the underlying membership period, which are monthly, annually or lifetime. Monthly memberships are recognized upon completion of the month of service, annual memberships are recognized monthly over the membership period on a straight-line basis while lifetime memberships are recognized over a two-year period as the Company estimated that a user consumes/receives the most benefit from the membership during their first two years.

In October 2021, the Company changed its membership subscriptions to now be free for users. As a result, this revenue stream is no longer applicable after October 2021.

See accompanying Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
As of December 31, 2021 and 2020 and for the years then ended

Coaching

The Company collects revenues in advance for its coaching services and initially records them as deferred revenues. The Company has determined that its performance obligation in relation to the coaching agreements with customers (i.e., to provide access to a class that contains specific content for that launched class) are satisfied through the passage of time of the underlying plan period, which are annually or lifetime. Annual and lifetime plan revenues are recognized monthly over a one-year period on a straight-line basis. As the lifetime plan may be availed after attending the first class, the Company assessed that the customer will likely attend class up to another one year.

Contract Balances

A receivable is recognized if an amount of consideration that is unconditional is due from the customer (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due). The Company collects payments from customers in advance and therefore no accounts receivable is recognized. However, the Company uses third parties for customer payments processing and there may be funds being held in escrow at the end of the reporting period. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, $81,357 and $43,721 of revenues, respectively, were not yet closed out of escrow and therefore were recorded as escrow receivable in the consolidated balance sheets.

A contract liability is recognized if a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Company transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Company performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer). The Company has contract liabilities of $903,782 and $737,489 as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively, recognized as deferred revenue in the consolidated balance sheets.

Refund Liabilities

A refund liability is recognized for the obligation to refund some or all of the consideration received (or receivable) from a customer. The liability is measured at the amount the Company ultimately expects it will have to return to the customer. The Company updates its estimates of refund liabilities (and the corresponding change in the transaction price) at the end of the reporting period.

As a result of changing membership subscriptions to now be free to users, the amounts received in advance by the Company under membership agreements became eligible to be refunded to the customers upon request.

As the obligation to refund customers occurred due to change in agreement terms which the Company initiated and approved after December 31, 2020, no refund liabilities were recognized as of December 31, 2020 associated with this change in agreement terms. The revenue recognized related to satisfied performance obligations for the year ended December 31, 2020 are also not adjusted for the effects of this refund obligation as the amounts recorded reflect the consideration the Company is entitled to receive for the satisfied performance obligation in accordance with ASC 606.

Operating Expenses

The Company presents its operating expenses by nature in the categories presented in the statements of operations. The operating expenses are inclusive of all its operational expenses from the functions selling, general, and administrative ("SG&A").

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred and recorded as product development and engineering expenses on the statements of operations.

Organizational Costs

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 720, organizational costs, including accounting fees, legal fees, and costs of incorporation, are expensed as incurred.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company measures all stock-based awards granted to employees, advisors and directors based on the fair value on the date of the grant and recognizes compensation expense for those awards, net of estimated forfeitures, over the requisite service period, which is generally the vesting period of the respective award. The Company records expense for stock-based awards issued with only service-based vesting conditions using the straight-line method. For awards with performance-based vesting conditions, the Company records the expense if and when the Company concludes that it is probable that the performance condition will be achieved.

The fair value of each stock option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The Company historically has been a private company and lacks company-specific historical and implied volatility information for its stock. Therefore, it estimates its expected stock price volatility based on the historical volatility of publicly traded peer companies and expects to continue to do so until such time as it has adequate historical data regarding the volatility of its own traded stock price. The expected term of the Company's stock options is determined utilizing the “simplified” method for awards that qualify as “plain-vanilla” options. The risk-free interest rate is determined by reference to the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant of the award for time periods approximately equal to the expected term of the award. Expected dividend yield is based on the fact that the Company has never paid cash dividends on common stock and does not expect to pay any cash dividends in the foreseeable future. Determining the appropriate fair value of stock-based awards requires the input of subjective assumptions. The assumptions used in calculating the fair value of stock-based awards represent management’s best estimates and involve inherent uncertainties and the application of management’s judgment. As a result, if factors change and management uses different assumptions, stock-based compensation expense could be materially different for future awards.

Income Taxes

The Company uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes as set forth in ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under the liability method, deferred taxes are determined based on the temporary differences between the consolidated financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities using tax rates expected to be in effect during the years in which the basis differences reverse. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is unlikely that the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The Company assesses its income tax positions and records tax benefits for all years subject to examination based upon the evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available at the reporting date. In accordance with ASC 740-10, for those tax positions where there is a greater than 50% likelihood that a tax benefit will be sustained, the Company’s policy is to record the largest amount of tax benefit that is more likely than not to be realized upon ultimate settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. For those income tax positions where there is less than 50% likelihood that a tax benefit will be sustained, no tax benefit will be recognized in the consolidated financial statements. The Company has evaluated its income tax positions and has determined that it does not have any uncertain tax positions.

The Company accounts for income taxes with the recognition of estimated income taxes payable or refundable on income tax returns for the current period and for the estimated future tax effect attributable to temporary differences and carryforwards. Measurement of deferred income items is based on enacted tax laws including tax rates, with the measurement of deferred income tax assets being reduced by available tax benefits not expected to be realized in the immediate future.

The Company is subject to tax filing requirements as a corporation in the federal jurisdiction of the United States.

Net Earnings or Loss per Share

Net earnings or loss per share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period, excluding shares subject to redemption or forfeiture. The Company presents basic and diluted net earnings or loss per share. Diluted net earnings or loss per share reflect the actual weighted average of common shares issued and outstanding during the period, adjusted for potentially dilutive securities outstanding. Potentially dilutive securities are excluded from the computation of the diluted net earnings or loss per share if their inclusion would be anti-dilutive. As all potentially dilutive securities are anti-dilutive as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, diluted net loss per share is the same as basic net loss per share for each period.

See accompanying Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

NOTE 3: GOING CONCERN

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has an accumulated deficit of $8,376,719 as of December 31, 2021, has sustained net losses of $5,744,503 and $672,825 for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, and has incurred negative cash flows from operations for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern in the next twelve months is dependent upon its ability to produce operating cash flows and/or to obtain capital financing from investors sufficient to meet current and future obligations and deploy such capital to produce profitable operating results. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in these efforts. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Intangible assets with a cost basis of $52,266 and $21,999 have a weighted average remaining useful life of 2.32 and 2.87 years as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, all respectively, and will be recognized straight line over the remaining amortization period.

NOTE 5: PPP LOAN

In April 2020, the Company received a loan in the amount of $10,000 pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The loan bears interest at a fixed rate of 1% per annum, with the first six months of interest deferred, has an initial term of two years and is unsecured and guaranteed by the Small Business Administration ("SBA"). Under the terms of the PPP, certain amounts of the loan may be forgiven if they are used for qualifying expenses as described in the CARES Act.

In December 2020, the loan was forgiven, and the amount was recognized as other income in the consolidated statement of operations.

NOTE 6: CONVERTIBLE NOTES

In 2020, the Company entered into several convertible note agreements for a total of $950,000 principal ("2020 Notes"). Under the terms of these notes, the Company was to pay 4% interest per annum and the notes were to mature in December 2022. The notes were subject to various conversion terms, including where the notes were automatically convertible to the Company's stock at a 20% discount to the pricing in the triggering round if and upon a qualified equity financing of $1,250,000 or greater.

On January 24, 2021, the qualified equity financing was triggered and the then outstanding principal amounting to $950,000 and interest on the convertible notes payable amounting to $3,697 was converted into 754,328 shares of Series Seed Preferred Stock at a conversion rate of $1.26428 per share. The Company incurred interest expense of $2,485 on 2020 Notes and recognized $238,700 of interest expense on beneficial conversion feature against its additional paid-in capital during the year ended December 31, 2021.

In 2021, the Company's Board of Directors authorized the issuance up to $10,000,000 in original principal amount of convertible notes. The Company issued convertible promissory notes for an aggregate principal amount of $872,134 ("2021 Notes"). Interest accrues at a simple rate of 4% per annum and the notes will mature on December 31, 2023. Each note will be convertible into: (a) shares of common stock or any securities conferring the right to purchase common stock or any securities directly or indirectly convertible into, or exchangeable for (with or without additional consideration) common stock ("Equity Securities") if the Company receives gross proceeds of not less than $10,000,000 in one or more offerings with the principal purpose of raising capital ("Next Equity Financing") at the lower of: (i) the product of 80% and the lowest per share purchase price of the Equity Securities issued in the Next Equity Financing; or (ii) the quotient resulting from dividing $100,000,000 by the number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company's capital stock, assuming the conversion or exercise of all of the Company's capital stock ("Fully Diluted Capitalization"), (b) shares of Series 1 Common Stock in the event of a change in the state of the Company's incorporation ("Corporate Transaction") at the conversion rate resulting from dividing $100,000,000 by the Fully Diluted Capitalization immediately prior to the closing of the Corporate Transaction, or (c) shares of Series 1 Common Stock at any time on or after the maturity date at the conversion rate resulting from dividing $100,000,000 by the Fully Diluted Capitalization immediately prior to such conversion. The Company determined these notes had beneficial conversion features contingent upon future events, and therefore the beneficial conversion feature discount will be recognized if and upon resolution of this contingency.

During the year ended December 31, 2021, interest expense on 2021 Notes amounted to $2,289. In conjunction with the 2021 Notes, the Company incurred fees of $17,218, which were reported as direct deduction from the face amount of the 2021 Notes and are amortized on the effective interest rate method to interest expense over the contractual life of the 2021 Notes.

NOTE 8: RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

On November 13, 2020 (inception), the Company entered into an unsecured note agreement with a principal amount of $21,999, bearing interest at 0.13% per annum. The note is payable to the Company's founder and CEO and matures on November 13, 2021. The note payable was consideration for the purchase of the website domain. The Company paid the full amount in January 2021.

As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company has a net receivable of $26,427 from the Company's founder and CEO.

During the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company incurred a total of $2,827,225 and $63,600 expense to its investors for consulting services, respectively. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company has an outstanding payable of $319,873 and $12,000, respectively.

On December 9, 2021, the Company issued convertible promissory note to its investor with a principal amount of $100,000 and accrued interest of $241 as of December 31, 2021.

See Note 1 and Note 2 for discussion of the related party acquisition in 2021.

NOTE 9: INCOME TAXES

Deferred taxes are recognized for temporary differences between the basis of assets and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes. The differences relate primarily to cash to accrual differences and net operating loss carryforwards. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company had net deferred tax assets before valuation allowance of $1,379,647 and $225,344, respectively. The following table presents the deferred tax assets by source:

	2021	2020
Deferred tax assets:
Net operating loss carryforwards	$ 1,258,388	$ 193,646
Depreciation and amortization	-	145
Charitable contribution	3,213	210
Cash to accrual differences	118,046	31,343
Valuation allowance	(1,379,647)	(225,344)
Net deferred tax assets	$ -	$ -

The Company recognizes deferred tax assets to the extent that it believes that these assets are more likely than not to be realized. In making such a determination, the Company considers all available positive and negative evidence, including future reversals of existing taxable temporary differences, projected future taxable income, tax-planning strategies, and results of recent operations. The Company assessed the need for a valuation allowance against its net deferred tax assets and determined a full valuation allowance is required as the Company has not yet generated income since inception. Deferred tax assets were calculated using the Company's combined effective tax rate, which it estimated to be 21%. The effective rate is reduced to 0% due to the full valuation allowance on its net deferred tax assets.

As of December 31, 2021 and 2020 and for the years then ended

The Company's ability to utilize net operating loss carryforwards will depend on its ability to generate adequate future taxable income. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards available to offset future taxable income in the amount of $5,992,322 and $922,125, respectively.

The Company has evaluated its income tax positions and has determined that it does not have any uncertain tax positions. The Company will recognize interest and penalties related to any uncertain tax positions through its income tax expense. The Company is not presently subject to any income tax audit in any taxing jurisdiction, though its 2019-2021 tax years remain open to examination.

NOTE 10: RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This ASU requires a lessee to recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability under most operating leases in its balance sheet. The ASU is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2021, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is continuing to evaluate the impact of this new standard on the financial reporting and disclosures.

In October 2016, FASB issued ASU 2016-16, "Income Taxes (Topic 740): Intra-Entity Transfers of Assets Other than Inventory", which eliminates the exception that prohibits the recognition of current and deferred income tax effects for intra-entity transfers of assets other than inventory until the asset has been sold to an outside party. The updated guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption of the update is permitted. Management believes that the adoption of ASU 2016-16 has no impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-04, Intangibles - Goodwill and Other (Topic 350), simplifying Accounting for Goodwill Impairment ("ASU 2017-04"). ASU 2017-04 removes the requirement to perform a hypothetical purchase price allocation to measure goodwill impairment. A goodwill impairment will now be the amount by which a reporting unit's carrying value exceeds its fair value, not to exceed the carrying amount of goodwill. The amendments in this update are effective for public entities for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2020. For all other entities, the amendment is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of ASU 2017-04 will have on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In June 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-07, Compensation - Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting ("ASU 2018-07"). ASU 2018-07 eliminates the separate accounting model for nonemployee share-based payment awards and generally requires companies to account for share-based payment transactions with nonemployees in the same way as share-based payment transactions with employees. The accounting remains different for attribution, which represents how the equity-based payment cost is recognized over the vesting period, and a contractual term election for valuing nonemployee equity share options. ASU 2018-07 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2018 with early adoption permitted. The Company has adopted this standard effective January 1, 2019. Management believes that the adoption of ASU 2018-07 has no impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

See accompanying Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

As of December 31, 2021 and 2020 and for the years then ended

In August 2018, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2018-13, "Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure Framework - Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement", which changes the fair value measurement disclosure requirements of ASC 820. This update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and for interim periods within those fiscal years. Management does not expect the adoption of ASU 2018-13 to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-15, Intangibles — Goodwill and Other — Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Customer's Accounting for Implementation Costs Incurred in a Cloud Computing Arrangement that is a Service Contract ("ASU 2018-15"). ASU 2018-15 requires a customer in a cloud computing arrangement that is a service contract to follow the internal-use software guidance in ASC 350-40 to determine which implementation costs to defer and recognize as an asset. The amendments in this update are effective for public entities for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2019. For all other entities, the amendment is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021. Management does not expect the adoption of ASU 2018-15 to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In August 2020, FASB issued ASU 2020-06, Accounting for Convertible Instruments and Contracts in an Entity's Own Equity ("ASU 2020-06"), as part of its overall simplification initiative to reduce costs and complexity of applying accounting standards while maintaining or improving the usefulness of the information provided to users of financial statements. Among other changes, the new guidance removes from GAAP separation models for convertible debt that require the convertible debt to be separated into a debt and equity component, unless the conversion feature is required to be bifurcated and accounted for as a derivative or the debt is issued at a substantial premium. As a result, after adopting the guidance, entities will no longer separately present such embedded conversion features in equity, and will instead account for the convertible debt wholly as debt. The new guidance also requires use of the "if-converted" method when calculating the dilutive impact of convertible debt on earnings per share, which is consistent with the Company's current accounting treatment under the current guidance. The guidance is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, and interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted, but only at the beginning of the fiscal year. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of ASU 2020-06 will have on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards could have a material effect on the accompanying consolidated financial statements. As new accounting pronouncements are issued, the Company will adopt those that are applicable under the circumstances.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Heroic CF SPV, LLC ("the Company") as April 21, 2022 (inception) and the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statement). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of April 21, 2022, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statement has been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 3 to the financial statement, the Company has not commenced planned principal operations, plans to incur significant costs in pursuit of its capital financing plans, and has not generated any revenues or profits. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 3. The financial statement does not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matters

Critical audit matters are matters arising from the current period audit of the financial statement that were communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that (1) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statement and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. We determined that there were no critical audit matters.

Heroic CF SPV, LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT
As of April 21, 2022 (inception)

NOTE 1: NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Heroic CF SPV, LLC (the "Company") was incorporated on April 21, 2022 under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Company will undertake the limited purpose of acquiring, holding, and disposing of securities issued by Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation. The Company is headquartered in Austin, Texas. The Company's manager is Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation.

As of April 21, 2022 (inception), the Company has not yet commenced operations. Once the Company commences its planned principal operations, it will incur significant additional expenses. The Company is dependent upon additional capital resources for the commencement of its planned principal operations and is subject to significant risks and uncertainties, including failing to secure funding to commence the Company's planned operations.

NOTE 2: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The Company's fiscal year is December 31.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the Company's financial statement in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents and Concentration of Cash Balance

The Company considers all highly liquid securities with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. As of April 21, 2022 (inception), the Company has not established a deposit account with a financial institution.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history. The Company's business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the United States. A host of factors beyond the Company's control could cause fluctuations in these conditions. These adverse conditions could affect the Company's financial condition and the results of its operations.

Deferred Offering Costs

The Company complies with the requirements of FASB ASC 340-10-S99-1 with regards to offering costs. Prior to the completion of an offering, offering costs are capitalized. The deferred offering costs are charged to member's equity upon the completion of an offering or to expense if the offering is not completed.

Fair Value Measurements

Certain assets and liabilities of the Company are carried at fair value under GAAP. Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value are to be classified and disclosed in one of the following three levels of the fair value hierarchy, of which the first two are considered observable and the last is considered unobservable:

- Level 1—Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2—Observable inputs (other than Level 1 quoted prices), such as quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in markets that are not active for identical or similar assets or liabilities, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.
- Level 3—Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity that are significant to determining the fair value of the assets or liabilities, including pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies and similar techniques.

The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet approximate their fair value.

Revenue Recognition

Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 606, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers” establishes principles for reporting information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity’s contracts to provide goods or services to customers.

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. The Company applies the following five steps in order to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to be recognized as it fulfills its obligations under each of its agreements: 1) identify the contract with a customer; 2) identify the performance obligations in the contract; 3) determine the transaction price; 4) allocate the transaction price to performance obligations in the contract; and 5) recognize revenue as the performance obligation is satisfied.

No revenue has been earned or recognized as of April 21, 2022 (inception).

Organizational Costs

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) ASC 720, “Other Expenses”, organizational costs, including accounting fees, legal fee, and costs of organization, are expensed as incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company. Accordingly, under the Internal Revenue Code, all taxable income or loss flows through to its members. Therefore, no provision for income tax has been recorded in the statement. Income from the Company is reported and taxed to the members on their individual tax returns.

The Company complies with FASB ASC 740 for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company’s financial statement, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. FASB ASC 740 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. Based on the Company's evaluation, it has been concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in the Company's financial statement. The Company believes that its income tax positions would be sustained on audit and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material change to its financial position.

The Company may in the future become subject to federal, state and local income taxation though it has not been since its inception. The Company is not presently subject to any income tax audit in any taxing jurisdiction.

NOTE 3: GOING CONCERN

The accompanying balance sheet has been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company is a business that has not commenced planned principal operations, plans to incur significant costs in pursuit of its capital financing plans, and has not generated any revenues or profits as of April 21, 2022 (inception). These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern in the next twelve months is dependent upon its ability to obtain capital financing from investors sufficient to meet current and future obligations. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in these efforts. The balance sheet does not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4: MEMBER'S EQUITY/(DEFICIT)

The Company is a Limited Liability Company formed on April 21, 2022. It will undertake the limited purpose of acquiring, holding, and disposing of securities issued by Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation. The Company's manager is Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation.

The debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, are solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Company, and no member of the Company is obligated personally for any such debt, obligation, or liability.

NOTE 5: RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards could have a material effect on the accompanying financial statement. As new accounting pronouncements are issued, the Company will adopt those that are applicable under the circumstances.

NOTE 6: COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company may be subject to pending legal proceedings and regulatory actions in the ordinary course of business. The results of such proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty, but the Company does not anticipate that the final outcome, if any, arising out of any such matter will have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

NOTE 7: SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management's Evaluation

Management has evaluated subsequent events through May 2, 2022, the date the financial statement was available to be issued. Based on this evaluation, no additional material events were identified which require adjustment or disclosure in this financial statement.

The Common Stock shall be divided into two series, designated as “Series 1 Common Stock,” which shall consist of twenty-eight million two hundred thousand (28,200,000) shares, and as “Series 2 Common Stock,” which shall consist of fourteen million eight hundred thousand (14,800,000) shares. The Preferred Stock shall be designated as “Series Seed Preferred Stock,” which shall consist of ten million (10,000,000) shares.

ARTICLE V

The terms and provisions of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock are as follows:

1. Definitions. For purposes of this ARTICLE V, the following definitions shall apply:
 - (a) “Distribution” shall mean (i) the transfer of cash or other property without consideration whether by way of dividend or otherwise other than dividends on Common Stock payable in Common Stock, or (ii) the purchase or redemption of shares of capital stock of the Corporation by the Corporation for cash or property other than (A) repurchases of Common Stock issued to or held by employees, officers, directors or consultants of the Corporation or its subsidiaries upon termination of their employment or services pursuant to agreements providing for the right of said repurchase, (B) repurchases of Common Stock or Preferred Stock issued to or held by any stockholder (including without limitation employees, officers, directors or consultants of the Corporation or its subsidiaries) pursuant to rights of first refusal contained in agreements providing for such right or in the bylaws of the Corporation, (C) repurchases of capital stock of the Corporation in connection with the settlement of any dispute between the Corporation and one or more stockholders, and (D) any other repurchase or redemption of capital stock of the Corporation approved by the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding Common Stock and Preferred Stock, each voting as separate classes.

(b) “Recapitalization” shall mean any stock dividend, stock split, combination of shares, reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification or other similar event.

(c) “Series Seed Conversion Price” shall mean $1.58035 per share for the Series Seed Preferred Stock (subject to adjustment from time to time for Recapitalizations and as otherwise set forth elsewhere herein).

(d) “Series Seed Liquidation Preference” shall mean $1.58035 per share for the Series Seed Preferred Stock (subject to adjustment from time to time for Recapitalizations as set forth elsewhere herein).

(e) “Series Seed Original Issue Price” shall mean $1.58035 per share for the Series Seed Preferred Stock (subject to adjustment from time to time for Recapitalizations as set forth elsewhere herein).

2. Liquidation Rights

(a) Liquidation Preference. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, prior and in preference to any Distribution of any of the assets of the Corporation to the holders of the Common Stock by reason of their ownership of such stock, an amount per share of Preferred Stock held by them equal to the Series Seed Liquidation Preference specified for such share of Preferred Stock, or such lesser amount as may be approved by the holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock. If upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the holders of the Preferred Stock are insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full amounts specified in this Section 2(a), then the entire assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed with equal priority and pro rata among the holders of the Preferred Stock in proportion to the full amounts they would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2(a).

(b) Remaining Assets. After the payment or setting aside for payment to the holders of Preferred Stock of the full amounts specified in Section 2(a) above, the entire remaining assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed pro rata to holders of the Common Stock in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them.

(c) Shares not Treated as Both Preferred Stock and Common Stock in any Distribution. Shares of Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to be converted into shares of Common Stock in order to participate in any Distribution, or series of Distributions, as shares of Common Stock, without first foregoing participation in the Distribution, or series of Distributions, as shares of Preferred Stock.

(d) Reorganization. For purposes of this Section 2, a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be deemed to be occasioned by, or to include, (i) the acquisition of the Corporation by another entity by means of any transaction or series of related transactions to which the Corporation is party (including, without limitation, any stock acquisition, reorganization, merger or consolidation but excluding any sale of stock by the Corporation for capital raising purposes) other than a transaction or series of related transactions in which the holders of the voting securities of the Corporation outstanding immediately prior to such transaction or series of related transactions retain, immediately after such transaction or series of related transactions, as a result of shares in the Corporation held by such holders prior to such transaction or series of related transactions, at least a majority of the total voting power represented by the outstanding voting securities of the Corporation or such other surviving or resulting entity (or if the Corporation or such other surviving or resulting entity is a wholly owned subsidiary immediately following such transaction or transactions, of its parent); or (ii) a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, except where such sale, lease or other disposition is to a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation. The treatment of any transaction or series of related transactions as a liquidation, dissolution or winding up pursuant to clause (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence may be waived with respect to the holders of Preferred Stock by the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, voting as a single class.

(e) Valuation of Non-Cash Consideration. If any assets of the Corporation distributed to stockholders in connection with any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation are other than cash, then the value of such assets shall be their fair market value as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, except that any publicly-traded securities to be distributed to stockholders in a liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation shall be valued as follows:

(i) if the securities are then traded on a national securities exchange, then the value of the securities shall be deemed to be the average of the closing prices of the securities on such exchange over the ten (10) trading day period ending five (5) trading days prior to the Distribution;

(ii) if the securities are actively traded over-the-counter, then the value of the securities shall be deemed to be the average of the closing bid prices of the securities over the ten (10) trading day period ending five (5) trading days prior to the Distribution.

In the event of a merger or other acquisition of the Corporation by another entity, the Distribution date shall be deemed to be the date such transaction closes.

For the purposes of this subsection 2(e), “trading day” shall mean any day which the exchange or system on which the securities to be distributed are traded is open and “closing prices” or “closing bid prices” shall be deemed to be: (i) for securities traded primarily on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or a Nasdaq market, the last reported trade price or sale price, as the case may be, at 4:00 p.m., New York time, on that day and (ii) for securities listed or traded on other exchanges, markets and systems, the market price as of the end of the regular hours trading period that is generally accepted as such for such exchange, market or system. If, after the date hereof, the benchmark times generally accepted in the securities industry for determining the market price of a stock as of a given trading day shall change from those set forth above, the fair market value shall be determined as of such other generally accepted benchmark times.

3. Conversion of Preferred Stock. The holders of the Preferred Stock shall have conversion rights as follows:

(a) Right to Convert. Each share of Preferred Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, at any time after the date of issuance of such share at the office of the Corporation or any transfer agent for the Preferred Stock, into that number of fully-paid, nonassessable shares of Series 1 Common Stock determined by dividing the applicable Original Issue Price for the relevant series by the applicable Conversion Price for such series. (The number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock into which each share of Preferred Stock of a series may be converted is hereinafter referred to as the “Conversion Rate” for each such series.) Upon any decrease or increase in the Conversion Price for any series of Preferred Stock, as described in this Section 3, the Conversion Rate for such series shall be appropriately increased or decreased, respectively.

(b) Automatic Preferred Conversion. Each share of Preferred Stock shall automatically be converted into fully-paid, non-assessable shares of Series 1 Common Stock at the then effective Conversion Rate for such share (i) immediately prior to the closing of a firm commitment underwritten initial public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), covering the offer and sale of Common Stock, or (ii) at the close of business on the date of adoption by the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, of a resolution to convert all of the then outstanding shares of Preferred Stock into shares of Series 1 Common Stock (each of the events referred to in (i) and (ii) is referred to herein as an “Automatic Preferred Conversion Event”).

(c) Mechanics of Conversion. No fractional shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall be issued upon the conversion of any shares of Preferred Stock. In lieu of any fractional shares of Series 1 Common Stock to which a holder would otherwise be entitled to receive upon a conversion of shares of Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section 3, the Corporation shall pay such holder cash in an amount equal to such fraction multiplied by the then fair market value of a share of Series 1 Common Stock, as determined by the Board of Directors. For such purpose, all shares of Preferred Stock held by each holder of Preferred Stock shall be aggregated. Before any holder of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into full shares of Series 1 Common Stock, and to receive certificates therefor, such holder shall either (A) surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for the Preferred Stock or (B) notify the Corporation or its transfer agent that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and execute an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates, and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that he elects to convert the same; provided, however, that on the date of an Automatic Preferred Conversion Event, the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock shall be converted automatically without any further action by the holders of such shares and whether or not the certificates representing such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or its transfer agent; provided further, however, that the Corporation shall not be obligated to issue certificates evidencing the shares of Series 1 Common Stock issuable upon such Automatic Preferred Conversion Event unless either the certificates evidencing such shares of Preferred Stock are delivered to the Corporation or its transfer agent as provided above, or the holder notifies the Corporation or its transfer agent that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and executes an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates. On the date of the occurrence of an Automatic

Preferred Conversion Event, each holder of record of shares of Preferred Stock shall be deemed to be the holder of record of the Series 1 Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, notwithstanding that the certificates representing such shares of Preferred Stock shall not have been surrendered at the office of the Corporation, that notice from the Corporation shall not have been received by any holder of record of shares of Preferred Stock, or that the certificates evidencing such shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall not then be actually delivered to such holder.

(d) Adjustments for Subdivisions or Combinations of Series 1 Common Stock.

In the event the outstanding shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall be subdivided (by stock split, reclassification, payment of a stock dividend or otherwise), into a greater number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock, the Conversion Price of each series of Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such subdivision shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such subdivision, be proportionately decreased. In the event the outstanding shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall be combined (by reclassification or otherwise) into a lesser number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock, the Conversion Price of each Series of Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such combination shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such combination, be proportionately increased.

(e) Adjustments for Subdivisions or Combinations of Preferred Stock. In the event the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock or a series of Preferred Stock shall be subdivided (by stock split, reclassification, payment of a stock dividend or otherwise), into a greater number of shares of Preferred Stock, the Original Issue Price and Liquidation Preference of the affected series of Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such subdivision shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such subdivision, be proportionately decreased. In the event the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock or a series of Preferred Stock shall be combined (by reclassification or otherwise) into a lesser number of shares of Preferred Stock, the Original Issue Price and Liquidation Preference of the affected series of Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such combination shall, concurrently with the effectiveness of such combination, be proportionately increased.

(f) Adjustments for Reclassification, Exchange and Substitution. Subject to Section 2 above (“Liquidation Rights”), if the Series 1 Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock shall be changed into the same or a different number of shares of any other class or classes of stock, whether by capital reorganization, reclassification or otherwise (other than a subdivision or combination of shares provided for above), then, in any such event, in lieu of the number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock which the holders would otherwise have been entitled to receive each holder of such Preferred Stock shall have the right thereafter to convert such shares of Preferred Stock into a number of shares of such other class or classes of stock which a holder of the number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock deliverable upon conversion of such series of Preferred Stock immediately before that change would have been entitled to receive in such reorganization or reclassification, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein with respect to such other shares.

(g) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Conversion Price pursuant to this Section 3, the Corporation at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and furnish to each holder of Preferred Stock a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon the written request at any time of any holder of Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a like certificate setting forth (i) such adjustments and readjustments, (ii) the Conversion Price at the time in effect and (iii) the number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the conversion of Preferred Stock.

(h) Notices of Record Date. In the event that the Corporation shall propose at any time:

(i) to declare any Distribution upon its Series 1 Common Stock, whether in cash, property, stock or other securities, whether or not a regular cash dividend and whether or not out of earnings or earned surplus;

(ii) to effect any reclassification or recapitalization of its Series 1 Common Stock outstanding involving a change in the Series 1 Common Stock; or

(iii) to voluntarily liquidate or dissolve or to enter into any transaction deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation pursuant to Section 2(d); then, in connection with each such event, the Corporation shall send to the holders of the Preferred Stock at least 10 days' prior written notice of the date on which a record shall be taken for such Distribution (and specifying the date on which the holders of Series 1 Common Stock shall be entitled thereto and, if applicable, the amount and character of such Distribution) or for determining rights to vote in respect of the matters referred to in (ii) and (iii) above.

Such written notice shall be given by first class mail (or express courier), postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of Preferred Stock at the address for each such holder as shown on the books of the Corporation and shall be deemed given on the date such notice is mailed.

The notice provisions set forth in this section may be shortened or waived prospectively or retrospectively by the consent or vote of the holders of a majority of the Preferred Stock, voting as a single class and on an as-converted basis.

(i) Reservation of Stock Issuable Upon Conversion. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Series 1 Common Stock solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the shares of the Preferred Stock, such number of its shares of Series 1 Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding shares of the Preferred Stock; and if at any time the number of authorized but unissued shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall not be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding shares of the Preferred Stock, the Corporation will take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Series 1 Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purpose.

4. Conversion of Series 2 Common Stock.

(a) Optional Conversion. Each share of Series 2 Common Stock shall be convertible into one (1) fully paid and nonassessable share of Series 1 Common Stock at the option of the holder thereof at any time upon written notice to the Corporation. Before any holder of Series 2 Common Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into full shares of Series 1 Common Stock, and to receive certificates therefor, such holder shall either (A) surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for the Series 2 Common Stock or (B) notify the Corporation or its transfer agent that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and execute an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates, and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that he elects to convert the same; provided, however, that on the date of an Automatic Common Conversion, the outstanding shares of Series 2 Common Stock shall be converted automatically without any further action by the holders of such shares and whether or not the certificates representing such shares are surrendered to the Corporation or its transfer agent; provided further, however, that the Corporation shall not be obligated to issue certificates evidencing the shares of Series 1 Common Stock issuable upon such Automatic Common Conversion Event unless either the certificates evidencing such shares of Series 2 Common Stock are delivered to the Corporation or its transfer agent as provided above, or the holder notifies the Corporation or its transfer agent that such certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed and executes an agreement satisfactory to the Corporation to indemnify the Corporation from any loss incurred by it in connection with such certificates. On the date of the occurrence of an Automatic Common Conversion Event, each holder of record of shares of Series 2 Common Stock shall be deemed to be the holder of record of the Series 1 Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, notwithstanding that the certificates representing such shares of Series 2 Common Stock shall not have been surrendered at the office of the Corporation, that notice from the Corporation shall not have been received by any holder of record of shares of Series 2 Common Stock, or that the certificates evidencing such shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall not then be actually delivered to such holder.

(b) Automatic Common Conversion. Each share of Series 2 Common Stock shall automatically be converted into one (1) fully paid and nonassessable share of Series 1 Common Stock immediately prior to the close of business on the earlier of the date, if any, specified by the affirmative vote of the holders of Series 2 Common Stock representing not less than a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Series 2 Common Stock, voting separately as a single class (the “Automatic Common Conversion”). The Corporation shall provide notice of the Automatic Common Conversion of shares of Series 2 Common Stock pursuant to this Section 4(b) to record holders of such shares of Series 2 Common Stock as soon as practicable following the Automatic Common Conversion; provided, however, that the Corporation may satisfy such notice requirements by providing such notice prior to the Automatic Common Conversion. Such notice shall be provided by any means then permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; provided, however, that no failure to give such notice nor any defect therein shall affect the validity of the Automatic Common Conversion. Upon and after the Automatic Common Conversion, the person registered on the Corporation’s books as the record holder of the shares of Series 2 Common Stock so converted immediately prior to the Automatic Common Conversion shall be registered on the Corporation’s books as the record holder of the shares of Series 1 Common Stock issued upon Automatic Common Conversion of such shares of Series 2 Common Stock, without further action on the part of the record holder thereof. Immediately upon the effectiveness of the Automatic Common Conversion, the rights of the holders of shares of Series 2 Common Stock as such shall cease, and the holders shall be treated for all purposes as having become the record holder or holders of such shares of Series 1 Common Stock into which such shares of Series 2 Common Stock were converted.

(c) Conversion on Transfer. Each share of Series 2 Common Stock shall automatically, without further action by the Corporation or the holder thereof, be converted into one (1) fully paid and nonassessable share of Series 1 Common Stock, upon the occurrence of a Transfer (as defined herein), other than a Permitted Transfer (as defined herein), of such share of Series 2 Common Stock.

(d) Definitions. For purposes only of this Section 4:

(i) “Family Member” shall mean with respect to any natural person who is a Qualified Stockholder (as defined below), the spouse, domestic partner, parents, grandparents, lineal descendants, siblings and lineal descendants of siblings of such Qualified Stockholder. Lineal descendants shall include adopted persons, but only so long as they are adopted during minority.

(ii) “Qualified Stockholder” shall mean (i) the record holder of a share of Series 2 Common Stock; (ii) each natural person who Transferred shares of capital stock of the Corporation to a Permitted Entity that is or becomes a Qualified Stockholder; (iii) each natural person who Transferred shares of, or equity awards for, Series 2 Common Stock (including any Option exercisable or Convertible Security exchangeable for or convertible into shares of Series 2 Common Stock) to a Permitted Entity that is or becomes a Qualified Stockholder; and (iv) a Permitted Transferee.

(iii) “Permitted Entity” shall mean with respect to a Qualified Stockholder (a) a Permitted Trust (as defined below) solely for the benefit of (i) such Qualified Stockholder, (ii) one or more Family Members of such Qualified Stockholder and/or (iii) any other Permitted Entity of such Qualified Stockholder, or (b) any general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, corporation or other entity exclusively owned by (i) such Qualified Stockholder, (ii) one or more Family Members of such Qualified Stockholder and/or (iii) any other Permitted Entity of such Qualified Stockholder.

(iv) “Transfer” of a share of Series 2 Common Stock shall mean any sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance, hypothecation or other transfer or disposition of such share or any legal or beneficial interest in such share, whether or not for value and whether voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law, including, without limitation, a transfer of a share of Series 2 Common Stock to a broker or other nominee (regardless of whether there is a corresponding change in beneficial ownership), or the transfer of, or entering into a binding agreement with respect to, Voting Control (as defined below) over such share by proxy or otherwise; provided, however, that the following shall not be considered a “Transfer” within the meaning of this Section 4:

(1) the granting of a revocable proxy to officers or directors of the Corporation at the request of the Board of Directors in connection with actions to be taken at an annual or special meeting of stockholders;

(2) entering into a voting trust, agreement or arrangement (with or without granting a proxy) solely with stockholders who are holders of Series 2 Common Stock that (A) is disclosed either in a Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation, (B) either has a term not exceeding one (1) year or is terminable by the holder of the shares subject thereto at any time and (C) does not involve any payment of cash, securities, property or other consideration to the holder of the shares subject thereto other than the mutual promise to vote shares in a designated manner;

(3) entering into a voting trust, agreement or arrangement (with or without granting a proxy) with stockholders who are holders of Preferred Stock (with or without stockholders who are holders of Common Stock); or

(4) the pledge of shares of Series 2 Common Stock by a stockholder that creates a mere security interest in such shares pursuant to a bona fide loan or indebtedness transaction for so long as such stockholder continues to exercise Voting Control over such pledged shares; provided, however, that a foreclosure on such shares or other similar action by the pledgee shall constitute a Transfer unless such foreclosure or similar action qualifies as a Permitted Transfer.

A Transfer shall also be deemed to have occurred with respect to a share of Series 2 Common Stock beneficially held by (i) an entity that is a Permitted Entity, if there occurs any act or circumstance that causes such entity to no longer be a Permitted Entity or (ii) an entity that is a Qualified Stockholder, if there occurs a Transfer on a cumulative basis of a majority of the voting power of the voting securities of such entity or any direct or indirect Parent of such entity, other than a Transfer to parties that are holders of voting securities of any such entity or Parent of such entity.

(v) “Parent” of an entity shall mean any entity that directly or indirectly owns or controls a majority of the voting power of the voting securities of such entity.

(vi) “Permitted Transfer” shall mean, and be restricted to, any Transfer of a share of Series 2 Common Stock:

(1) by a Qualified Stockholder to (A) one or more Family Members of such Qualified Stockholder, or (B) any Permitted Entity of such Qualified Stockholder;
or

(2) by a Permitted Entity of a Qualified Stockholder to (A) such Qualified Stockholder or one or more Family Members of such Qualified Stockholder, or (B) any other Permitted Entity of such Qualified Stockholder.

(vii) “Permitted Transferee” shall mean a transferee of shares of Series 2 Common Stock received in a Transfer that constitutes a Permitted Transfer.

(viii) “Permitted Trust” shall mean a bona fide trust where each trustee is (i) a Qualified Stockholder, (ii) a Family Member or (iii) a professional in the business of providing trustee services, including private professional fiduciaries, trust companies and bank trust departments.

(ix) “Voting Control” shall mean, with respect to a share of Series 2 Common Stock, the power (whether exclusive or shared) to vote or direct the voting of such share by proxy, voting agreement or otherwise.

(x) “Convertible Securities” shall mean securities (other than shares of Series 2 Common Stock) convertible into or exchangeable for Series 1 Common Stock or Series 2 Common Stock, either directly or indirectly.

(xi) “Options” shall mean rights, options or warrants to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire Series 1 Common Stock, Series 2 Common Stock or Convertible Securities.

(e) Reservation. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Series 1 Common Stock solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the shares of the Series 2 Common Stock, such number of its shares of Series 1 Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding shares of the Series 2 Common Stock; and if at any time the number of authorized but unissued shares of Series 1 Common Stock shall not be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding shares of the Series 2 Common Stock, the Corporation will take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Series 1 Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purpose.

5. Voting

(a) Restricted Class Voting. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or as required by law, the holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock shall vote together as a single class, and not as separate classes.

(b) No Series Voting. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or as required by law, all series of any class of stock shall vote together as a single class, and not as separate series.

(c) Preferred Stock. Each holder of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders generally, and each holder of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock into which the shares of Preferred Stock held by such holder could be converted as of the record date; provided, however, that fractional votes shall not be permitted and any fractional voting rights resulting from the above formula (after aggregating all shares into which shares of Preferred Stock held by each holder could be converted) shall be disregarded.

(d) Adjustment in Authorized Common Stock. The number of authorized shares of Series 1 Common Stock or Series 2 Common Stock may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares of Series 1 Common Stock or Series 2 Common Stock then outstanding) by an affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

(e) Series 1 Common Stock. Each holder of shares of Series 1 Common Stock, as such, shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Series 1 Common Stock held of record by such holder.

(f) Series 2 Common Stock. Each holder of shares of Series 2 Common Stock, as such, shall be entitled to ten (10) votes for each share of Series 2 Common Stock held of record by such holder.

6. Amendments and Changes. As long as any shares of Preferred Stock shall be issued and outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the approval (by vote or written consent as provided by law) of the holders of at least a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of the Preferred Stock amend, alter or repeal any provision of this Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation if such action would adversely alter the rights, preferences, privileges or powers of, or restrictions of the Preferred Stock or any series thereof.

7. Reissuance of Preferred Stock. In the event that any shares of Preferred Stock shall be converted pursuant to Section 3, repurchased or otherwise reacquired by the Corporation, the shares so converted, repurchased or otherwise reacquired shall be retired and cancelled and shall not be issuable by the Corporation as shares of Preferred Stock.

8. Reissuance of Series 2 Common Stock. In the event that any shares of Series 2 Common Stock shall be converted pursuant to Section 4, repurchased or otherwise reacquired by the Corporation, the shares so converted, repurchased or otherwise reacquired shall be retired and cancelled and shall not be issuable by the Corporation as shares of Series 2 Common Stock.

9. Certain Distributions. For purposes of Section 500 of the California Corporations Code, distributions by the Corporation may be made without regard to any preferential rights or preferential dividends arrears amount.

ARTICLE VI

The Corporation is to have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VII

Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the Bylaws of the Corporation shall provide otherwise.

ARTICLE VIII

The number of directors which shall constitute the initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be one. Thereafter, unless otherwise set forth herein, the number of directors which constitute the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors of the Corporation is expressly authorized to adopt, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

1. To the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law as the same exists or as may hereafter be amended, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director. If the General Corporation Law is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law as so amended.

2. The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended from time to time, any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "Proceeding") by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any such Proceeding.

3. Neither any amendment nor repeal of this ARTICLE X, nor the adoption of any provision of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation inconsistent with this ARTICLE X, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this ARTICLE X, in respect of any matter occurring, or any action or proceeding accruing or arising or that, but for this ARTICLE X, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

4. Any failure of a director without a conflict of interest (as described in Section 365(c) of the Delaware General Corporation Law) to satisfy a balancing requirement in Section 365 of the General Corporation Law shall not, for the purposes of Section 102(b)(7) or Section 145 of the General Corporation Law, constitute an act or omission not in good faith, or a breach of the duty of loyalty.

ARTICLE XI

1. The Corporation shall (i) provide its stockholders a public benefit statement satisfying the requirements of Section 366(b) of the General Corporation Law (the "Statement") no less than annually, and (ii) use a third-party standard in connection with, and attain a periodic third party certification addressing, the Corporation's promotion of the public benefits identified in this Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the best interests of those materially affected by the Corporation's conduct.

2. For purposes of this Article XI, the term "third-party standard" shall mean a credible standard for defining, reporting, and assessing the Corporation's performance in achieving the public benefits identified in this Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation that: (i) assesses the effect of the Corporation's business and operations on all of the interests materially affected by the Corporation's conduct; (ii) is developed by an organization that is not under the control of the Corporation and its affiliates; (iii) has information publicly available concerning (A) the criteria and relative weighting of the standard uses to assess the Corporation's performance in achieving the public benefits identified in this Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, (B) the process by which the standard is developed and revised, and (C) the independence of the organization that developed and/or revised the standard vis-à-vis the Corporation and its controlled affiliates and its and their directors, officers, managers, employees and agents.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
HEROIC ENTERPRISES, PUBLIC BENEFIT CORPORATION

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF HEROIC ENTERPRISES, PUBLIC BENEFIT CORPORATION

ARTICLE I STOCKHOLDERS

1.1 Place of Meetings. All meetings of stockholders of the corporation (as defined herein) shall be held at such place (if any) within or without the State of Delaware as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors, the President or Chief Executive Officer. For all purposes of these Bylaws, the term "corporation" shall refer to Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, a public benefit corporation formed under Subchapter XV of the Delaware General Corporation Law, and the term "Bylaws" shall refer to these Amended and Restated Bylaws of the corporation, as may be amended from time to time.

1.2 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting shall be held on a date to be fixed by the Board of Directors at the time and place to be fixed by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. In lieu of holding an annual meeting of stockholders at a designated place, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that any annual meeting of stockholders may be held solely by means of remote communication.

1.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the holders of record of not less than 10% of all shares entitled to cast votes at the meeting, for any purpose or purposes prescribed in the notice of the meeting and shall be held at such place (if any), on such date and at such time as the Board may fix. In lieu of holding a special meeting of stockholders at a designated place, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that any special meeting of stockholders may be held solely by means of remote communication. Business transacted at any special meeting of stockholders shall be confined to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice of meeting. Upon request in writing sent by registered mail to the President or Chief Executive Officer by any stockholder or stockholders entitled to request a special meeting of stockholders pursuant to this Section 1.3, and containing the information required pursuant to Sections 1.10 and 2.15, as applicable, the Board of Directors shall determine a place and time for such meeting, which time shall be not less than 10 nor more than 30 days after the receipt of such request and a record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting shall be fixed by the Board of Directors, in advance, which shall not be more than 15 days nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting. Following such receipt of a request and determination by the Secretary of the validity thereof, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to present the request to the Board of Directors, and upon Board action as provided in this Section 1.3, to cause notice to be given to the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, in the manner set forth in Section 1.4, hereof, that a meeting will be held at the place, if any, and time so determined, for the purposes set forth in the stockholder's request, as well as any purpose or purposes determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with this Section 1.3.

1.4 Notice of Meetings.

(a) Written notice of each meeting of stockholders, whether annual or special, shall be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date on which the meeting is to be held, to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting, except as otherwise provided herein or as required by law (meaning here and hereafter, as required from time to time by the Delaware General Corporation Law or the Certificate of Incorporation). The notice of any meeting shall state the place, if any, date and hour of the meeting, and the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting. The notice of a special meeting shall state, in addition, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. If mailed, notice is given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, directed to the stockholder at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law, notice to stockholders may be given by personal delivery, mail, or, with the consent of the stockholder entitled to receive notice, by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission, provided that no such consent is required for notice by electronic mail (email) unless the stockholder has notified the corporation in writing or by electronic transmission of an objection to receiving notice by electronic mail or such notice is prohibited by Section 232(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law. A notice by electronic mail must include a prominent legend that the communication is an important notice of the corporation (which electronic mail shall be deemed to include any files attached thereto and any information hyperlinked to a website if such electronic mail includes the contact information of an officer or agent of the corporation who is available to assist with accessing such files and information). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a notice may not be given by electronic transmission from and after the time that (i) the corporation is unable to deliver by such electronic transmission two consecutive notices by the corporation and (ii) such inability becomes known to the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation or to the transfer agent or other person responsible for the giving notice, provided, however, that the inadvertent failure to such inability shall not invalidate any meeting or other action. If mailed, such notice shall be delivered by U.S. mail, postage prepaid, directed to each stockholder at such stockholder's address as it appears in the records of the corporation and shall be deemed given when deposited in the United States mail. If delivered by courier service, the notice shall be deemed given upon the earlier of when the notice is received or left at such stockholder's address. Notice given by electronic transmission pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed given: (1) if by facsimile telecommunication, when directed to a facsimile telecommunication number at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (2) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address of the stockholder; (3) if by posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the stockholder of such specific posting, upon the later of (A) such posting and (B) the giving of such separate notice; and (4) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the stockholder. An affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary or of the transfer agent or other agent of the corporation that the notice has been given by personal delivery, by mail, or by a form of electronic transmission shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

(c) Notice of any meeting of stockholders need not be given to any stockholder if waived by such stockholder either in a writing signed by such stockholder or by electronic transmission by the stockholder, whether such waiver is given before or after such meeting is held. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of object at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

1.5 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the corporation shall prepare, at least 10 days before each meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order for each class of stock and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any such stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least 10 days prior to the meeting, in the manner provided by law. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time of the meeting, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. This list shall determine the identity of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting and the number of shares held by each of them.

1.6 Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws, the holders of a majority of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Where a separate class vote by a class or classes or series is required, a majority of the shares of such class or classes or series present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum entitled to take action with respect to that vote on that matter.

1.7 Adjournments. Any meeting of stockholders may be adjourned to any other time and to any other place at which a meeting of stockholders may be held under these Bylaws by the chairman of the meeting or, in the absence of such person, by any officer entitled to preside at or to act as secretary of such meeting, or by the holders of a majority of the shares of stock present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote, although less than a quorum. When a meeting is adjourned to another place, date or time, written notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the date, time, and place, if any, thereof, and the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting, are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken; provided, however, that if the date of any adjourned meeting is more than 30 days after the date for which the meeting was originally noticed, or if a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, written notice of the place, if any, date, and time of the adjourned meeting and the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting, shall be given in conformity herewith. At the adjourned meeting, the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

1.8 Voting and Proxies. Each stockholder shall have one vote for each share of stock entitled to vote held of record by such stockholder and a proportionate vote for each fractional share so held, unless otherwise provided by law or in the Certificate of Incorporation. Each stockholder of record entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders may vote in person or may authorize any other person or persons to vote or act for him by written proxy executed by the stockholder or his authorized agent or by a transmission permitted by law and delivered to the Secretary of the corporation. Any copy, facsimile transmission or other reliable reproduction of the writing or transmission created pursuant to this Section may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or transmission for any and all purposes for which the original writing or transmission could be used, provided that such copy, facsimile transmission or other reproduction shall be a complete reproduction of the entire original writing or transmission.

1.9 Action at Meeting. When a quorum is present at any meeting, any election of directors shall be determined by a plurality of the votes cast by the stockholders entitled to vote at the election, and any other matter shall be determined by a majority in voting power of the shares entitled to vote on the matter (or if there are two or more classes of stock entitled to vote as separate classes, then in the case of each such class, a majority of the voting power of the shares of each such class entitled to vote on the matter) shall decide such matter, except when a different vote is required by express provision of law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

All voting, including on the election of directors, but excepting where otherwise required by law, may be by a voice vote; provided, however, that upon demand therefor by a stockholder entitled to vote or his or her proxy, a vote by ballot shall be taken. Each ballot shall state the name of the stockholder or proxy voting and such other information as may be required under the procedure established for the meeting. The corporation may, and to the extent required by law, shall, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting and make a written report thereof. The corporation may designate one or more persons as an alternate inspector to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate is able to act at a meeting of stockholders, the person presiding at the meeting may, and to the extent required by law, shall, appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and sign an oath to faithfully execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability.

1.10 Conduct of Business. At every meeting of the stockholders, the Chairman of the Board, or, in his or her absence, the President, or, in his or her absence, such other person as may be appointed by the Board of Directors, shall act as chairman. The Secretary of the corporation or a person designated by the chairman of the meeting shall act as secretary of the meeting. Unless otherwise approved by the chairman of the meeting, attendance at the stockholders' meeting is restricted to stockholders of record, persons authorized in accordance with Section 1.8 of these Bylaws to act by proxy, and officers of the corporation.

The chairman of the meeting shall call the meeting to order, establish the agenda, and conduct the business of the meeting in accordance therewith or, at the chairman's discretion, it may be conducted otherwise in accordance with the wishes of the stockholders in attendance. The date and time of the opening and closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at the meeting shall be announced at the meeting.

The chairman shall also conduct the meeting in an orderly manner, rule on the precedence of, and procedure on, motions and other procedural matters, and exercise discretion with respect to such procedural matters with fairness and good faith toward all those entitled to take part. Without limiting the foregoing, the chairman may (a) restrict attendance at any time to bona fide stockholders of record and their proxies and other persons in attendance at the invitation of the presiding officer or Board of Directors, (b) restrict use of audio or video recording devices at the meeting, and (c) impose reasonable limits on the amount of time taken up at the meeting on discussion in general or on remarks by any one stockholder. Should any person in attendance become unruly or obstruct the meeting proceedings, the chairman shall have the power to have such person removed from the meeting. Notwithstanding anything in the Bylaws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at a meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.10. The chairman of a meeting may determine and declare to the meeting that any proposed item of business was not brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1.10 and Section 1.9, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted.

1.11 Stockholder Action Without Meeting. Any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes which would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and is delivered to the corporation in the manner required by the Delaware General Corporation Law. No consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless consents signed by a sufficient number of stockholders to take action are delivered to the corporation within 60 days of the first date on which a consent is so delivered. All such consents shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation and shall be maintained in the corporate records. Prompt notice of the taking of a corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

An electronic transmission consenting to an action to be taken and transmitted by a stockholder, or by a proxy holder or other person authorized to act for a stockholder, shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for the purpose of this Section 1.11, provided that such electronic transmission sets forth or is delivered with information from which the corporation can determine (i) that the electronic transmission was transmitted by the stockholder or by a person authorized to act for the stockholder and (ii) the date on which such stockholder or authorized person transmitted such electronic transmission. The date on which such electronic transmission is transmitted shall be deemed to be the date on which such consent was signed. No consent given by electronic transmission shall be deemed to have been delivered until such consent is reproduced in paper form and until such paper form shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, its principal place of business or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the books in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded.

1.12 Meetings by Remote Communication. If authorized by the Board of Directors, and subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board may adopt, stockholders and proxy holders not physically present at a meeting of stockholders may, by means of remote communication, participate in the meeting and be deemed present in person and vote at the meeting, whether such meeting is to be held at a designated place or solely by means of remote communication, provided that (i) the corporation shall implement reasonable measures to verify that each person deemed present and permitted to vote at the meeting by means of remote communication is a stockholder or proxy holder, (ii) the corporation shall implement reasonable measures to provide such stockholders and proxy holders a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the stockholders, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with such proceedings, and (iii) if any stockholder or proxy holder votes or takes other action at the meeting by means of remote communication, a record of such vote or other action shall be maintained by the corporation.

ARTICLE II BOARD OF DIRECTORS

2.1 General Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who may exercise all of the powers of the corporation except as otherwise provided by law or the Certificate of Incorporation. In the event of a vacancy in the Board of Directors, the remaining directors, except as otherwise provided by law, may exercise the powers of the full Board until the vacancy is filled.

2.2 Number and Term of Office. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock to elect directors under specified circumstances, the number of directors shall initially be one (1) and, thereafter, shall be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board for adoption). All directors shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until their respective successors are elected, except in the case of the death, resignation or removal of any director.

2.3 Vacancies and Newly Created Directorships. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors or any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or other cause (including removal from office by a vote of the stockholders) may be filled only by a majority vote of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum (and not by stockholders), or by the sole remaining director, or, to the extent required by the Certificate of Incorporation, by the stockholders, and directors so chosen shall hold office for a term expiring at the next annual meeting of stockholders at which the term of office of the class to which they have been elected expires or until such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of authorized directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

2.4 Resignation. Any director may resign by delivering notice in writing or by electronic transmission to the President, Chairman of the Board or Secretary. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event.

2.5 Removal. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, any directors, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all of the outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

2.6 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; provided that any director who is absent when such a determination is made shall be given notice of the determination. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without notice immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of stockholders.

2.7 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President or two or more directors and may be held at any time and place, within or without the State of Delaware.

2.8 Notice of Special Meetings. Notice of any special meeting of directors shall be given to each director by whom it is not waived by the Secretary or by the officer or one of the directors calling the meeting. Notice shall be duly given to each director by (i) giving notice to such director in person or by telephone, electronic transmission or voice message system at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting, (ii) sending a facsimile to his last known facsimile number, or delivering written notice by hand to his last known business or home address, at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting, or (iii) mailing written notice to his last known business or home address at least three days in advance of the meeting. A notice or waiver of notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors need not specify the purposes of the meeting. Unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all business may be transacted at a special meeting.

2.9 Participation in Meetings by Telephone Conference Calls or Other Methods of Communication. Directors or any members of any committee designated by the directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

2.10 Quorum. A majority of the total number of authorized directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or at a meeting of a committee which authorizes a particular contract or transaction.

2.11 Action at Meeting. At any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, the vote of a majority of those present shall be sufficient to take any action, unless a different vote is specified by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

2.12 Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent to the action in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writings or electronic transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee. Such filing shall be in paper form if the minutes are maintained in paper form and shall be in electronic form if the minutes are maintained in electronic form.

2.13 Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation, with such lawfully delegated powers and duties as it therefor confers, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members of the committee present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors and subject to the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. Each such committee shall keep minutes and make such reports as the Board of Directors may from time to time request. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise determine, any committee may make rules for the conduct of its business, but unless otherwise provided by such rules, its business shall be conducted as nearly as possible in the same manner as is provided in these Bylaws for the Board of Directors.

2.14 Compensation of Directors. Directors may be paid such compensation for their services and such reimbursement for expenses of attendance at meetings as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the corporation or any of its parent or subsidiary corporations in any other capacity and receiving compensation for such service.

2.15 Nomination of Director Candidates. Subject to the rights of holders of any class or series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, nominations for the election of Directors may be made by (i) the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee thereof or (ii) any stockholder entitled to vote in the election of Directors.

ARTICLE III OFFICERS

3.1 Enumeration. The officers of the corporation shall consist of a Chief Executive Officer, a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Chief Financial Officer and such other officers with such other titles as the Board of Directors shall determine, including, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, a Chairman of the Board and one or more Vice Presidents and Assistant Secretaries. The Board of Directors may appoint such other officers as it may deem appropriate.

3.2 Election. Officers shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of stockholders. Officers may be appointed by the Board of Directors at any other meeting.

3.3 Qualification. No officer need be a stockholder. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

3.4 Tenure. Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, each officer shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified, unless a different term is specified in the vote appointing him, or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

3.5 Resignation and Removal. Any officer may resign by delivering his written resignation to the corporation at its principal office or to the President or Secretary. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors.

3.6 Chairman of the Board. The Board of Directors may appoint a Chairman of the Board. If the Board of Directors appoints a Chairman of the Board, he shall perform such duties and possess such powers as are assigned to him by the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors.

3.7 Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer of the corporation shall, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors, have general supervision, direction and control of the business and the officers of the corporation. He shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and, in the absence or nonexistence of a Chairman of the Board, at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation, including general supervision, direction and control of the business and supervision of other officers of the corporation, and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws.

3.8 President. Subject to the direction of the Board of Directors and such supervisory powers as may be given by these Bylaws or the Board of Directors to the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer, if such titles be held by other officers, the President shall have general supervision, direction and control of the business and supervision of other officers of the corporation. Unless otherwise designated by the Board of Directors, the President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation. The President shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws. He or she shall have power to sign stock certificates, contracts and other instruments of the corporation which are authorized and shall have general supervision and direction of all of the other officers, employees and agents of the corporation, other than the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer.

3.9 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President shall perform such duties and possess such powers as the Board of Directors or the President may from time to time prescribe. In the event of the absence, inability or refusal to act of the President, the Vice President (or if there shall be more than one, the Vice Presidents in the order determined by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President and when so performing shall have at the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. The Board of Directors may assign to any Vice President the title of Executive Vice President, Senior Vice President or any other title selected by the Board of Directors.

3.10 Secretary and Assistant Secretaries. The Secretary shall perform such duties and shall have such powers as the Board of Directors or the President may from time to time prescribe. In addition, the Secretary shall perform such duties and have such powers as are incident to the office of the Secretary, including, without limitation, the duty and power to give notices of all meetings of stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, to keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings of stockholders and the Board of Directors, to maintain a stock ledger and prepare lists of stockholders and their addresses as required, to be custodian of corporate records and the corporate seal and to affix and attest to the same on documents.

Any Assistant Secretary shall perform such duties and possess such powers as the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary may from time to time prescribe. In the event of the absence, inability or refusal to act of the Secretary, the Assistant Secretary (or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries in the order determined by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary.

In the absence of the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary at any meeting of stockholders or directors, the person presiding at the meeting shall designate a temporary secretary to keep a record of the meeting.

3.11 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall perform such duties and have such powers as are incident to the office of treasurer, including without limitation, the duty and power to keep and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation, to maintain the financial records of the corporation, to deposit funds of the corporation in depositories as authorized, to disburse such funds as authorized, to make proper accounts of such funds, and to render as required by the Board of Directors accounts of all such transactions and of the financial condition of the corporation.

3.12 Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer shall perform such duties and shall have such powers as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President. Unless otherwise designated by the Board of Directors, the Chief Financial Officer shall be the Treasurer of the corporation.

3.13 Salaries. Officers of the corporation shall be entitled to such salaries, compensation or reimbursement as shall be fixed or allowed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

3.14 Delegation of Authority. The Board of Directors may from time to time delegate the powers or duties of any officer to any other officers or agents, notwithstanding any provision hereof.

ARTICLE IV CAPITAL STOCK

4.1 Issuance of Stock. Subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, the whole or any part of any unissued balance of the authorized capital stock of the corporation or the whole or any part of any unissued balance of the authorized capital stock of the corporation held in its treasury may be issued, sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by vote of the Board of Directors in such manner, for such consideration and on such terms as the Board of Directors may determine.

4.2 Certificates of Stock. The shares of the corporation shall be represented by certificates, provided that the Board of Directors may provide by resolution or resolutions that some or all of any class or series of its stock shall be uncertificated shares; provided, however, that no such resolution shall apply to shares represented by a certificate until such certificate is surrendered to the corporation. Every holder of stock of the corporation represented by certificates shall be entitled to have a certificate, in such form as may be prescribed by law and by the Board of Directors, certifying the number and class of shares owned by him in the corporation. Each such certificate shall be signed by, or in the name of the corporation by, the Chairman or Vice Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors, or the President or a Vice President, and the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile.

Each certificate for shares of stock which are subject to any restriction on transfer pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws, applicable securities laws or any agreement among any number of shareholders or among such holders and the corporation shall have conspicuously noted on the face or back of the certificate either the full text of the restriction or a statement of the existence of such restriction.

4.3 Transfers. Except as otherwise established by rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors, and subject to applicable law, shares of stock may be transferred on the books of the corporation: (i) in the case of shares represented by a certificate, by the surrender to the corporation or its transfer agent of the certificate representing such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a written assignment or power of attorney properly executed, and with such proof of authority or authenticity of signature as the corporation or its transfer agent may reasonably require; and (ii) in the case of uncertificated shares, upon the receipt of proper transfer instructions from the registered owner thereof. Except as may be otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws, the corporation shall be entitled to treat the record holder of stock as shown on its books as the owner of such stock for all purposes, including the payment of dividends and the right to vote with respect to such stock, regardless of any transfer, pledge or other disposition of such stock until the shares have been transferred on the books of the corporation in accordance with the requirements of these Bylaws.

4.4 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. The corporation may issue a new certificate of stock in place of any previously issued certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, or it may issue uncertificated shares if the shares represented by such certificate have been designated as uncertificated shares in accordance with Section 4.2, upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may prescribe, including the presentation of reasonable evidence of such loss, theft or destruction and the giving of such indemnity as the Board of Directors may require for the protection of the corporation or any transfer agent or registrar.

4.5 Record Date. The Board of Directors may fix in advance a record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights in respect of any change, concession or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action. Such record date shall not precede the date on which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted and shall not be more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action to which such record date relates.

If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day before the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day before the day on which the meeting is held. If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting when no prior action by the Board of Directors is necessary shall be the day on which the first written consent is expressed. The record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating to such purpose.

A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

4.6 Restrictions on Transfer; Right of First Refusal.

(a) No stockholder shall sell, assign, pledge, or in any manner transfer any of the shares of stock of the corporation or any right or interest therein, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, or by gift or otherwise, except by a transfer which meets the requirements hereinafter set forth in this Section 4.6(a):

(1) If the stockholder desires to sell or otherwise transfer any of his shares of stock, then the stockholder shall first give written notice thereof to the corporation. The notice shall name the proposed transferee and state the number of shares to be transferred, the proposed consideration, and all other terms and conditions of the proposed transfer.

(2) For 30 days following receipt of such notice, the corporation shall have the option to purchase all or a portion of the shares specified in the notice at the price and upon the terms set forth in such notice. In the event of a gift, property settlement or other transfer in which the proposed transferee is not paying the full price for the shares, and that is not otherwise exempted from the provisions of this Section 4.6(a), the price shall be deemed to be the fair market value of the stock at such time as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors. In the event the corporation elects to purchase all of the shares or a lesser portion of the shares, it shall give written notice to the transferring stockholder of its election and settlement for said shares shall be made as provided below Section 4.6(a)(4).

(3) The corporation may assign its rights hereunder.

(4) In the event the corporation and/or its assignee(s) elect to acquire any of the shares of the transferring stockholder as specified in said transferring stockholder's notice, the Secretary of the corporation shall so notify the transferring stockholder and settlement thereof shall be made in cash within thirty (30) days after the Secretary of the corporation receives said transferring stockholder's notice; provided, that if the terms of payment set forth in said transferring stockholder's notice were other than cash against delivery, the corporation and/or its assignee(s) shall pay for said shares on the same terms and conditions set forth in said transferring stockholder's notice.

(5) In the event the corporation and/or its assignees(s) do not elect to acquire all of the shares specified in the transferring stockholder's notice, said transferring stockholder may, within the sixty-day period following the expiration of the option rights granted to the corporation and/or its assignees(s) herein, transfer the shares specified in said transferring stockholder's notice which were not acquired by the corporation and/or its assignees(s) as specified in said transferring stockholder's notice. All shares so sold by said transferring stockholder shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this Section 4.6(a) in the same manner as before said transfer.

(6) If a stockholder is subject to an agreement to which the corporation is party which subjects the stockholder to a right of first refusal with respect to a transfer of shares of common stock, the right of first refusal provisions in such agreement shall govern instead of this Section 4.6(a).

(b) In addition to the restriction set forth in Section 4.6(a) above, no stockholder shall sell, assign, pledge, or in any manner transfer any of the shares of stock of the corporation or any right or interest therein, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, or by gift or otherwise without the prior consent of the corporation, upon duly authorized action of its Board of Directors. Without in any way limiting the basis on which the corporation may elect not to consent to a sale, assignment, pledge or transfer, the corporation does not at any time intend to consent to any requested sale, assignment, pledge or transfer (i) to individuals, companies or any other form of entity identified by the corporation as a potential competitor or considered by the corporation to be unfriendly, or (ii) if such sale, assignment, pledge or transfer increases the risk of the corporation being required to register a class of securities pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 12g5-1 promulgated thereunder, or otherwise requiring the corporation to register any class of securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (iii) if such sale, assignment, pledge or transfer would result in the loss of any federal or state securities law exemption relied upon by the corporation in connection with the initial issuance of such shares or the issuance of any other securities; or (iv) if such sale, assignment, pledge or transfer is facilitated in any manner by any public posting, message board, trading portal, internet site, or similar method of communication, including without limitation any trading portal or internet site intended to facilitate secondary transfers of securities; or (v) if such sale, assignment, pledge or transfer is to be effected in a brokered transaction; or (vi) if such sale, assignment, pledge or transfer represents a sale, assignment, pledge or transfer of less than all of the shares then held by the stockholder and its affiliates or is to be made to more than a single transferee. All shares sold, assigned, pledged or transferred with the corporation's consent pursuant to this Section 4.6(b) shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this Section 4.6(b) in the same manner as before said sale, assignment, pledge or transfer.

(c) Anything to the contrary contained herein notwithstanding, the following transactions shall be exempt from the provisions of this Section 4.6:

(1) A stockholder's transfer of any or all shares held either during such stockholder's lifetime or on death by will or intestacy to such stockholder's immediate family or to any custodian or trustee for the account of such stockholder or such stockholder's immediate family or to any limited partnership of which the stockholder, members of such stockholder's immediate family or any trust for the account of such stockholder or such stockholder's immediate family will be the general of limited partner(s) of such partnership. "Immediate family" as used in this Section 4.6 shall mean spouse, lineal descendant, father, mother, brother, or sister of the stockholder making such transfer.

(2) A stockholder's transfer of any or all of such stockholder's shares to the corporation pursuant to a stock restriction agreement or other agreement between the corporation and the stockholder.

(3) A stockholder's transfer of any or all such stockholder's shares to the public pursuant to a registration statement filed with, and declared effective by, the Securities Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(4) A corporate stockholder's transfer of any or all of its shares pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of any merger, consolidation, reclassification of shares or capital reorganization of the corporate stockholder, or pursuant to a sale of all or substantially all of the stock or assets of a corporate stockholder.

(5) A corporate stockholder's transfer of any or all of its shares to any or all of its stockholders.

(6) A transfer by a stockholder that is a limited or general partnership to any or all of its partners or former partners.

(7) A transfer by a stockholder that is a limited liability company to any or all of its members or former members.

In any such case, the transferee, assignee, or other recipient shall receive and hold such stock subject to the provisions of this Section 4.6, and there shall be no further transfer of such stock except in accord with this Section 4.6.

(d) The provisions of this Section 4.6 may be waived with respect to any transfer either by the corporation, upon duly authorized action of the Board of Directors, or by the stockholders, upon the express written consent of the owners of a majority of the voting power of the corporation (excluding the votes represented by those shares to be transferred by the transferring stockholder). This Section 4.6 may be amended or repealed either by a duly authorized action of the Board of Directors, or by the stockholders upon the express written consent of the owners of a majority of the voting power of the corporation.

(e) Any sale or transfer, or purported sale or transfer, of securities of the corporation shall be null and void unless the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Section 4.6 are strictly observed and followed.

(f) The foregoing right of first refusal and restriction on transfer shall terminate upon the date securities of the corporation are first offered to the public pursuant to a registration statement filed with, and declared effective by, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(g) The certificates representing shares of stock of the corporation shall bear on their face the following legends so long as the foregoing right of first refusal and restriction on transfer remains in effect:

“THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL OPTION IN FAVOR OF THE COMPANY AND/OR ITS ASSIGNEE(S), AS PROVIDED IN THE AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF THE COMPANY, AS MAY BE AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME.”

“THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE COMPANY, AS PROVIDED IN THE AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF THE COMPANY, AS MAY BE AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME.”

ARTICLE V GENERAL PROVISIONS

5.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be as fixed by the Board of Directors.

5.2 Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

5.3 Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice whatsoever is required to be given by law, by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, a waiver of such notice either in writing signed by the person entitled to such notice or such person's duly authorized attorney, or by electronic transmission or any other method permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, whether before, at or after the time stated in such waiver, or the appearance of such person or persons at such meeting in person or by proxy, shall be deemed equivalent to such notice. Neither the business nor the purpose of any meeting need be specified in such a waiver. Attendance at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice except attendance for the sole purpose of objecting to the timeliness of notice.

5.4 Actions with Respect to Securities of Other Corporations. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise designate, the Chief Executive Officer or President or any officer of the corporation authorized by the Chief Executive Officer or President shall have the power to vote and otherwise act on behalf of the corporation, in person or proxy, and may waive notice of, and act as, or appoint any person or persons to act as, proxy or attorney-in-fact to this corporation (with or without power of substitution) at any meeting of stockholders or shareholders (or with respect to any action of stockholders) of any other corporation or organization, the securities of which may be held by this corporation and otherwise to exercise any and all rights and powers which this corporation may possess by reason of this corporation's ownership of securities in such other corporation or other organization.

5.5 Evidence of Authority. A certificate by the Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary, or a temporary Secretary, as to any action taken by the stockholders, directors, a committee or any officer or representative of the corporation shall as to all persons who rely on the certificate in good faith be conclusive evidence of such action.

5.6 Certificate of Incorporation. All references in these Bylaws to the Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to the Certificate of Incorporation of the corporation, as amended and in effect from time to time.

5.7 Severability. Any determination that any provision of these Bylaws is for any reason inapplicable, illegal or ineffective shall not affect or invalidate any other provision of these Bylaws.

5.8 Pronouns. All pronouns used in these Bylaws shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

5.9 Notices. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein or required by law, all notices required to be given to any stockholder, director, officer, employee or agent shall be in writing and may in every instance be effectively given by hand delivery to the recipient thereof, by depositing such notice in the mails, postage paid, or by sending such notice by commercial courier service, or by facsimile or other electronic transmission, provided that notice to stockholders by electronic transmission shall be given in the manner provided in Section 232 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Any such notice shall be addressed to such stockholder, director, officer, employee or agent at his or her last known address as the same appears on the books of the corporation. The time when such notice shall be deemed to be given shall be the time such notice is received by such stockholder, director, officer, employee or agent, or by any person accepting such notice on behalf of such person, if delivered by hand, facsimile, other electronic transmission or commercial courier service, or the time such notice is dispatched, if delivered through the mails. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively and subject to Section 232 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, notice to any stockholder shall be deemed given: (1) if by facsimile, when directed to a number at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (2) if by electronic mail (email) to the stockholder's electronic mail address unless the stockholder has notified the corporation in writing or by electronic transmission of an objection to receiving notice by electronic mail or such notice is prohibited by Section 232(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law; (2) if by a posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the stockholder of such specific posting, upon the later of (A) such posting and (B) the giving of such separate notice; (4) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the stockholder; and (5) if by mail, when deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, directed to the stockholder at such stockholder's address as it appears on the records of the corporation. A notice by electronic mail to stockholders must include a prominent legend that the communication is an important notice of the corporation (which electronic mail shall be deemed to include any files attached thereto and any information hyperlinked to a website if such electronic mail includes the contact information of an officer or agent of the corporation who is available to assist with accessing such files and information).

5.10 Reliance Upon Books, Reports and Records. Each director, each member of any committee designated by the Board of Directors, and each officer of the corporation shall, in the performance of his duties, be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the books of account or other records of the corporation as provided by law, including reports made to the corporation by any of its officers, by an independent certified public accountant, or by an appraiser selected with reasonable care.

5.11 Time Periods. In applying any provision of these Bylaws which require that an act be done or not done a specified number of days prior to an event or that an act be done during a period of a specified number of days prior to an event, calendar days shall be used, the day of the doing of the act shall be excluded, and the day of the event shall be included.

5.12 Facsimile Signatures. In addition to the provisions for use of facsimile signatures elsewhere specifically authorized in these Bylaws, facsimile signatures of any officer or officers of the corporation may be used whenever and as authorized by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof.

5.13 Annual Report. For so long as the corporation has fewer than 100 holders of record of its shares, the mandatory requirement of an annual report under Section 1501 of the California Corporations Code, to the extent that it might otherwise apply, is hereby expressly waived.

ARTICLE VI AMENDMENTS

6.1 By the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise set forth in these Bylaws, and subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present.

6.2 By the Stockholders. Except as otherwise set forth in these Bylaws, and subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all of the shares of capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote generally in any election of directors, voting together as a single class. Such vote may be held at any annual meeting of stockholders, or at any special meeting of stockholders provided that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws shall have been stated in the notice of such special meeting.

ARTICLE VII INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

7.1 Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative ("proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, or as a controlling person of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer, or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said Law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment) against all expenses, liability and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in Section 7.2 of this Article VII, the corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if (a) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law, (b) the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the corporation, (c) such indemnification is provided by the corporation, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the corporation under the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (d) the proceeding (or part thereof) is brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification or advancement under an indemnity agreement or any other statute or law or otherwise as required under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. The rights hereunder shall be contract rights and shall include the right to be paid expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer of the corporation in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is tendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Section or otherwise.

7.2 Right of Claimant to Bring Suit. If a claim under Section 7.1 is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, or 20 days in the case of a claim for advancement of expenses, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if such suit is not frivolous or brought in bad faith, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any, has been tendered to this corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Delaware General Corporation Law for the corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct. In any suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that the indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the corporation.

7.3 Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification, and to the advancement of related expenses, to any employee or agent of the corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article with respect to the indemnification of and advancement of expenses to directors and officers of the corporation.

7.4 Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any person in this Article VII shall not be exclusive of any other right which such persons may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

7.5 Indemnification Contracts. The Board of Directors is authorized to enter into a contract with any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or any person serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including employee benefit plans, providing for indemnification rights equivalent to or, if the Board of Directors so determines, greater than, those provided for in this Article VII.

7.6 Insurance. The corporation may maintain insurance to the extent reasonably available, at its expense, to protect itself and any such director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

7.7 Effect of Amendment. Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Article VII shall not adversely affect any right or protection of an indemnitee or his successor existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.

All action on Subscriber’s part required for the lawful execution and delivery of this Subscription Agreement and other agreements required hereunder have been or will be effectively taken prior to the Closing. Upon their execution and delivery, this Subscription Agreement and other agreements required hereunder will be valid and binding obligations of Subscriber, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors’ rights and (b) as limited by general principles of equity that restrict the availability of equitable remedies.

(c) Manner of Holding. Subscriber understands that the Subscriber is investing into the Company, which will serve as a “crowdfunding vehicle” for an investment between the Company and the Crowdfunding Issuer. The Company will maintain records of securityholders and provide rights as if the Subscriber invested directly into the Crowdfunding Issuer.

(d) Illiquidity and Continued Economic Risk. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that there is no ready public market for the Securities and that there is no guarantee that a market for their resale will ever exist. Subscriber must bear the economic risk of this investment indefinitely and the Company has no obligation to list the Securities on any market or take any steps (including registration under the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) with respect to facilitating trading or resale of the Securities. Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber is able to bear the economic risk of losing Subscriber’s entire investment in the Securities. Subscriber also understands that an investment in the Company involves significant risks and has taken full cognizance of and understands all of the risk factors relating to the purchase of Securities.

The Subscriber acknowledges that the price of the Securities was set by the Crowdfunding Issuer on the basis of the Crowdfunding Issuer's internal valuation and no warranties are made as to value. The Subscriber further acknowledges that future offerings of Securities may be made at lower valuations, with the result that the Subscriber's investment will bear a lower valuation.

(j) Domicile. Subscriber maintains Subscriber's domicile (and is not a transient or temporary resident) at the address provided with Subscriber's subscription.

(k) Foreign Investors. If Subscriber is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), Subscriber hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any invitation to subscribe for the Securities or any use of this Subscription Agreement, including (i) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of the Securities, (ii) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase, (iii) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained, and (iv) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, redemption, sale, or transfer of the Securities. Subscriber's subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of the Securities will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of the Subscriber's jurisdiction.

6. Indemnity. The representations, warranties and covenants made by the Subscriber herein shall survive the closing of this Agreement. The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, the Crowdfunding Issuer and their respective officers, directors and affiliates, and each other person, if any, who controls the Company or the Crowdfunding Issuer, as the case may be, within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever (including, but not limited to, any and all reasonable attorneys' fees, including attorneys' fees on appeal) and expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any false representation or warranty or breach of failure by the Subscriber to comply with any covenant or agreement made by the Subscriber herein or in any other document furnished by the Subscriber to any of the foregoing in connection with this transaction.

7. Transfer Restrictions.

(a) "Market Stand-Off" Agreement. The Subscriber hereby agrees that it will not, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter, during the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the Crowdfunding Issuer's first underwritten public offering (the "IPO") of its Common Stock under the Securities Act, and ending on the date specified by the Crowdfunding Issuer and the managing underwriter(s) (such period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, or such other period as may be requested by the Crowdfunding Issuer or an underwriter to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (i) the publication or other distribution of research reports, and (ii) analyst recommendations and opinions): (A) lend; offer; pledge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Common Stock (whether such shares or any such securities are then owned by the Subscriber or are thereafter acquired); or (B) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities; whether any such transaction described in clause (A) or (B) above is to be settled by delivery of Common Stock or other securities, in cash, or otherwise. The foregoing provisions of this Section 7(a) will: (x) apply only to the IPO and will not apply to the sale of any shares to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement; (y) not apply to the transfer of any shares to any trust for the direct or indirect benefit of the Subscriber or the immediate family of the Subscriber, provided that the trustee of the trust agrees to be bound in writing by the restrictions set forth herein, and provided further that any such transfer will not involve a disposition for value; and (z) be applicable to the Subscriber only if all officers and directors of the Crowdfunding Issuer are subject to the same restrictions and the Crowdfunding Issuer uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a similar agreement from all stockholders individually owning more than 5% of the outstanding Common Stock. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the underwriters in connection with the IPO are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Section 7(a) and will have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto. The Subscriber further agrees to execute such agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters in connection with the IPO that are consistent with this Section 7(a) or that are necessary to give further effect thereto.

In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Crowdfunding Issuer may impose stop transfer instructions with respect to the Subscriber's registrable securities of the Crowdfunding Issuer (and the Crowdfunding Issuer shares or securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of such period. The Subscriber agrees that a legend reading substantially as follows may be placed on all certificates representing all of such Subscriber's registrable securities of the Crowdfunding Issuer (and the Crowdfunding Issuer shares or securities of every other person subject to the restriction contained in this Section 7(a)):

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A LOCK-UP PERIOD BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT OF HEROIC ENTERPRISES, PUBLIC BENEFIT CORPORATION ("HEROIC"), FILED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AS SET FORTH IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN HEROIC AND THE ORIGINAL HOLDER OF THESE SECURITIES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT HEROIC'S PRINCIPAL OFFICE. SUCH LOCK-UP PERIOD IS BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SECURITIES.

(b) Further Limitations on Disposition. Without in any way limiting the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, the Subscriber agrees not to make any disposition of all or any portion of the Crowdfunding Issuer's Common Stock or any securities which may be converted into the Crowdfunding Issuer's Common Stock unless and until the transferee has agreed in writing for the benefit of the Crowdfunding Issuer to make the representations and warranties set out in Section 5 and the undertaking set out in Section 7(a) of this Agreement and:

- (i) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition, and such disposition is made in connection with such registration statement; or

(b) Upon receipt by the Company of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amounts if it is finally judicially determined that the Covered Person is not entitled to indemnification under this Section 7.02, the Crowdfunding Issuer shall advance, to the extent reasonably required, each Covered Person for reasonable legal or other expenses (as incurred) of such Covered Person in connection with investigating, preparing to defend, or defending any claim, lawsuit, or other proceeding relating to any Losses for which such Covered Person may be indemnified pursuant to this Section 7.02.

(c) For purposes of this Section 7.02, "Covered Person" means (i) each Member whom the Manager has designated as an agent of the Company; (ii) each Manager and Officer of the Company; and (iii) each officer, director, shareholder, partner, manager, member, Affiliate, employee, agent, or representative of each Member and of each Manager.

For any year in which applicable law and regulations do not permit the Company to elect out of the Revised Partnership Audit Rules, then within forty-five (45) days of any notice of final partnership adjustment, the Partnership Representative will cause the Company to elect the alternative procedure under Section 6226 of the Code, and furnish to the Internal Revenue Service and each Member (including former Members) during the year or years to which the notice of final partnership adjustment relates a statement of the Member's share of any adjustment set forth in the notice of final partnership adjustment.

(a) At the expense of the Crowdfunding Issuer, the Manager will cause the preparation and timely filing (including extensions) of all tax returns required to be filed by the Company pursuant to the Code as well as all other required tax returns in each jurisdiction in which the Company owns property or does business. As soon as reasonably possible after the end of each Fiscal Year, the Manager will deliver to each Member, Company information necessary for the preparation of such Member's federal, state, and local income tax returns for such Fiscal Year.

(b) Each Member agrees that such Member shall not treat any Company item on such Member's federal, state, foreign, or other income tax return inconsistently with the treatment of the item on the Company's return.

This Senior Convertible Note Purchase Agreement (this “Agreement”), dated as of ___, 2022, is entered into among Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, a Delaware public benefit corporation (the “Company”), and Heroic CF SPV, LLC (“Purchaser”).

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Company wishes to issue and sell to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser wishes to purchase from the Company, one or more senior convertible promissory notes in exchange for $1,000,000 (the “Consideration”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement will have the meanings set forth in this Section 1.

1.1 “Common Stock” means the Company’s Series 1 Common Stock and the Company’s Series 2 Common Stock, collectively.

1.2 “Conversion Shares” (for purposes of determining the type of Equity Securities issuable upon conversion of the Notes) means:

(a) with respect to a conversion pursuant to Section 4.1, shares of the Equity Securities issued in the Next Equity Financing;

(b) with respect to a conversion pursuant to Section 4.2, shares of Series 1 Common Stock; and

(c) with respect to a conversion pursuant to Section 4.3, shares of Series 1 Common Stock.

1.3 “Conversion Price” means (rounded to the nearest 1/100th of one cent):

(a) with respect to a conversion pursuant to Section 4.1, the lower of: (A) the product of (x) 100% less the Discount and (y) the lowest per share purchase price of the Equity Securities issued in the Next Equity Financing; or (B) the quotient resulting from dividing (x) US$50,000,000 by (y) the Fully Diluted Capitalization immediately prior to the closing of the Next Equity Financing;

(b) with respect to a conversion pursuant to Section 4.2, the quotient resulting from dividing (x) US$50,000,000 by (y) the Fully Diluted Capitalization immediately prior to the closing of the Corporate Transaction; and

(c) with respect to a conversion pursuant to Section 4.3, the quotient resulting from dividing (x) US$50,000,000 by (y) the Fully Diluted Capitalization immediately prior to such conversion.

- (c) the closing of the transfer (whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise), in a single transaction or series of related transactions, to a “person” or “group” (within the meaning of Section 13(d) and Section 14(d) of the Exchange Act) of the Company’s capital stock if, after such closing, such person or group would become the “beneficial owner” (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Company (or the surviving or acquiring entity).

For the avoidance of doubt, a transaction will not constitute a “Corporate Transaction” if its sole purpose is to change the state of the Company’s incorporation or to create a holding company that will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who held the Company’s securities immediately prior to such transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the sale of Equity Securities in a bona fide financing transaction will not be deemed a “Corporate Transaction.”

1.9 “Maturity Date” means, with respect to each Note issued under this Agreement, December 31, 2025.

1.10 “Next Equity Financing” means the next sale (or series of related sales) by the Company of its Equity Securities following the date of this Agreement, in one or more offerings with the principal purpose of raising capital, from which the Company receives gross proceeds of not less than US$10,000,000 (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the aggregate principal amount of the Notes).

1.11 “Notes” means the one or more senior convertible promissory notes issued to the Purchaser pursuant to Section 2, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

2. Purchase and Sale of Notes. In exchange for the Consideration paid by the Purchaser, the Company will sell and issue to such Purchaser one or more Notes. Each Note will have a principal balance equal to that portion of the Consideration paid by such Purchaser for such Note.

3. Closings.

3.1 Initial Closing. The initial closing of the sale of the Notes in return for the Consideration paid by the Purchaser (the “Initial Closing”) will take place remotely via the exchange of documents and signatures on the date of this Agreement, or at such other time and place as the Company and the Purchaser agree upon orally or in writing. At the Initial Closing, the Purchaser will deliver the Consideration to the Company and the Company will deliver to the Purchaser one or more executed Notes in return for the respective Consideration provided to the Company.

3.2 Subsequent Closings. In any subsequent closing (each a “Subsequent Closing”), the Company may sell additional Notes subject to the terms of this Agreement to any purchaser as it will select. Any subsequent purchasers of Notes will become parties to, and will be entitled to receive Notes in accordance with, this Agreement. Each Subsequent Closing will take place remotely via the exchange of documents and signatures or at such locations and at such times as will be mutually agreed upon orally or in writing by the Company and such purchasers of additional Notes.

4. Conversion. Each Note will be convertible into Conversion Shares pursuant to this Section 4.

4.1 Next Equity Financing Conversion. The principal balance and unpaid accrued interest on each Note will automatically convert into Conversion Shares upon the closing of the Next Equity Financing. The number of Conversion Shares the Company issues upon such conversion will equal the quotient (rounded down to the nearest whole share) obtained by dividing (x) the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest under each converting Note on the date of conversion by (y) the applicable Conversion Price. At least three (3) days prior to the closing of the Next Equity Financing, the Company will notify the holder of each Note in writing of the terms of the Equity Securities that are expected to be issued in such financing. The issuance of Conversion Shares pursuant to the conversion of each Note will be on, and subject to, the same terms and conditions applicable to the Equity Securities issued in the Next Equity Financing.

4.2 Corporate Transaction Conversion. In the event of a Corporate Transaction prior to the conversion of a Note pursuant to Section 4.1 or Section 4.3 or the repayment of such Note, at the closing of such Corporate Transaction, the holder of each Note may elect that either: (a) the Company will pay the holder of such Note an amount equal to the sum of (x) all accrued and unpaid interest due on such Note and (y) the outstanding principal balance of such Note; or (b) such Note will convert into that number of Conversion Shares equal to the quotient (rounded down to the nearest whole share) obtained by dividing (x) the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest of such Note on the date of conversion by (y) the applicable Conversion Price.

4.3 Maturity Conversion. At any time on or after the Maturity Date, at the election of the Requisite Noteholders, each Note will convert into that number of Conversion Shares equal to the quotient (rounded down to the nearest whole share) obtained by dividing (x) the outstanding principal balance and unpaid accrued interest of such Note on the date of such conversion by (y) the applicable Conversion Price.

4.4 Mechanics of Conversion.

(a) Financing Agreements. The Purchaser acknowledges that the conversion of the Notes into Conversion Shares pursuant to Section 4.1 may require such Purchaser's execution of certain agreements relating to the purchase and sale of the Conversion Shares, as well as registration rights, rights of first refusal and co-sale, rights of first offer and voting rights, if any, relating to such securities (collectively, the "Financing Agreements"). The Purchaser agrees to execute all of the Financing Agreements in connection with a Next Equity Financing.

(b) Certificates. As promptly as practicable after the conversion of each Note and the issuance of the Conversion Shares, the Company (at its expense) will issue and deliver to the holder thereof a certificate or certificates, which may be in paper or electronic form, evidencing the Conversion Shares (if certificated), or if the Conversion Shares are not certificated, will deliver a true and correct copy of the Company's share register reflecting the Conversion Shares held by such holder. The Company will not be required to issue or deliver the Conversion Shares until the holder of such Note has surrendered the Note to the Company (or provided an instrument of cancellation or affidavit of loss). The conversion of the Notes pursuant to Section 4.1 and Section 4.2 may be made contingent upon the closing of the Next Equity Financing and Corporate Transaction, respectively.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Company. In connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Company hereby represents and warrants to the Purchaser as follows:

5.1 Due Organization; Qualification and Good Standing. The Company is a public benefit corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted. The Company is duly qualified to transact business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the failure to so qualify or to be in good standing would have a material adverse effect on the Company.

5.2 Authorization and Enforceability. Except for the authorization and issuance of the Conversion Shares, all corporate action has been taken on the part of the Company and its officers and directors necessary for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Notes. Except as may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, the Company has taken all corporate action required to make all of the obligations of the Company reflected in the provisions of this Agreement and the Notes valid and enforceable in accordance with their terms.

6. Representations and Warranties of the Purchaser. In connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

6.1 Authorization. The Purchaser has full power and authority (and, if such Purchaser is an individual, the capacity) to enter into this Agreement and to perform all obligations required to be performed by it hereunder. This Agreement, when executed and delivered by the Purchaser, will constitute such Purchaser's valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance and any other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and (b) as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies.

6.2 [Intentionally Omitted]

6.3 Disclosure of Information; Non-Reliance. The Purchaser acknowledges that it has received all the information it considers necessary or appropriate to enable it to make an informed decision concerning an investment in the Securities. The Purchaser further represents that it has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Securities. The Purchaser confirms that the Company has not given any guarantee or representation as to the potential success, return, effect or benefit (either legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) of an investment in the Securities. In deciding to purchase the Securities, the Purchaser is not relying on the advice or recommendations of the Company and such Purchaser has made its own independent decision that the investment in the Securities is suitable and appropriate for such Purchaser. The Purchaser understands that no federal or state agency has passed upon the merits or risks of an investment in the Securities or made any finding or determination concerning the fairness or advisability of this investment.

6.4 [Intentionally Omitted]

6.5 [Intentionally Omitted]

6.6 Investment Representation. Purchaser understands that the Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act. Purchaser also understands that the Notes are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Securities Act based in part upon Purchaser's representations contained in this Purchase Agreement.

6.7 [Intentionally Omitted]

6.8 [Intentionally Omitted]

6.9 Illiquidity and Continued Economic Risk. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that there is no ready public market for the Securities and that there is no guarantee that a market for their resale will ever exist. Purchaser must bear the economic risk of this investment indefinitely and the Company has no obligation to list the Securities on any market or take any steps (including registration under the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) with respect to facilitating trading or resale of the Securities. Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser is able to bear the economic risk of losing Purchaser's entire investment in the Securities. Purchaser also understands that an investment in the Company involves significant risks and has taken full cognizance of and understands all of the risk factors relating to the purchase of Securities.

6.10 Resales. Purchaser agrees that during the one-year period beginning on the date on which it acquired Securities pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, it shall not transfer such Securities except:

- (a) To the Company;
- (b) To an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act;
- (c) As part of an offering registered under the Securities Act with the SEC; or
- (d) To a member of the Purchaser's family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Purchaser or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Purchaser or other similar circumstance.

6.11 Valuation. The Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Securities was set by the Crowdfunding Issuer on the basis of the Crowdfunding Issuer's internal valuation and no warranties are made as to value. The Purchaser further acknowledges that future offerings of Securities may be made at lower valuations, with the result that the Purchaser's investment will bear a lower valuation.

7. Miscellaneous.

7.1 Successors and Assigns. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms and conditions of this Agreement will inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the respective successors and assigns of the parties; provided, however, that the Company may not assign its obligations under this Agreement without the written consent of the Requisite Noteholders. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or will confer upon any other person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

7.2 Choice of Law. This Agreement and the Notes, and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Notes, whether sounding in contract, tort, or statute, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to the conflict of laws provisions thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Delaware. If a dispute arises out of this Agreement, the Notes, or any matter arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Notes, the parties hereto agree to exclusive jurisdiction and venue in the state or federal courts of Travis County, Austin, Texas.

7.3 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will be deemed to be one and the same agreement. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, email (including PDF or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g., www.docusign.com) or other transmission method, and any counterpart so delivered will be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

7.4 Titles and Subtitles. The titles and subtitles used in this Agreement are included for convenience only and are not to be considered in construing or interpreting this Agreement.

7.5 Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant hereto will be in writing and will be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified; (b) when sent by email or confirmed facsimile; (c) five (5) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; or (d) one (1) day after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications will be sent to the respective parties at the addresses shown on the signature pages hereto (or to such email address, facsimile number or other address as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section 7.5).

7.6 No Finder's Fee. Each party represents that it neither is nor will be obligated to pay any finder's fee, broker's fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Purchaser agrees to indemnify and to hold the Company harmless from any liability for any commission or compensation in the nature of a finder's or broker's fee arising out of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the costs and expenses of defending against such liability or asserted liability) for which the Purchaser or any of its officers, employees or representatives is responsible. The Company agrees to indemnify and hold the Purchaser harmless from any liability for any commission or compensation in the nature of a finder's or broker's fee arising out of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the costs and expenses of defending against such liability or asserted liability) for which the Company or any of its officers, employees or representatives is responsible.

7.7 Expenses. The party will pay all costs and expenses that it incurs with respect to the negotiation, execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement.

7.8 Attorneys' Fees. If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and necessary disbursements in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled.

7.9 Entire Agreement; Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement, the Notes and the other documents delivered pursuant hereto constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement between the parties with regard to the subjects hereof and thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any term of this Agreement or the Notes may be amended and the observance of any term of this Agreement or the Notes may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively) with the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Noteholders. Any waiver or amendment effected in accordance with this Section 7.9 will be binding upon each party to this Agreement and each holder of a Note purchased under this Agreement then outstanding and each future holder of all such Notes.

7.10 Effect of Amendment or Waiver. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that by the operation of Section 7.9 hereof, the Requisite Noteholders will have the right and power to diminish or eliminate all rights of such Purchaser under this Agreement and each Note issued to such Purchaser.

7.11 Severability. If one or more provisions of this Agreement are held to be unenforceable under applicable law, such provisions will be excluded from this Agreement and the balance of the Agreement will be interpreted as if such provisions were so excluded and this Agreement will be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

7.12 Transfer Restrictions.

(a) "Market Stand-Off" Agreement. The Purchaser hereby agrees that it will not, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter, during the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the Company's first underwritten public offering (the "IPO") of its Common Stock under the Securities Act, and ending on the date specified by the Company and the managing underwriter(s) (such period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, or such other period as may be requested by the Company or an underwriter to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (i) the publication or other distribution of research reports, and (ii) analyst recommendations and opinions): (A) lend; offer; pledge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Common Stock (whether such shares or any such securities are then owned by the Purchaser or are thereafter acquired); or (B) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities; whether any such transaction described in clause (A) or (B) above is to be settled by delivery of Common Stock or other securities, in cash, or otherwise. The foregoing provisions of this Section 7.12(a) will: (x) apply only to the IPO and will not apply to the sale of any shares to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement; (y) not apply to the transfer of any shares to any trust for the direct or indirect benefit of the Purchaser or the immediate family of the Purchaser, provided that the trustee of the trust agrees to be bound in writing by the restrictions set forth herein, and provided further that any such transfer will not involve a disposition for value; and (z) be applicable to the Purchase only if all officers and directors of the Company are subject to the same restrictions and the Company uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a similar agreement from all stockholders individually owning more than 5% of the outstanding Common Stock. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Section 7.1), the underwriters in connection with the IPO are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Section 7.12(a) and will have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto. The Purchaser further agrees to execute such agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters in connection with the IPO that are consistent with this Section 7.12(a) or that are necessary to give further effect thereto.

In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Company may impose stop transfer instructions with respect to the Purchaser's registrable securities of the Company (and the Company shares or securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of such period. The Purchaser agrees that a legend reading substantially as follows may be placed on all certificates representing all of such Purchaser's registrable securities of the Company (and the Company shares or securities of every other person subject to the restriction contained in this Section 7.12(a)):

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A LOCK-UP PERIOD BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE COMPANY'S REGISTRATION STATEMENT FILED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AS SET FORTH IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMPANY AND THE ORIGINAL HOLDER OF THESE SECURITIES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT THE COMPANY'S PRINCIPAL OFFICE. SUCH LOCK-UP PERIOD IS BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SECURITIES.

(b) Further Limitations on Disposition. Without in any way limiting the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, the Purchaser agrees not to make any disposition of all or any portion of the Securities unless and until the transferee has agreed in writing for the benefit of the Company to make the representations and warranties set out in Section 6 and the undertaking set out in Section 7.12(a) of this Agreement and:

(i) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition, and such disposition is made in connection with such registration statement; or

(ii) such Purchaser has (A) notified the Company of the proposed disposition; (B) furnished the Company with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition; and (C) if requested by the Company, furnished the Company with an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company that such disposition will not require registration under the Securities Act.

The Purchaser agrees that it will not make any disposition of any of the Securities to the Company's competitors, as determined in good faith by the Company.

(c) [Intentionally Omitted]

(d) Restrictions on Transfer of Conversion Shares. The Purchaser understands and acknowledges that (i) the Conversion Shares may be subject to additional restrictions on transfer, (ii) the Common Stock and Series Seed Preferred Stock are subject to a right of refusal option in favor of the Company and/or its assignee(s), as provided in the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company, as may be amended from time to time (the "Bylaws"), (iii) the Common Stock and Series Seed Preferred Stock may not be transferred without the consent of the Company, as provided in the Bylaws, and (iv) the Bylaws may be amended from time to time in a manner that may alter such right of first refusal option or transfer restrictions on the Common Stock or Series Seed Preferred Stock or include or add restrictions with respect to any of the Conversion Shares.

7.13 Voting Proxy. The Purchaser shall appoint the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO"), or his or her successor, as the Purchaser's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, to, consistent with this instrument and on behalf of the Purchaser, (i) vote all Securities held of record by Purchaser (including any shares of the Company's capital stock that the Purchaser may acquire in the future), (ii) give and receive notices and communications, (iii) execute any written consent, instrument or document that the CEO determines is necessary or appropriate at the CEO's complete discretion, and (iv) take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the CEO for the accomplishment of the foregoing. The proxy and power granted by the Purchaser pursuant to this Section 7.13 are coupled with an interest. Such proxy and power will be irrevocable. The proxy and power, so long as the Purchaser is an individual, will survive the death, incompetency and disability of the Purchaser and, so long as the Purchaser is an entity, will survive the merger or reorganization of the Purchaser or any other entity holding the Securities. Such proxy shall be binding upon the heirs, estate, executors, personal representatives, successors and assigns of the Purchaser (including any transferee of any Purchaser); any transferee receiving the Purchaser's Securities (or any portion thereof) shall agree to be bound by the provisions of this Section 7.13. However, the proxy will terminate upon the closing of a firm-commitment underwritten public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering the offer and sale of Common Stock or the effectiveness of a registration statement under the Exchange Act covering the Common Stock. If any provision of this proxy or any part of any this Section 7.13 is held under any circumstances to be invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then (a) such provision or part thereof shall, with respect to such circumstances and in such jurisdiction, be deemed amended to conform to applicable laws so as to be valid and enforceable to the fullest possible extent, (b) the invalidity or unenforceability of such provision or part thereof under such circumstances and in such jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of such provision or part thereof under any other circumstances or in any other jurisdiction, and (c) the invalidity or unenforceability of such provision or part thereof shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of such provision or the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this proxy. Each provision of this proxy is separable from every other provision of this proxy, and each part of each provision of this proxy is separable from every other part of such provision.

7.14 Exculpation. The Purchaser acknowledges that it is not relying upon any person, firm, corporation or stockholder, other than the Company and its officers and directors in their capacities as such, in making its investment or decision to invest in the Company. The Purchaser agrees that no other Purchaser, nor the controlling persons, officers, directors, partners, agents, stockholders or employees of any other Purchaser, will be liable for any action heretofore or hereafter taken or not taken by any of them in connection with the purchase and sale of the Securities.

7.15 Acknowledgment. For the avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that the Purchaser will be entitled to the benefit of all adjustments in the number of shares of the Company's capital stock as a result of any splits, recapitalizations, combinations or other similar transactions affecting the Company's capital stock underlying the Conversion Shares that occur prior to the conversion of the Notes.

7.16 Further Assurances. From time to time, the parties will execute and deliver such additional documents and will provide such additional information as may reasonably be required to carry out the terms of this Agreement and the Notes and any agreements executed in connection herewith or therewith.

7.17 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES ITS RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE SECURITIES OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF OR THEREOF. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. THIS SECTION HAS BEEN FULLY DISCUSSED BY EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AND THESE PROVISIONS WILL NOT BE SUBJECT TO ANY EXCEPTIONS. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY FURTHER

REPRESENTS AND WARRANTS THAT SUCH PARTY HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL, AND THAT SUCH PARTY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH LEGAL COUNSEL.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date set forth above.

SENIOR CONVERTIBLE PROMISSORY NOTE

No. SCN-[NUMBER]

Date of Issuance:

US$[PRINCIPAL AMOUNT]

[DATE]

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, Heroic Enterprises, Public Benefit Corporation, a Delaware public benefit corporation (the "Company"), hereby promises to pay to the order of [PURCHASER NAME] (the "Holder"), the principal sum of US$[PRINCIPAL AMOUNT], together with interest thereon from the date of this Note. Interest will accrue at a simple rate of four percent (4%) per annum. Unless earlier converted into Conversion Shares pursuant to Section 4 of that certain Senior Convertible Note Purchase Agreement dated as of ____, 2022, by and among the Company, the Holder and the other parties thereto (the "Purchase Agreement"), the principal and accrued interest of this Note will be due and payable by the Company at any time on or after the Maturity Date at the Company's election or upon demand by the Requisite Notcholders.

This Note is one of a series of Notes issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, and capitalized terms not defined herein will have the meanings set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

1. Payment. All payments will be made in lawful money of the United States of America at the principal office of the Company, or at such other place as the Holder may from time to time designate in writing to the Company. Payment will be credited first to accrued interest due and payable, with any remainder applied to principal. Prepayment of principal, together with accrued interest, may not be made without the written consent of the Requisite Notcholders, except in the event of a Corporate Transaction (as set forth in Section 4.2(a) of the Purchase Agreement).

2. Ranking. The indebtedness evidenced by this Note and the other Notes is a general unsecured obligation of the Company; provided, however, that the indebtedness evidenced by this Note and the other Notes, and the payment of the principal amount hereof and thereof and the interest hereon and thereon, shall be Senior (as defined below) to, and have priority in right of payment over, the indebtedness evidenced by the Existing Notes (as defined below). "Senior" shall be deemed to mean that, in the event of any default in the payment of the obligations represented by the Notes or of any liquidation, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization, or similar proceedings relating to the Company, all sums payable on the Notes shall first be paid in full, with interest, if any, before any payment is made upon the Existing Notes. "Existing Notes" means the notes issued pursuant to the Convertible Note Purchase Agreement dated as of November 30, 2021, by and among the Company and the other noteholders party thereto, as may be amended from time to time.

3. Conversion of the Notes. This Note and any amounts due hereunder will be convertible into Conversion Shares in accordance with the terms of Section 4 of the Purchase Agreement.

4. Amendments and Waivers; Resolutions of Dispute; Notice. The amendment or waiver of any term of this Note, the resolution of any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Note and the provision of notice among the Company and the Holder will be governed by the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

5. Successors and Assigns. This Note applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto; provided, however, that the Company may not assign its obligations under this Note without the written consent of the Requisite Noteholders. Any transfer of this Note may be effected only pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and by surrender of this Note to the Company and reissuance of a new note to the transferee. The Holder and any subsequent holder of this Note receives this Note subject to the foregoing terms and conditions, and agrees to comply with the foregoing terms and conditions for the benefit of the Company and any other purchasers (or their respective successors or assigns).

6. Officers and Directors not Liable. In no event will any officer or director of the Company be liable for any amounts due and payable pursuant to this Note.

7. Limitation on Interest. In no event will any interest charged, collected or reserved under this Note exceed the maximum rate then permitted by applicable law, and if any payment made by the Company under this Note exceeds such maximum rate, then such excess sum will be credited by the Holders as a payment of principal.

8. Choice of Law; Venue. This Note, and all matters arising out of or relating to this Note, whether sounding in contract, tort, or statute, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to the conflict of laws provisions thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Delaware. If a dispute arises out of this Note or any matter arising out of or relating to this Note, the parties hereto agree to exclusive jurisdiction and venue in the state or federal courts of Travis County, Austin, Texas.

9. Approval. The Company hereby represents that its board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duty, has approved the Company's execution of this Note based upon a reasonable belief that the principal provided hereunder is appropriate for the Company after reasonable inquiry concerning the Company's financing objectives and financial situation. In addition, the Company hereby represents that it intends to use the principal of this Note primarily for the operations of its business, and not for any personal, family or household purpose.

Our Founder

Brian Johnson Founder + CEO

Raised $20M+, built and sold two market-leading social platforms. Created a protocol that has been shown to change lives. Uniquely positioned to create a social training platform that is an answer to The Social Dilemma.

We're committed to changing the world by helping people be the best, most Heroic versions of themselves.

HEROIC IS AN AMAZING COMPANY AND BRIAN IS A TRULY VISIONARY, MISSION-DRIVEN CEO. VERY FEW COMPANIES CAN BLEND BOTH A STRONG PROFIT BUSINESS MODEL WITH A BROAD PLATFORM TO SIGNIFICANTLY IMPROVE THE HUMAN CONDITION. I AM PROUD TO BE A PERSONAL INVESTOR.

MATT MCCALL, PARTNER AT PRITZKER GROUP VENTURE CAPITAL

Hi, this is Brian Johnson. 🌱

I'm the Founder + CEO of Heroic Public Benefit Corporation.

I appreciate you taking the time to learn more about Heroic. I'd like to give you a quick overview of the biz as we currently see it. We have two versions: The Short Story and The Longer Story. Let's start with...

But, first, let's start with...

The Update

When we originally opened this crowdfunding round, we were planning to raise up to $10M+. We have decided to simplify this crowdfunding round and push to close it quickly.

Rather than seeking to raise another $10M+ right now, we're going to see how quickly we can get $2M in the bank so we can focus our energy on execution to see how quickly we can create a profitable, antifragile business. THEN we plan to consider going back out for a larger round.

As part of our plans to move to a quick close, we have dropped the cap on our Note from $100M to $50M—which basically means that you have twice the potential upside on your investment if converted at the maximum.

Further, our new investors in this smaller round will have seniority over existing investors. This gives you, as a prospective new investor, strong downside risk investors. This gives you, as a prospective new investor, strong downside risk protection (first money out).

We're planning to limit this raise at those terms to only $2M total—$1M from the crowdfunding and another $1M from the Reg D, accredited investors. We have raised nearly half of the crowdfunding amount already.

In summary:

- Reduced valuation cap = greater potential upside opportunity
- Senior security above all existing investors = greater downside protection

So if you've been thinking about investing in Heroic, now's a great time to make it official!!

Note: If you are an accredited investor interested in investing over $25,000, you can let us know via this link and we will follow up to discuss the opportunity to invest via our Reg D.

Before we move on, here's a little video from Matt McCall, one of my dear friends and closest advisors describing why he has invested in Heroic and inviting you to consider investing as well:

With that, it's time for...

The Short Story

We're building a social training platform to help people be the best, most Heroic versions of themselves.

Unlike most social platforms that are designed to increase user engagement (so they can make more money via advertising), Heroic is designed to effectively and measurably change people's lives. We aim to leverage the best of social technology and leave the worst behind. (Think: An answer to The Social Dilemma.)

Further, and very importantly, our platform integrates a “training” component to help people move from Theory to Practice to Mastery Together TODAY.

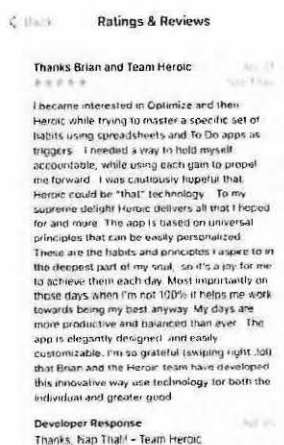

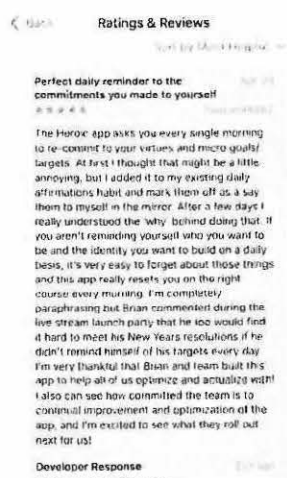

👉 Being the best in the world at helping people do that is how we believe we can change the world—one person at a time, together, starting with you and me and us today

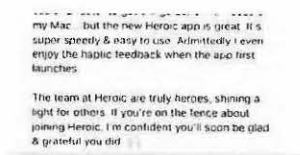

In early 2021, with the support of over 2,400 investors from 75 countries around the world, Heroic made history as the very first company to ever close a $5M Reg CF as part of our $10M Seed Round.

Then we partnered with MetaLab (the world-class product development company that helped create Slack, Tinder, and Uber Eats) to help us design our Heroic social training platform.

You can check out our website here and download the iOS app here and the Android app here.

At the time of this writing, our average rating on both app stores is 4.8 stars out of 5.0. Here's a link to check out all the reviews on iOS and here's a link for Android. And, here are the three “Most Helpful” reviews on iOS as determined by Apple's algorithm:

Here's a look at what we've created since our first crowdfunding:

With the capital from this crowdfunding and anticipated cash flow, we're fired up to ship the social side of our platform that MetaLab helped us design earlier this year. Here's a look at that:

I'M THRILLED TO BE AN INVESTOR IN HEROIC! BRIAN IS UNSTOPPABLE AND I LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING THE IMPACT HEROIC WILL HAVE ON THE WORLD.

NIR EYAL, AUTHOR OF HOOKED AND INDISTRACABLE

The Longer Story

Now for the longer story...

We'll talk about our ultimate mission and I'll share some more details on how we plan to change the world one person at a time with our social training platform that helps people move from Theory to Practice to Mastery Together TODAY.

We'll also talk about our two brand promises and the early data from a pilot study we conducted that shows how people can significantly increase their energy, productivity and connection in just minutes on our app per day.

Then we'll talk about what you may see from your investment (you can invest as little as $100 or $500 or $1,000 dollars), as well as the risks of investing.

Then we'll wrap it all up with an invitation to help us change the world.

The Heroic Mission

Let's start at the top with our ultimate mission. Actually, let's start with my left forearm on which I have tattooed our ultimate Heroic mission and 30-year goal.

Studies show you're 42% more likely to achieve your goals if you write them

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100

down. A lot of people write their goals on a post-it note and put them up on their bathroom mirrors. I decided to put the goal to which I have dedicated my life somewhere I'll never miss it.

I got that HEROIC tattoo on October 14th, 2021—within 48 hours of our design team at MetaLab finalizing our logo. We spent a few extra weeks getting it just right. As they made their final presentation, I asked, “Is that the final recommendation? Because I’m booking my appointment with the tattoo artist after this Zoom.”

Then, a couple weeks later, I added the “51 | 2051” right above the “I” and the “C” in “HEROIC.”

That placement was deliberate.

Every morning, as I begin my meditation practice, I look down at my arm and say to myself, “Hero, I see a world in which 51% of humanity is flourishing by 2051.”

Then I look below the “IC” where I have “101 | 1M.” (Got that one on Father’s Day, 2022—fun trip with the kids to show them what an all-in commitment looks like.)

The “101” represents getting my Soul Force score to 101 and the “1M” represents helping YOU and 1M other people get their Soul Force scores to 101 so we have a shot at fulfilling our ultimate mission of creating a world in which 51% of humanity is flourishing by 2051.

So, there ya go. That's our ultimate mission. 51 | 2051. All in, folks. All in.

btw: I borrowed that moonshot goal from Martin Seligman and his colleagues. When they launched the Positive Psychology movement in the year 2000, they said they wanted to help create a world in which 51% of the world's population was flourishing by the year 2051.

The first time I heard that I thought, "Wow. The audacity!!" Now, I have dedicated my life to playing my role as well as I possibly can to help create a world in which 51% of our population is flourishing by the year 2051.

I AM INVESTING IN HEROIC BECAUSE I CARE ABOUT THE FUTURE OF OUR WORLD. THESE ARE EXTRAORDINARY TIMES AND THE CHALLENGES WE FACE ARE UNPRECEDENTED; TO DEAL WITH THESE CHALLENGES WE DESPERATELY NEED EXTRAORDINARY LEADERS. AND THIS IS WHAT HEROIC IS ALL ABOUT: PREPARING US AS INDIVIDUALS AND AS A SOCIETY TO NAVIGATE THE ROUGH TERRAIN AND EMERGE STRONGER AND BETTER AS A RESULT.

TAL BEN-SHAHAR, BEST-SELLING AUTHOR OF HAPPIER, TAUGHT LARGEST CLASS IN HARVARD'S HISTORY

Before we talk about how we intend to fulfill our mission in the years and decades ahead, I'd like to ask you a question...

Training Heroes

Do you happen to know what the word hero means?

It's an ancient Greek word. Etymologically, the word hero doesn't mean "killer of bad guys" or "tough guy" or anything like that. It means "PROTECTOR."

A hero has strength for two. And, very importantly, a hero is willing to do the HARD work to HAVE that strength for two.

And do you know what the secret weapon of the ancient hero was?

And, as you know, what the secret weapon of the ancient hero was.

LOVE.

It's LOVE that fuels our commitment to DO that hard work to HAVE the strength for two. It's LOVE that gives us the Courage to be willing to act in the presence of fear. It's LOVE that gives us the Self-Mastery to do what needs to get done whether we feel like it or not.

We believe that our world needs heroes Today more than ever before.

Quite simply: We need YOU to be a hero.

We created Heroic Public Benefit Corporation to help train and connect and lead a virtuous army of heroes who can, literally, change the world.

Btw. Longer branding chat but if you look closely at my tattoo and the Heroic mark in our logo and then look at the virtue compass in our app, you'll see that the mark is pointing toward the virtue of Love.

IN ADDITION TO FAMILY, THIS IS ALL THAT MATTERS RIGHT NOW: A VIRTUE-DRIVEN FORCE TO DISRUPT THE WORLD. PERSONALLY, BEING A PROFESSIONAL INVESTOR IS OFTEN DEVOID OF A BIGGER MEANING. IT WOULD MEAN THE WORLD TO ME TO MAKE THE CONNECTION, IN A REAL WAY, BETWEEN WHAT I DO AND SOMETHING MUCH BIGGER AND MORE IMPORTANT THAN MYSELF. THIS CONNECTION WOULD BE AN INCREDIBLE SOURCE OF MEANING FOR MY LIFE. THIS HAS THE POTENTIAL TO BEND THE ARC OF HUMANITY AND HELP FULFILL THE POTENTIAL IN MILLIONS OF LIVES.

Our Two Brand Promises

A good business has a strong value proposition. A great business has a value proposition that is, in Steve Jobs' words, "insanely great."

Or, as Peter Thiel puts it (in Zero to One), you want to deliver at least 10x more value on a specific, highly-differentiated value proposition than anyone else in your market so, ideally, you're the ONLY one doing what you're doing.

So... What's the ONE thing that we aspire to do better than anyone else in the world?

Simple. We have committed ourselves to being the best we possibly can be at helping people move from THEORY to PRACTICE to MASTERY TOGETHER TODAY.

As I like to say, we don't need to read another book or listen to another podcast, we need to actually DO the things we ALREADY KNOW we could be doing—whether that's meditating or eating better or sleeping more or being more present and loving with our families or more focused and productive at work or... fill in the blank for what YOU know you could be doing!

(Seriously. What little thing do YOU know you could be doing? Imagine your life with that positive habit installed. Then imagine becoming the type of person who can easily install and delete habits at will while helping others in your life do the same. Helping you be that version of yourself is what Heroic is all about.)

Doing what we know we could be doing and being the person we know we could be (not someday but TODAY!) is how we can close that gap between who we are capable of being and who we are actually being so we can more and more consistently show up as the best, most Heroic versions of ourselves in service to something bigger than ourselves.

Again... That's nice and warm and fuzzy but... again... HOW can we make that more CONCRETE?

Well... I think we need to deliver on TWO brand promises (or value propositions). One at the INDIVIDUAL level and another at the COLLECTIVE level. Here they are.

First, on the individual level, we want to get to a place where we can unequivocally (!) say: "Research shows... If you use Heroic, then you will flourish."

More specifically... We want to get to a place where we can say: "Research shows... If you hit 10 virtuous targets on Heroic every day, then you are x% more Energized, Productive and Connected."

Here's the second brand promise, this time focused on the collective level: "If enough of us use Heroic, then we can change the world together."

enough of us use Heroic, then we can change the world together.

Again: Getting to a place where we are THE BEST IN THE WORLD at delivering on those brand promises (/value propositions) at both the individual and collective levels is HOW we will create a truly great business that can literally change the world.

We will measure our success in delivering on those two brand promises in two ways. On the individual level, we keep track of something called a “Soul Force” score. On the collective level, we keep track of something we call “Annual Recurring Virtue” or “ARV.”

HEROIC IS HUMANITY'S BEST HOPE FOR RAISING THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE PLANET AND CALLING US TO A MORE VIRTUOUS LIFE OF GOODNESS, IMPACT AND SELF-LOVE. IT INSPIRES THE WORLD TO CREATE A NEW PARADIGM FOR WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A HUMAN LIVING IN THE 21ST CENTURY. DESPITE THIS BEING THE MOST TECHNOLOGICALLY ADVANCED PERIOD IN OUR HISTORY, WHERE CHANGE IS UNFOLDING AT A PACE THAT IS HARD FOR MOST TO COMPREHEND, LET ALONE KEEP UP WITH, WE EACH CRAVE A NORTH STAR, AN ANCHOR, A VISION OF WHAT EACH OF US IS CAPABLE OF BECOMING AND INDEED WHO WE ALREADY ARE. WE ARE OUR OWN HEROES. IT IS TIME TO FULFILL OUR HERO'S JOURNEY. HEROIC IS THE ANSWER TO OUR QUEST AND THE CATALYST FOR EXPRESSING AND CELEBRATING OUR HUMANITY.

Heroic Pilot Study Says...

We worked hard to create a v1 of our app that would take the first steps in delivering on our two brand promises. Again:

1. If you use Heroic, then you will flourish. More specifically: “Research shows, if you hit 10 virtuous targets on Heroic each day, then you will be x% more Energized, x% more Productive, and x% more Connected.”
2. If enough of us use Heroic then we can literally change the world together.

Note: I told our Founding Investors that we'd run a pilot study on Day 1 and that, if we did our jobs, we'd have early data pointing to the validity of statement #1 by Day 30.

And... With all the necessary asterisks that the study was only a PILOT study done with only 1,000 Founding Heroic members and it's too early to point to anything unequivocally, etc etc etc...

I am VERY (!) excited to tell you that...

Based on a pilot study of over 1,000 Heroic members (n = 1053), conducted in partnership with leading experts in the field of positive psychology and human flourishing and measuring human flourishing using two validated well-being measures (Flourishing Scale, Diener, and a subset of WB-Pro measures) as well as a newly developed, non-validated, internal scale to measure energy, productivity, and connection that we called the Heroic Big 3 scale we can say that:

Members who hit 5 or more Heroic targets each day, on average moved from the 60th percentile to the 83rd percentile in flourishing (on an accepted scale of flourishing!) in just 30 days.

And...

As measured by the internal Heroic Big 3 scale, members who hit JUST 3+ targets per day, on average, reported a 40% (!) increase in energy, a 20% (!) increase in productivity (that's like working 5 days and getting a bonus day free!), and a 15% increase in connection. In just a few minutes in the app per day for just 30 days!!

Again, that data is from a pilot study so it needs to be viewed conservatively and those percentage increases in our Big 3 are rough approximations. And... I am very excited about the early data and equally committed to building on it in the months and years ahead so we can more concretely establish the validity of the Heroic app as a powerful way to help people change their lives so we can change the world together.

In addition to that quantitative data, you can check out the iOS and Android App Store reviews for more qualitative data on our early members' experience with our app and how it is changing their lives.

Plus, here's how accredited Heroic investor and good friend, Sean Casey, described his experience with the Heroic app in a recent podcast of his. (Sean is a former MLB All Star known as "The Mayor." Sports Illustrated described him as the friendliest guy in baseball!)

And...here's another video with Brandon Guyer (former MLB player, nicknamed "La Piñata" by the World Series announcers because he was hit by so many pitches) sharing how Heroic has changed his life and why he and his wife chose to invest.

Also, during our Launch party, I asked my friend (and Heroic investor) Joe Okleberry to come on stage and share his early experience with the Heroic app with our community. Here's what he had to say...

Heroic Crowdfunding

We've talked about a lot of warm and fuzzy, inspiring stuff. Now it's time to ground that inspiration into reality.

Startups like ours are a powerful way to create a better future while creating value for each of our stakeholders: Society + Partners + Investors + Customers + Employees.

Of course, startups are also inherently incredibly risky ventures in general and our startup comes with its own set of idiosyncratic risks—which we have disclosed in our official filing that we encourage you to read. I'd like to briefly highlight one of those risks now.

We are currently navigating an open investigation with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Although we can't go into the details (other than what we shared in our annual filing and our Form C with this crowdfunding), we can say that we quickly responded to the SEC's requests and, of course, have always strived to do everything at the highest possible moral and technical levels. We have been blessed to have exceptional support from our financial and legal advisors since inception in an effort to ensure we are doing everything at the highest possible standards of excellence.

Again, check out all (!) the risk disclosures we make in our Offering Memorandum in our Form C/A filing.

And...

As we briefly discussed, your convertible note will be senior to all other investments—which provides significant downside protection. Further, I am proud of the fact that I have provided a positive return for investors in each of my prior companies: eteamz, Zaadz, and Optimize.

Having said all that...

I believe that the high risk goes with a potentially high return—in society and for yourself and for your family.

I have unapologetically ambitious goals with Heroic. I literally want to change the world. And, I think that we can achieve that while creating what I hope will be a multibillion-dollar business that is one of the most virtuous, respected, beloved and impactful companies and brands on the planet.

It's hard to put into words just how motivated I am by the prospect of fulfilling our Mission while striving to help you and your families create significant wealth from your investment in us.

MY HUSBAND AND I JUST INVESTED $50,000 IN HEROIC BECAUSE WE TRUST THE SOUNDNESS OF THE INVESTMENT AND WE POWERFULLY SHARE THE HEROIC VISION. BRIAN HAS AN INCREDIBLE TRACK RECORD IN BUSINESS—HE'S GENERATED A RETURN FOR HIS INVESTORS 100% OF THE TIME. HEROIC PARTNERSHIPS ARE SO NEEDED RIGHT NOW—AND WE CAN ALL DO WELL BY DOING GOOD. WITH EVERY ACTION WE CREATE THE WORLD WE (AND OUR KIDS AND GRANDKIDS!) WILL LIVE IN. LET'S CHANGE THE WORLD TOGETHER. THESE WORDS GIVE ME GOOSE BUMPS. I'M IN!!!

The Investment Terms

If you invest in this round, you will own what's known as a "convertible note" that is convertible into equity at our next prospective round.

We are seeking to raise $2M via the convertible notes we are offering in this round. As we briefly discussed above, we intend to raise $1M via this Reg CF and an additional $1M from accredited investors via Reg D 506(c).

Note: If you are an accredited investor interested in investing over $25,000, you note. If you are an accredited investor interested in investing over $25,000, you can let us know via this link and we will follow up to discuss the opportunity to invest via our Reg D.

For those who may not be familiar, here's the super-short, simplified story on the basic mechanics of how a convertible note works plus the basic terms for our note.

The convertible note has a "20% discount" on whatever price we set for our next prospective round of financing with a maximum valuation cap of $50 million. The price will not be set until we actually do that round and would convert into shares at the lower of the price determined by either the 20% discount or the $50M valuation cap.

For a completely theoretical example of how this may work, let's say we raise money for our prospective Series A at any valuation less than $62.5 million. In this case, the 20% discount would apply and your convertible notes would convert at a price per share that is 20% less than the share price of that round.

If we raise money at any valuation above $62.5 million, the $50 million valuation cap will kick in. For example, if we were to execute very well and are blessed by some good fortune from the Heroic gods and raise money at, say, a $100 million valuation, and you were able to sell your shares, you would get roughly twice as good a deal as the investors in that next equity round.

Further, as a debt holder with seniority, if things got REALLY bad (💩 🤔 🤔) and everything went sideways and we wound up liquidating the business for more than the total amount of the convertible notes before the notes were converted, you would get your money out before the other note holders and equity shareholders—which is yet another reason convertible notes are attractive for investors. (Note: I didn't tattoo my body with HEROIC and 51 | 2051 with that in mind. 🤔)

Again, we're excited to put this capital to good use as we take the next steps in executing our plans to fulfill our mission.

Which leads us to perhaps the most important part of our discussion...

Our Path to Profitability

To wrap this up, I'd like to chat briefly about my thoughts on one path to profitability.

Here's the ROUGH napkin math on one potential pathway to breakeven with all the appropriate asterisks and assumptions that this, among other things, assumes we will keep our expenses around our current core operational baseline level and focus on profitability vis-a-vis growth, etc.

(Note: when we talk about "asterisks" and "assumptions" we mean taking into account all the information in our Form C, especially the risk factors, which appear on our offering page on Wefunder.)

We believe that if we can get 10,000 new members to pay $15/mo for our integrated Heroic app (featuring not just the Heroic target practice but also the 1,000 +1s (and new ones!), 600+ PhilosophersNotes (and new ones!), 50 Optimal Living 101s (and new ones!), Basic Training, AND the Mastery Series (which used to be available exclusively via our Coach certification program) then we could generate ~ $150,000/month of recurring revenue.

That could be (with asterisks) ~51% of our core, operational expenses.

If we can get ANOTHER 10,000 people to pay $15/mo, that would be another ~$150,000 of recurring revenue which would be, with asterisks, ~101% of our expenses.

Add yet another 10,000 people at $15/mo and we could be profitable with a +51%!

Those are the napkin numbers on our path to moving, in the words of Jim Collins, from an idea to a viable business en route to an enduring great company.

And THAT is what our team is FIERCELY focused on achieving as we forge an antifragile business and create a solid foundation on which we can navigate any storm as we take the next steps to fulfill our mission in the years and decades ahead.

As I have said many times and feel at an even greater depth than ever before: I have never been more committed to and confident in our ability to do what we're here to do.

If you'd like to support us on our Heroic quest to create an exemplary crowdfunded business at scale that can help us create a world in which 51% of humanity is flourishing by 2051, starting with you and me and us today, we'd be honored to have your support.

You can make your commitment here today.

Day 1. Always. Let's goooo!!

Sean Casey:

I'm I'm...I see you're talking. Hang on, Chinch. I gotta talk to Tim another a second.

So I look at it this way. And Brian Johnson talks about this. If you, me and Chinch went out and played baseball right now, and we were on this open field and I pitch to Tim, Tim crushes, one Chinch goes and runs and gets it. We come back. We're like, "yeah, this is fun!"

Well, that's not as much fun as if we take the foul lines and we run 'em down each line and we put foul poles up. We put a 330' sign in the corner, 385', 410'. We put a fence up that says, if you hit it over this fence, you get one point. If guys are on base, you get three, four, you know, 2, 3, 4 points. This guy we're gonna, we're gonna put a mound up with a rubber. It's gonna be 60 feet, six inches away. Cuz that seems fair. You're gonna throw it to me. We're gonna compete. We're gonna get after it.

Holy [edited]. Here we go. This is ton of [edited] fun. Right?

I think of that as Heroic.

Tim McMahon:

Right.

Sean Casey:

Heroic is my, my foul lines...

Tim McMahon:

It's a game.

Sean Casey:

is my...It's my game! It's my game of life.

So I line up, what are my routines? What are my habits? What are I gonna do to win my morning? What am I gonna do at night to get better sleep? What time do I need to get upstairs? What book am I gonna read? How am I gonna serve my kids today? How am I gonna serve my buddies today?

And all of a sudden at the end of the day I go, man, that was a great game today. Holy [edited].

You know what I mean? It's like, and it's like, you start creating your own game because you've created the boundaries and that Heroic app...when you, when you're shooting that arrow into your targets, it it's a dopamine. It just like, man, this is so freaking awesome.

And all of a sudden you start to realize, wow, you've created some habits and routines that is giving you the life that you've always wanted. Let's go, let's go.

Tim McMahon:

That's it exactly.

Hi, my name's Brandon Guyer and I could not be more proud, honored, excited, and grateful to be an investor in Heroic.

My wife and I have actually added to our initial investment multiple times because we wholeheartedly believe in the mission of Heroic to change the world by helping people live their best lives and wholeheartedly believe that Brian is the man to lead that charge, and the Heroic team is the team to fulfill that mission.

You know, something I heard Brian say a while back hit me hard and has always stuck with me. He said something along the lines of, 'we will change your life so we can change the world together.'

Of course, that sounds great. But it's another thing to bring that to life and follow through with it by creating something that will help people do just that.

After personally taking part in the Optimize coaching program, which is Brian's previous company, and getting to know Brian on a personal level...talking to him every day, it was clear that investing in Heroic was going to be the easiest decision of our life and the biggest investment we've ever made.

Quite simply, it was a no-brainer for my wife and I. We get a chance to invest in a company that we know and love, a company that will positively impact this world and make it a better place...yes please!

Fast forward to now, August 2022, a little over a year after we made that initial investment, when Heroic was just a thought and Heroic has brought to market a life-changing app that has already helped thousands of people around the world show up more and more consistently at their Heroic best.

In my eyes, this kind of investment opportunity just doesn't come around often. Not only are you investing in a company, but you're investing in a movement that will leave this world a better place for all of our kids and all future generations, which is truly what it is all about.

Hi, I'm Matt McCall, and I'd like to encourage you to join the Heroic team.

I've been an investor in and huge fan of Brian Johnson for nearly 10 years.

Over my career, I've invested in over 80 companies, seeing 20,000 business plans, including many household name deca-corns and unicorns.

I'm a true believer in Heroic because it's changed my life. I've had countless entrepreneurs, friends, even my children sign up and go through Optimize and Heroic. (A number of them have even gone on to do the Mastery program.)

Even further, I have tattooed onto my wrist Brian's rally cry from Aristotle of 'ARETE', which reminds me each day about the importance of striving to be the highest version of ourselves. Of course, my tattoo and the size of my wrists are significantly smaller than Brian's (laughing)...

But look, we are all programmed since early childhood to chase blue ribbons to toxically drive ourselves, and yet few of us are told how to thrive and be happy while doing so.

I've had so many successful friends who realized after years on this Hedonic treadmill, that there has to be a healthier, more sustainable and successful way to attack life.

Fortunately, the great wisdom hasn't changed a lot in the last 4,000 years--just the analogs of stories, the frameworks.

However it's not easy to find, digest, read and understand all this wisdom. If any, you've ever tried to read Seneca or the Upanishads or anything along those lines, you'd agree. Let alone remembering what you've read, what the key takeaways were, and then connecting that wisdom across text across centuries into a useful framework going forward.

Brian is one of the most gifted synthesizers that I've ever met in my life. He not only gets the core of the wisdom--at this point, across 600 books and PhilosophersNotes and counting--but he also hangs it all together in a guide for us to help us on our journey. This is an essential need in our increasingly confusing and bifurcated world.

Also, as the content community and connections grow at Heroic, so does the value of the company. This is a rare opportunity to truly impact the world at scale and also invest in an opportunity that naturally compounds and scales with time.

So please join me in supporting this amazing company, this amazing mission and this amazing man.

Thank you very much.

Testimonial

Brian Johnson:

11,000 people from 115 countries have signed up. You know, and this is day one. And that's another one of those — thank you, bless you for believing in us.

We're really, really, really, really excited about that, and we're really proud of the feedback that has come in so far.

We hope that you have the same experience that we've, again, the first early users have shared with us. And again, it's day one. We're super, super humble about where we're at, but we're also really excited about it and proud to have received some feedback.

And Joe, just to give you a quick shout out... Joe, dear friend, big investor, student and soon graduate of the master's program at positive psychology. He and I are going back and forth on WhatsApp. The first person I've ever connected with on WhatsApp, that was like a big experience for me. It was fantastic.

So he was one of the first that we shared kind of the early app with. And, you know, Joe's one of the guys I admire most and is this performing at a very high level entrepreneurial as a former venture guy who's been there and done that and helped, you know, launch products and knows what it takes to do what we're trying to do. He's also a spiritual guy who I admire deeply and a scientist and, you know, to receive your feedback on how it's impacted you, was just such a deep thing. Actually, do we have the microphone runner? We had talked about the possibility of you kind of sharing briefly. I'd love to hear from you just to, take a breath and, and hear your thoughts. Because I, whenever I'm kind of sharing what the app does, I'll share what it does, but I'm not the hype guy.

I like to have our community put it in their words, whether it's why they're excited to invest or, in this case, use the membership.

Good to see you, dude.

Joe's feedback, you know, Ray Dalio talks about, believability—you know—that someone who's been there and done that enough times...you are believable. You know. And the feedback I get in general is amazing and inspiring, but Joe's background in both product development and spiritual aspiration and then the science, made our connection in your description of how it's already impacted your life even more profoundly deep. So if you're open to sharing a couple words.

Joseph Okleberry:

Thank you, Brian. It is bright. <laugh>

Hey everyone. My name is Joe, Joseph.

Alright. Who here has installed the Heroic app and set up their big three protocol?

It's about half, less than half. Okay.

And who here thinks has been life changing already?

Yeah. Oh yeah, me too. So yeah, just quickly. I've been...I was so fortunate to get introduced to Brian I think the day before the first fundraising call, this is December of 2020, and I joined on this call and I don't know anything about what's going on. I don't know Optimize, and there's crazy people on the call. <laugh> there, there are fanatics. And I'm like, I don't know what's going on here. I, I think I'm in the wrong room. <laugh> now I am one of those crazy people.

Brian Johnson:

Says the guy who has watched Finding Joe...

Joseph Okleberry:

55 times.

Brian Johnson:

Yeah. So let's be clear on who's... heres to the crazy ones. Yeah.

Joseph Okleberry:

That's the origin story I watched Finding Joe 55 times. I saw Brian's face a thousand times.

Brian Johnson:

And James, you know?

Joseph Okleberry:

And James from Penn.

So quickly on my story, cause it will make sense.

I made a couple of vows as a child, not sacred vows, but unconscious vows. And they drove me through life and I actually achieved all of them by like the age of 30. However, I realized I didn't get what I actually wanted. You know, I wasn't poor. I didn't have my heart broken and I wasn't part of a cult. I was very religious when I was younger. So I had succeeded on these targets. I had money, I hadn't, you know, been divorced like my parents got divorced, et cetera, but I was depressed in New York city working a hundred hour weeks. And then that set off this journey of trying to figure out what really matters in life. And I had to actually just be humble and say, I don't know the formula.

I really don't. So I went searching. I spent the last four years on sabbatical studying first self-help: Tony Robbins, Joe Dispenza, Hoffman process... I did everything. I love it. By the way. I'm not a hater on self-help at all.

Then flew to the east. I spent a year studying Buddhism and yoga, did my teacher training, became all zen'd out — really love that experience, and finished with this Master's in positive psychology. And through all these modalities, I think I've taken something great from all of them, but nothing has tied everything together so beautifully as the Heroic app.

And the reason I'm so grateful is because I don't have to create it myself.

These guys, Alexandra and team have built exactly...actually more than I could have dreamed of what I wanted to build for myself.

And so I'm so grateful. In the past eight days since I installed the app on a flight to Costa Rica, I have become more virtuous, I've given more hugs. I've said I love you more times.

I have basically gone caffeine free. Caffeine's kind of one of my...when I'm not at my best...that's what I reach for. No caffeine since I got the app installed because I want to swipe no caffeine day, right? I really want to do that.

And so I can honestly say it's the most consequential app for me of my lifetime, already. And there was no guarantee, there was no certainty. This was not easy to pull off.

So, a huge thank you to the Heroic team, the Meta Lab team, and everyone else who's been involved.

I'm so grateful. I'm so glad to be a founding member, an investor, a friend...Brian Johnson is my advisor for my capstone, my master's thesis now — which will serve heroically, the heroic community and, and the world at large. And I'm just here. We checked in with intentions last night before we went to bed and mine was gratitude

Brian Johnson:
