Preferred Units:

Following is a summary of the terms of the Preferred Units:

- Each Preferred Unit being issued in this Offering has a stated value per Preferred Unit of $0.50 (the “Preferred Value”).
- If the Company is profitable, then it is required to make tax distributions to its members to provide liquidity for the payment of taxes arising from allocations of profits to members to the extent of the tax payment obligation at the highest applicable marginal tax rate with such tax distributions reducing dollar for dollar distributions subsequently payable to the members as provided for below.
- Distributions accrue on the Preferred Units at a rate of five percent (5%) per annum (“Preferred Return”) of the Preferred Value until the Preferred Value and all accrued, but unpaid Preferred Return, have been paid in full.
- The Company cannot make any distributions to the holders of Common Units or P Units (other than tax distributions) until the Preferred Value and accrued but unpaid Preferred Return on the Preferred Units have been paid in full.
- After the Preferred Value and accrued, but unpaid, Preferred Return has been paid in full, holders of Common Units who have made capital contributions to the Company will receive the return of their aggregate capital contribution without any preferred return or interest thereon.
- After the Preferred Value and all accrued but unpaid Preferred Return has been paid in full to the holders of the Preferred Units and holders of Common Units who have made capital contributions to the Company receive the return of their aggregate capital contributions, distributions will be made to the holders of Common Units, Preferred Units and P Units on a pro rata basis based upon their respective percentage interests in the Company; provided that holders of P Units shall only receive distributions above the applicable Threshold Amount (as defined in the Operating Agreement).
- Any and all Dividends and other distributions (other than tax distributions, which shall be mandatory) shall be made as and when declared by the Board (as defined below) in its sole and absolute discretion from the after-tax profits of the Company, if any.
- The Preferred Units are not redeemable.
- The Company is managed by a Board of Managers defined in the Operating Agreement and below. The Preferred Units do not have any voting rights,

- The Company has the right to convert the Preferred Units to Common Units at any time from and after the date that the holders of the Preferred Units have received their Preferred Return and the return of their Stated Value.
- The Company has the right to cause the conversion of the Company from a limited liability company to a corporation in which case the holders of the Preferred Units (if they have not converted to common units) will receive preferred stock of the new corporation that has rights substantially equivalent to the rights associated with the Preferred Units.

Transfer Restrictions:	The Preferred Units are subject to significant restrictions on transfer. Except for certain permitted transfers (e.g., transfers to family members), any transfer of the Preferred Units requires the consent of the Board of Managers of the Company which may be given or withheld in the sole discretion of the Board. Furthermore, once consent of the Board is given, any transfer would also be subject to a right of first refusal in favor of the Company.
Management:	The overall management and control of the business and administrative affairs of the Company is vested in the Managers, consisting currently of three (3) people, Michael Coleman, Eugene Gilchrist and James Norton (the “ Board ”).
Risks:	An investment in the Company is highly speculative and subject to several risks, including, without limitation, the risk factors disclosed in the Form C for this offering that was filed with the SEC and available on the Company’s offering page on the wefunder.com website maintained by the Portal.
Closing Conditions	The closing shall be subject to customary closing conditions.
Documentation:	The definitive documentation will principally consist of a Subscription Agreement and the Operating Agreement.
